

Part 1: Introduction

A. General

A1. The Bar Standards Board

I1

The Bar Standards Board is a specialist regulator focussing primarily on the regulation of advocacy, litigation and legal advisory services. These legal services have a close relationship to access to justice and the rule of law. Our society is based on a rule of law. Everyone needs to be able to seek expert advice on their legal rights and obligations and to have access to skilled representation in the event of a dispute or litigation. Our system of justice depends on those who provide such services acting fearlessly, independently and competently, so as to further their clients' best interests, subject always to their duty to the Court.

I2

The regulatory objectives of the Bar Standards Board derive from the Legal Services Act 2007 and can be summarised as follows:

- .1 protecting and promoting the public interest;
- .2 supporting the constitutional principles of the rule of law;
- .3 improving access to justice;
- .4 protecting and promoting the interests of consumers;
- .5 promoting competition in the provision of the services;
- .6 encouraging an independent, strong, diverse and effective legal profession;
- .7 increasing public understanding of the citizen's legal rights and duties; and
- .8 promoting and maintaining adherence to the following professional principles:
 - a that authorised persons act with independence and integrity;
 - b that authorised persons maintain proper standards of work;
 - c that authorised persons act in the best interests of their clients;
 - d that authorised persons comply with their duty to the court to act with independence in the interests of justice; and
 - e that the affairs of clients are kept confidential.

I3

The BSB Handbook ("this Handbook" or "the Handbook") sets out the standards that the Bar Standards Board requires the persons it regulates to comply with in order for it to be able to meet its regulatory objectives.

I4

Although the Handbook is drafted with specific reference to those regulated by the BSB and for use by them, the Handbook should also act as a useful reference tool for all consumers of legal services regulated by the Bar Standards Board. In particular, the Core Duties and the outcomes set out in Part 2 of this Handbook should give consumers a useful indication of what they should expect from the Bar Standard Board's regulatory framework and those subject to it.

A2. Structure of the Handbook

I5

The Handbook consists of the following parts:

- .1 Part 1 – Introduction;
- .2 Part 2 – The Code of Conduct – this part includes the ten Core Duties which underpin the Bar Standards Board's entire regulatory framework, as well as the rules which supplement those Core Duties. Compliance with both the Core Duties and the rules is mandatory. The Code of Conduct also contains details of the outcomes which compliance with the Core Duties and the rules is designed to achieve. The Bar Standards Board's approach to regulation is risk-focused and so these outcomes have been defined by considering the risks which the profession needs to manage if the regulatory objectives are to be achieved;

.3 Part 3 – Scope of Practice and Authorisation and Licensing Rules – this part includes the requirements that must be met to become entitled to practise as a barrister or a registered European lawyer and the process that must be followed in order to obtain authorisation to practise as a BSB entity. It also provides a summary of the scope of activities that each type of BSB authorised person is permitted to undertake;

.4 Part 4 – Bar Qualification Rules – this part sets out the training which a person must complete, and other requirements which a person must satisfy, in order to be called to the Bar by an Inn and become qualified to practise as a barrister. It also includes details of the training requirements that BSB authorised persons are required to meet, and provides for the regulation of Authorised Education and Training Organisations (AETOs);

.5 Part 5 – Enforcement Regulations – this part sets out the enforcement procedures that apply if applicable persons fail to act in accordance with the requirements of this Handbook;

.6 Part 6 – Definitions – this part defines all the italicised terms used in this Handbook.

The Handbook includes Core Duties, Outcomes, Guidance, Rules and Regulations. "CD" refers to Core Duties, "o" to Outcomes, "g" to Guidance, "r" to Rules and Regulations. The Regulations form the basis upon which enforcement action may be taken and are set out in Part E of this Handbook. The effect of something being classified as a Core Duty, Outcome, Guidance, Rule or Regulations is as follows:

.1 Core Duties – these underpin the entire regulatory framework and set the mandatory standards that all BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers are required to meet. They also define the core elements of professional conduct. Disciplinary proceedings may be taken against a BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister if the Bar Standards Board believes there has been a breach by that person of the Core Duties set out in this Handbook and that such action would be in accordance with the Enforcement Strategy.

.2 The Outcomes – these explain the reasons for the regulatory scheme and what it is designed to achieve. They are derived from the regulatory objectives as defined in the LSA and the risks which must be managed if those objectives are to be achieved. They are not themselves mandatory rules, but they are factors which BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers should have in mind when considering how the Core Duties, Conduct Rules or Bar Qualification Rules (as appropriate) should be applied in particular circumstances. The Bar Standards Board will take into account whether or not an Outcome has, or might have been, adversely affected when considering how to respond to alleged breaches of the Core Duties, Conduct Rules or Bar Qualification Rules.

.3 The Rules – The Rules serve three purposes:

.a the Conduct Rules supplement the Core Duties and are mandatory. Disciplinary proceedings may be taken against a BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister if the Bar Standards Board believes there has been a breach by that person of the Conduct Rules set out as applying to them in Part 2 of this Handbook and that it would be in accordance with the Enforcement strategy to take such action. However, the Conduct Rules are not intended to be exhaustive. In any situation where no specific Rule applies, reference should be made to the Core Duties. In situations where specific Rules do apply, it is still necessary to consider the Core Duties, since compliance with the Rules alone will not necessarily be sufficient to comply with the Core Duties;

.b the Rules contained within "Scope of Practice Rules" set out the requirements for authorisation and the scope of practice for different kinds of BSB authorised person and include some rules relevant to unregistered barristers. These rules are mandatory;

.c the rest of Part 3 and Part 4 set out the requirements which must be met by a person before they may undertake a specific role within those regulated by the Bar Standards Board. If a person fails to meet those requirements, they will not be permitted to undertake that role by the Bar Standards Board. Where requirements are continuing and a BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister fails to meet such requirements which are relevant to that BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister, the Bar Standards Board may take steps in accordance with Part 3 or Part 5 to have that BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister prevented from continuing within that role.

.4 Guidance –

.a Guidance serves a number of purposes:

.i to assist in the interpretation and application of the Core Duties or Rules to which such Guidance relates.

.ii to provide examples of the types of conduct or behaviour that the Rules are intended to encourage or which would likely indicate compliance with the relevant Rule or, conversely, which may constitute non-compliance with the Rule to which such Guidance relates.

.iii to explain how the Rule applies to a particular type of person or unregistered barrister and how that particular person could comply with that Rule.

.iv to act as a signpost to other rules or to guidance on the Bar Standards Board website or elsewhere which may be relevant when considering the scope of the Rule.

.v in Part 3, to give further information about the process of applying for authorisation and about how the Bar Standards Board intends to exercise its discretionary powers in relation to the authorisation of entities.

.b The Guidance set out in this Handbook is not the only guidance which is relevant to BSB regulated persons and unregistered barristers. In addition to the Guidance, the Bar Standards Board has published and will publish from time to time various guidance on its website which supplements this Handbook, including (but not limited to):

.i the Bar Qualification Manual; and

.ii the BSB's Supporting Information on the BSB Handbook Equality Rules.

.c In carrying out their obligations or meeting the requirements of this Handbook, BSB regulated persons and unregistered barristers must have regard to any relevant guidance issued by the Bar Standards Board which will be taken into account by the Bar Standards Board if there is an alleged breach of or otherwise non-compliance with of the obligations imposed on a BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister under this Handbook. Failure to comply with the guidance will not of itself be proof of such breach or non-compliance but the BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister will need to be able to show how the obligation has been met notwithstanding the departure from the relevant guidance.

.5 Regulations – Part 5 of this Handbook sets out the regulations which bind the Bar Standards Board when it considers alleged breaches of the Handbook and subsequent enforcement action. These Regulations also bind the various Tribunals and panels referred to in that Part and all persons who are subject to the enforcement process. When considering enforcement action under Part 5, the Bar Standards Board's response to any alleged breach of or non-compliance with the Core Duties or the Rules will be informed by the impact of the alleged breach or non-compliance on the achievement of the relevant Outcomes, as well by as its own Supervision and Enforcement Strategies and any other policies published from time to time which the Bar Standards Board regards as relevant (taking into account the nature of the alleged breach or non-compliance).

A3. Amendments to the Handbook

Rules

r11

Subject to Rules r1 and r2, the Bar Standards Board may make amendments and/or additions to this Handbook by resolution and any such amendments and/or additions will take effect on such date as the Bar Standards Board appoints or, if no such date is appointed, on the date when notice of the amendment is first published on the Bar Standard Board's website following approval under Schedule 4 of the Legal Services Act 2007.

r12

The Bar Standards Board shall not without the unanimous consent of the Inns amend or waive any rule so as to permit a person who has not been called to the Bar by an Inn to practise as a barrister.

r13

Removed from 1 November 2017.

r14

Amendments and additions will be published on the Bar Standards Board's website.

A4. Waivers

Rules

r15

Subject to r12, the Bar Standards Board shall have the power to waive or modify:

.1 the duty imposed on a BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister to comply with the provisions of this Handbook; or

.2 any other requirement of this Handbook

.3 in such circumstances and to such extent as the Bar Standards Board may think fit and either conditionally or unconditionally.

r16

Any application to the Bar Standards Board for a waiver of any of the mandatory requirements or to extend the time within which to complete any of the mandatory requirements must be made in writing, setting out all relevant circumstances relied on and supported by all relevant documentary evidence.

B. Application

Rules

r17

Subject to paragraphs r18 to r111 below, this Handbook applies to the following categories of person:

- .1 all barristers, that is to say:
 - .a barristers who hold a practising certificate in accordance with Section 3.C (“ practising barristers”);
 - .b barristers who are undertaking pupillage, or a part thereof and who are registered with the Bar Standards Board as a pupil (“ pupils”); and
 - .c all unregistered barristers.
- .2 European lawyers registered as such by the Bar Standards Board and by an Inn in accordance with Section 3.D but only in connection with professional work undertaken by them in England and Wales (“ registered European lawyers”);
- .3 bodies which have been authorised or licensed by the Bar Standards Board in accordance with Section 3.E of this Handbook (“ BSB entities”);
- .4 individuals who are authorised to provide reserved legal activities by another Approved Regulator where such individuals are employed by a BSB authorised person (“ authorised (non-BSB) individuals”);
- .5 all managers of BSB entities;
- .6 to the extent that this Handbook is expressed to apply to them in their capacity as such, owners of a BSB entity;
- .7 solely as regards provisions in this Handbook relating to disqualification from performing a relevant activity or relevant activities and not otherwise, any non-authorised individuals who are employed by a BSB authorised person; and
- .8 solely as regards Section 4.B of the Handbook, individuals who wish to be called to the Bar and to become qualified to practise as a barrister and authorised education and training organisations. Until 1 January 2020, for the purposes of any proceedings of the Inns Conduct Committee, Part 4 applies as if version 3.5 of the BSB Handbook were in force;
- .9 and persons within paragraphs r17.1 to 7 (with the exception of pupils without a provisional practising certificate, unregistered barristers and owners) are referred to as “BSB regulated persons” throughout this Handbook. For the purposes of Part 5 of the Handbook these persons (and those who are no longer BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers but who were at the time when any conduct was complained of or reported) are referred to as “applicable persons” . For the avoidance of doubt, the Handbook continues to apply to those who are subject to suspension.

If you are a BSB authorised individual who is employed by or a manager of an authorised (non-BSB) body and is subject to the regulatory arrangements of the Approved Regulator of that body, and the requirements of that other Approved Regulator conflict with a provision within this Handbook then the conflicting provision within this Handbook shall not apply to you. You will instead be expected to comply with the requirements of that other Approved Regulator and, if you do so, you will not be considered to be in breach of the relevant provision of this Handbook.

r19

If you are a pupil and are:

- .1 the pupil of an employed barrister (non-authorised body); or
- .2 the pupil of a manager or employee of a BSB entity; or
- .3 the pupil of a manager or employee of an authorised (non-BSB) body; or
- .4 spending a period of external training with a BSB entity or an authorised (non-BSB) body
- .5 this Handbook will apply to you as though you were an employee of the barrister’s employer or the body concerned.

r110

If you are a registered European lawyer, then, except where otherwise provided, the provisions of this Handbook which apply to barristers shall apply to you, in connection with all professional work undertaken by you in England and Wales, as if you were a self-employed barrister or an employed barrister (non-authorised body) or a manager or employee of an authorised (non BSB) body or a manager or employee of a BSB entity (as the case may be) depending on the way in which you practise.

r111

In addition to the above, each Part to this Handbook has its own application section which sets out the more detailed application of that particular Part. In the event of any inconsistency, the application section specific to the particular Part shall prevail over these general provisions.

This fourth edition of the Handbook came into force on 1 April 2019 and replaced the third edition of the Handbook (which came into effect from 3 April 2017).

Subject to r114 below, in respect of anything done or omitted to be done or otherwise arising before 6 January 2014:

- .1 Parts 2 and 3 of this Handbook shall not apply;
- .2 the edition of the Code of Conduct or relevant Annexe in force at the relevant time shall apply; and
- .3 any reference to Part 2, Part 3 or Part 5 of this Handbook shall include reference to the corresponding Part of the edition of the Code of Conduct or relevant Annexe which was in force at the relevant time.

Where:

- .1 a matter is being dealt with under the Complaints Regulations prior to 15 October 2019; or the Disciplinary Tribunal Regulations 2014 prior to 1 November 2017; or Annexe J (The Complaints Rules 2011), Annexe K (The Disciplinary Tribunals Regulations (2009) (Reissued 1 February 2012)), Annexe M (Hearings before the Visitors Rules), Annexe N (Interim Suspension Rules) or Annexe O (Fitness to Practise Rules) prior to 6 January 2014; and that matter has not concluded or been disposed of; or
- .2 anything done or omitted to be done or otherwise arising before 6 January 2014 required referral for consideration in accordance with any of the above Annexes, then Part 5 of this Handbook shall apply to all such cases and any step taken pursuant to the Annexes then applying (if any) shall be regarded, unless otherwise decided, as having been taken pursuant to the equivalent provisions of Part 5 of this Handbook, save that no fine in excess of £15,000 may be imposed by a Disciplinary Tribunal in respect of conduct before 6 January 2014 and no financial administrative sanction in excess of £300 may be imposed by the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel in respect of conduct before 6 January 2014.

D. Interpretation

Rules

r115

In this Handbook:

- .1 words and phrases in italics shall have the meaning given to them in Part 6;
- .2 any reference to the singular shall include the plural and vice versa;
- .3 any reference to another provision in this Handbook shall be a reference to that provision as amended from time to time; and
- .4 where references are made to an enactment, it is a reference to that enactment as amended, and includes a reference to that provision as extended or applied by or under any other enactment.

Part 2 - B. The Core Duties

Core Duties

CD1 You must observe your duty to the court in the administration of justice [CD1].

CD2 You must act in the best interests of each client [CD2].

CD3 You must act with honesty, and with integrity [CD3].

CD4 You must maintain your independence [CD4].

CD5 You must not behave in a way which is likely to diminish the trust and confidence which the public places in you or in the profession [CD5].

CD6 You must keep the affairs of each client confidential [CD6].

CD7 You must provide a competent standard of work and service to each client [CD7]

CD8 You must not discriminate unlawfully against any person [CD8].

CD9 You must be open and co-operative with your regulators [CD9].

CD10 You must take reasonable steps to manage your practice, or carry out your role within your practice, competently and in such a way as to achieve compliance with your legal and regulatory obligations [CD10].

Guidance to the Core Duties

Guidance

gC1

The Core Duties are not presented in order of precedence, subject to the following:

.1 CD1 overrides any other core duty, if and to the extent the two are inconsistent. Rules rC3.5 and rC4 deal specifically with the relationship between

CD1, CD2 and CD4 and you should refer to those rules and to the related Guidance;

.2 in certain other circumstances set out in this Code of Conduct one Core Duty overrides another. Specifically, Rule rC16 provides that CD2 (as well as being subject to CD1) is subject to your obligations under CD3, CD4 and CD8.

gC2

Your obligation to take reasonable steps to manage your practice, or carry out your role within your practice, competently and in such a way as to achieve compliance with your legal and regulatory obligations (CD10) includes an obligation to take all reasonable steps to mitigate the effects of any breach of those legal and regulatory obligations once you become aware of the same.

gC2A

Your obligation to be open and co-operative with your regulators (CD9) includes being open and co-operative with all relevant regulators and ombudsman schemes, including but not limited to approved regulators under the Legal Services Act 2007 and the Legal Ombudsman.

Part 2 - C. The Conduct Rules

Rules

Part 2 - C1. You and the court

Outcomes C1-C5

Outcomes

oC1

The court is able to rely on information provided to it by those conducting litigation and by advocates who appear before it.

oC2

The proper administration of justice is served.

oC3

The interests of clients are protected to the extent compatible with outcomes oC1 and oC2 and the Core Duties.

oC4

Both those who appear before the court and clients understand clearly the extent of the duties owed to the court by advocates and those conducting litigation and the circumstances in which duties owed to clients will be overridden by the duty owed to the court.

oC5

The public has confidence in the administration of justice and in those who serve it.

Rules C3-C6

Rules

rC3

You owe a duty to the court to act with independence in the interests of justice. This duty overrides any inconsistent obligations which you may have (other than obligations under the criminal law). It includes the following specific obligations which apply whether you are acting as an advocate or are otherwise involved in the conduct of litigation in whatever role (with the exception of Rule C3.1 below, which applies when acting as an advocate):

- .1 you must not knowingly or recklessly mislead or attempt to mislead the court;
- .2 you must not abuse your role as an advocate;
- .3 you must take reasonable steps to avoid wasting the court's time;
- .4 you must take reasonable steps to ensure that the court has before it all relevant decisions and legislative provisions;
- .5 you must ensure that your ability to act independently is not compromised.

rC4

Your duty to act in the best interests of each client is subject to your duty to the court.

rC5

Your duty to the court does not require you to act in breach of your duty to keep the affairs of each client confidential.

Not misleading the court

rC6

Your duty not to mislead the court will include the following obligations:

.1 you must not:

- .a make submissions, representations or any other statement; or
- .b ask questions which suggest facts to witnesses which you know, or are instructed, are untrue or misleading.

.2 you must not call witnesses to give evidence or put affidavits or witness statements to the court which you know, or are instructed, are untrue or misleading, unless you make clear to the court the true position as known by or instructed to you.

Guidance to Rules C3-C6 and relationship to CD1-CD2

Guidance

gC3

Rules rC3 – rC6 set out some specific aspects of your duty to the court (CD1). See CD1 and associated Guidance at gC1.

gC4

As to your duty not to mislead the court:

- .1 knowingly misleading the court includes being complicit in another person misleading the court;
- .2 knowingly misleading the court also includes inadvertently misleading the court if you later realise that you have misled the court, and you fail to correct the position;
- .3 recklessly means being indifferent to the truth, or not caring whether something is true or false; and
- .4 the duty continues to apply for the duration of the case.

gC5

Your duty under Rule rC3.4 includes drawing to the attention of the court any decision or provision which may be adverse to the interests of your client. It is particularly important where you are appearing against a litigant who is not legally represented.

gC6

You are obliged by CD2 to promote and to protect your client's interests so far as that is consistent with the law and with your overriding duty to the court under CD1. Your duty to the court does not prevent you from putting forward your client's case simply because you do not believe that the facts are as your client states them to be (or as you, on your client's behalf, state them to be), as long as any positive case you put forward accords with your instructions and you do not mislead the court. Your role when acting as an advocate or conducting litigation is to present your client's case, and it is not for you to decide whether your client's case is to be believed.

gC7

For example, you are entitled and it may often be appropriate to draw to the witness's attention other evidence which appears to conflict with what the witness is saying and you are entitled to indicate that a court may find a particular piece of evidence difficult to accept. But if the witness maintains that the evidence is true, it should be recorded in the witness statement and you will not be misleading the court if you call the witness to confirm their witness statement. Equally, there may be circumstances where you call a hostile witness whose evidence you are instructed is untrue. You will not be in breach of Rule rC6 if you make the position clear to the court. See, further, the guidance at gC14.

gC8

As set out in Rule rC5, your duty to the court does not permit or require you to disclose confidential information which you have obtained in the course of your instructions and which your client has not authorised you to disclose to the court. However, Rule rC6 requires you not knowingly to mislead the court. There may be situations where you have obligations under both these rules.

gC9

Rule rC4 makes it clear that your duty to act in the best interests of your client is subject to your duty to the court. For example, if your client were to tell you that they have committed the crime with which they were charged, in order to be able to ensure compliance with Rule rC4 on the one hand and Rule rC3 and Rule rC6 on the other:

- .1 you would not be entitled to disclose that information to the court without your client's consent; and
- .2 you would not be misleading the court if, after your client had entered a plea of 'not guilty', you were to test in cross-examination the reliability of the evidence of the prosecution witnesses and then address the jury to the effect that the prosecution had not succeeded in making them sure of your client's guilt.

However, you would be misleading the court and would therefore be in breach of Rules rC5 and rC6 if you were to set up a positive case inconsistent with the confession, as for example by:

- .1 suggesting to prosecution witnesses, calling your client or your witnesses to show; or submitting to the jury, that your client did not commit the crime; or
- .2 suggesting that someone else had done so; or
- .3 putting forward an alibi.

gC11

If there is a risk that the court will be misled unless you disclose confidential information which you have learned in the course of your instructions, you should ask the client for permission to disclose it to the court. If your client refuses to allow you to make the disclosure you must cease to act, and return your instructions: see Rules rC25 to rC27 below. In these circumstances you must not reveal the information to the court.

gC12

For example, if your client tells you that they have previous convictions of which the prosecution is not aware, you may not disclose this without their consent. However, in a case where mandatory sentences apply, the non-disclosure of the previous convictions will result in the court failing to pass the sentence that is required by law. In that situation, you must advise your client that if consent is refused to your revealing the information you will have to cease to act. In situations where mandatory sentences do not apply, and your client does not agree to disclose the previous convictions, you can continue to represent your client but in doing so must not say anything that misleads the court. This will constrain what you can say in mitigation. For example, you could not advance a positive case of previous good character knowing that there are undisclosed prior convictions. Moreover, if the court asks you a direct question you must not give an untruthful answer and therefore you would have to withdraw if, on your being asked such a question, your client still refuses to allow you to answer the question truthfully. You should explain this to your client.

gC13

Similarly, if you become aware that your client has a document which should be disclosed but has not been disclosed, you cannot continue to act unless your client agrees to the disclosure of the document. In these circumstances you must not reveal the existence or contents of the document to the court.

Rule C7 - Not abusing your role as an advocate

Rules

rC7

Where you are acting as an advocate, your duty not to abuse your role includes the following obligations:

- .1 you must not make statements or ask questions merely to insult, humiliate or annoy a witness or any other person;
- .2 you must not make a serious allegation against a witness whom you have had an opportunity to cross-examine unless you have given that witness a chance to answer the allegation in cross-examination;
- .3 you must not make a serious allegation against any person, or suggest that a person is guilty of a crime with which your client is charged unless:
 - .a you have reasonable grounds for the allegation; and
 - .b the allegation is relevant to your client's case or the credibility of a witness; and

.c where the allegation relates to a third party, you avoid naming them in open court unless this is reasonably necessary.

.4 you must not put forward to the court a personal opinion of the facts or the law unless you are invited or required to do so by the court or by law.

Part 2 - C2. Behaving ethicallyRules

Outcomes C6-C9Outcomes*oC6

Those regulated by the Bar Standards Board maintain standards of honesty, integrity and independence, and are seen as so doing.

oC7

The proper administration of justice, access to justice and the best interests of clients are served.

oC8

Those regulated by the Bar Standards Board do not discriminate unlawfully and take appropriate steps to prevent discrimination occurring in their practices.

oC9

Those regulated by the Bar Standards Board and clients understand the obligations of honesty, integrity and independence.

Rules C8-C9 - Honesty, integrity and independenceRules*rC8

You must not do anything which could reasonably be seen by the public to undermine your honesty, integrity (CD3) and independence (CD4).

rC9

Your duty to act with honesty and with integrity under CD3 includes the following requirements:

- .1 you must not knowingly or recklessly mislead or attempt to mislead anyone;
- .2 you must not draft any statement of case, witness statement, affidavit or other document containing:
 - .a any statement of fact or contention which is not supported by your client or by your instructions;
 - .b any contention which you do not consider to be properly arguable;
 - .c any allegation of fraud, unless you have clear instructions to allege fraud and you have reasonably credible material which establishes an arguable case of fraud;
 - .d (in the case of a witness statement or affidavit) any statement of fact other than the evidence which you reasonably believe the witness would give if the witness were giving evidence orally;
- .3 you must not encourage a witness to give evidence which is misleading or untruthful;
- .4 you must not rehearse, practise with or coach a witness in respect of their evidence;
- .5 unless you have the permission of the representative for the opposing side or of the court, you must not communicate with any witness (including your client) about the case while the witness is giving evidence;
- .6 you must not make, or offer to make, payments to any witness which are contingent on their evidence or on the outcome of the case;
- .7 you must only propose, or accept, fee arrangements which are legal.

Guidance to Rules C8-C9 and relationship to CD1-CD5

Guidance

gC14

Your honesty, integrity and independence are fundamental. The interests of justice (CD1) and the client's best interests (CD2) can only be properly served, and any conflicts between the two properly resolved, if you conduct yourself honestly and maintain your independence from external pressures, as required by CD3 and CD4. You should also refer to Rule rC16 which subjects your duty to act in the best interests of your client (CD2) to your observance of CD3 and CD4, as well as to your duty to the court (CD1).

gC15

Other rules deal with specific aspects of your obligation to act in your client's best interests (CD2) while maintaining honesty, integrity (CD3) and independence (CD4), such as rule rC21.10 (not acting where your independence is compromised), rule rC10 (not paying or accepting referral fees) and rC21 (not acting in circumstances of a conflict of interest or where you risk breaching one client's confidentiality in favour of another's).

gC16

Rule C8 addresses how your conduct is perceived by the public. Conduct on your part which the public may reasonably perceive as undermining your honesty, integrity or independence is likely to diminish the trust and confidence which the public places in you or in the profession, in breach of CD5. Rule C9 is not exhaustive of the ways in which CD5 may be breached.

gC17

In addition to your obligation to only propose, or accept, fee arrangements which are legal in Rule C9.7, you must also have regard to your obligations in relation to referral fees in Rule rC10 and the associated guidance.

Examples of how you may be seen as compromising your independence

gC18

The following may reasonably be seen as compromising your independence in breach of Rule 8 (whether or not the circumstances are such that Rule rC10 is also breached):

.1 offering, promising or giving:

.a any commission or referral fee (of whatever size) – note that these are in any case prohibited by Rule rC10 and associated guidance; or

.b a gift (apart from items of modest value), to any client, professional client or other intermediary; or

.2 lending money to any such client, professional client or other intermediary; or

.3 accepting any money (whether as a loan or otherwise) from any client, professional client or other intermediary, unless it is a payment for your professional services or reimbursement of expenses or of disbursements made on behalf of the client;

gC19

If you are offered a gift by a current, prospective or former client, professional client or other intermediary, you should consider carefully whether the circumstances and size of the gift would reasonably lead others to think that your independence had been compromised. If this would be the case, you should refuse to accept the gift.

gC20

The giving or receiving of entertainment at a disproportionate level may also give rise to a similar issue and so should not be offered or accepted if it would lead others reasonably to think that your independence had been compromised.

gC21

Guidance gC18 to gC20 above is likely to be more relevant where you are a self-employed barrister, a BSB entity, an authorised (non-BSB) individual, an employed barrister (BSB entity) or a manager of a BSB entity. If you are a BSB authorised individual who is an employee or manager of an authorised (non-BSB) body or you are an employed barrister (non-authorised body) and your approved regulator or employer (as appropriate) permits payments to which Rule rC10 applies, you may make or receive such payments only in your capacity as such and as permitted by the rules of your approved regulator or employer (as appropriate). For further information on referral fees, see the guidance at gC32).

Media comment

The ethical obligations that apply in relation to your professional practice generally continue to apply in relation to media comment. In particular, barristers should be aware of the following:

- Client's best interests: Core Duty 2 and Rules C15.1-.2 require a barrister to promote fearlessly and by all proper and lawful means the lay client's best interests and to do so without regard to their own interests.
- Independence: Core Duties 3 and 4 provide that you must not permit your absolute independence, integrity and freedom from external pressures to be compromised.
- Trust and confidence: Core Duty 5 provides that you must not behave in a way which is likely to diminish the trust and confidence which the public places in you or the profession.
- Confidentiality: Core Duty 6 and Rule C15.5 require you to preserve the confidentiality of your lay client's affairs and you must not undermine this unless permitted to do so by law or with the express consent of the lay client.

Examples of what your duty to act with honesty and integrity may require

gC23

Rule rC9 sets out some specific aspects of your duty under CD3 to act with honesty and also with integrity.

gC24

In addition to the above, where the other side is legally represented and you are conducting correspondence in respect of the particular matter, you are expected to correspond at all times with that other party's legal representative – otherwise you may be regarded as breaching CD3 or Rule C9.

Other possible breaches of CD3 and/or CD5

gC25

A breach of Rule rC9 may also constitute a breach of CD3 and/or CD5. Other conduct which is likely to be treated as a breach of CD3 and/or CD5 includes (but is not limited to):

- .1 subject to Guidance C27 below, breaches of Rule rC8;
- .2 breaches of Rule rC10;
- .3 criminal conduct, other than minor criminal offences (see Guidance C27);
- .4 seriously offensive or discreditable conduct towards third parties;
- .5 dishonesty;
- .6 unlawful victimisation or harassment; or
- .7 abuse of your professional position.

gC26

For the purposes of Guidance gC25.7 above, referring to your status as a barrister, for example on professional notepaper, in a context where it is irrelevant, such as in a private dispute, may well constitute abuse of your professional position and thus involve a breach of CD3 and/or CD5.

gC27

Conduct which is not likely to be treated as a breach of Rules rC8 or rC9, or CD3 or CD5, includes (but is not limited to):

- .1 minor criminal offences;
- .2 your conduct in your private or personal life, unless this involves:
 - .a abuse of your professional position; or
 - .b committing a criminal offence, other than a minor criminal offence.

gC28

For the purpose of Guidance C27 above, minor criminal offences include:

- .1 an offence committed in the United Kingdom which is a fixed-penalty offence under the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988; or

- .2 an offence committed in the United Kingdom or abroad which is dealt with by a procedure substantially similar to that for such a fixed-penalty offence; or
- .3 an offence whose main ingredient is the unlawful parking of a motor vehicle.

Rule C10 - Referral feesRules

rC10

You must not pay or receive referral fees.

Guidance to Rule C10 and relationship to CD2-CD5Guidance

gC29

Making or receiving payments in order to procure or reward the referral to you by an intermediary of professional instructions is inconsistent with your obligations under CD2 and/or CD3 and/or CD4 and may also breach CD5.

gC30

Moreover:

- .1 where public funding is in place, the Legal Aid Agency's Unified Contract Standard Terms explicitly prohibit contract-holders from making or receiving any payment (or any other benefit) for the referral or introduction of a client, whether or not the lay client knows of, and consents to, the payment;
- .2 whether in a private or publicly funded case, a referral fee to which the client has not consented may constitute a bribe and therefore a criminal offence under the Bribery Act 2010;

Referral fees and inducements (as defined in the Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015) are prohibited where they relate to a claim or potential claim for damages for personal injury or death or arise out of circumstances involving personal injury or death personal injury claims: section 56 Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 and section 58 Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015. Rule rC10 does not prohibit proper expenses that are not a reward for referring work, such as genuine and reasonable payments for:

- .1 clerking and administrative services (including where these are outsourced);
- .2 membership subscriptions to ADR bodies that appoint or recommend a person to provide mediation, arbitration or adjudication services; or
- .3 advertising and publicity, which are payable whether or not any work is referred. However, the fact that a fee varies with the amount of work received does not necessarily mean that that it is a referral fee, if it is genuinely for a marketing service from someone who is not directing work to one provider rather than another, depending on who pays more.

You must within an agreed timescale or within a reasonable period of time comply with any undertaking you give in the course of conducting litigation.

gC33

You should ensure your insurance covers you in respect of any liability incurred in giving an undertaking.

Rule C12 - DiscriminationRules

rC12

You must not discriminate unlawfully against, victimise or harass any other person on the grounds of race, colour, ethnic or national origin, nationality, citizenship, sex, gender re-assignment, sexual orientation, marital or civil partnership status, disability, age, religion or belief, or pregnancy and maternity.

Rules rC110 and associated guidance are also relevant to equality and diversity. The BSB's Supporting Information on the BSB Handbook Equality Rules is available on the BSB website.

Rules C13-C14 - Foreign workRules

rC13

In connection with any foreign work you must comply with any applicable rule of conduct prescribed by the law or by any national or local Bar of:

- .1 the place where the work is or is to be performed; and
- .2 the place where any proceedings or matters to which the work relates are taking place or contemplated; unless such rule is inconsistent with any requirement of the Core Duties.

rC14

If you solicit work in any jurisdiction outside England and Wales, you must not do so in a manner which would be prohibited if you were a member of the local Bar.

gC35

When you are engaged in cross border activities within a CCBE State other than the UK, you must comply with the rules at 2.D5 which implement the part of the Code of Conduct for European Lawyers not otherwise covered by this Handbook as well as with any other applicable rules of conduct relevant to that particular CCBE State. It is your responsibility to inform yourself as to any applicable rules of conduct.

Rules C15-C16 - Best interests of each client, provision of a competent standard of work and confidentiality

Rules

rC15

Your duty to act in the best interests of each client (CD2), to provide a competent standard of work and service to each client (CD7) and to keep the affairs of each client confidential (CD6) includes the following obligations:

- .1 you must promote fearlessly and by all proper and lawful means the client's best interests;
- .2 you must do so without regard to your own interests or to any consequences to you (which may include, for the avoidance of doubt, you being required to take reasonable steps to mitigate the effects of any breach of this Handbook);
- .3 you must do so without regard to the consequences to any other person (whether to your professional client, employer or any other person);
- .4 you must not permit your professional client, employer or any other person to limit your discretion as to how the interests of the client can best be served; and
- .5 you must protect the confidentiality of each client's affairs, except for such disclosures as are required or permitted by law or to which your client gives informed consent.

rC16

Your duty to act in the best interests of each client (CD2) is subject to your duty to the court (CD1) and to your obligations to act with honesty, and with integrity (CD3) and to maintain your independence (CD4).

Guidance to Rules C15-C16 and relationship to CD2 and CD6-CD7

Guidance

gC36

Your duty is to your client, not to your professional client or other intermediary (if any).

gC37

Rules rC15 and rC16 are expressed in terms of the interests of each client. This is because you may only accept instructions to act for more than one client if you are able to act in the best interests of each client as if that client were your only client, as CD2 requires of you. See further Rule rC17 on the circumstances when you are obliged to advise your client to seek other legal representation and Rules rC21.2 and rC21.3 on conflicts of interest and the guidance to those rules at gC69.

gC38

CD7 requires not only that you provide a competent standard of work but also a competent standard of service to your client. Rule rC15 is not exhaustive of what you must do to ensure your compliance with CD2 and CD7. By way of example, a competent standard of work and of service also includes:

- .1 treating each client with courtesy and consideration; and
- .2 seeking to advise your client, in terms they can understand; and
- .3 taking all reasonable steps to avoid incurring unnecessary expense; and
- .4 reading your instructions promptly. This may be important if there is a time limit or limitation period. If you fail to read your instructions promptly, it is possible that you will not be aware of the time limit until it is too late.

gC39

In order to be able to provide a competent standard of work, you should keep your professional knowledge and skills up to date, regularly take part in professional development and educational activities that maintain and further develop your competence and performance and, where you are a BSB entity or a manager of such body, you should take reasonable steps to ensure that managers and employees within your organisation undertake such training. Merely complying with the Continuing Professional Development requirements may not be sufficient to comply with Rule rC15. You should also ensure that you comply with any specific training requirements of the Bar Standards Board before undertaking certain activities – for example, you should not attend a police station to advise a suspect or interviewee as to the handling and conduct of police interviews unless you have complied with the following training requirements imposed by the Bar Standards Board: barristers undertaking publicly funded police station work under a criminal contract must comply with the training requirements specified by the Legal Aid Agency. Barristers undertaking privately funded police station work must complete the Police Station Qualification (“PSQ”) and (if they do not hold higher rights of audience) the Magistrates Court Qualification. Similarly, you should not undertake public access work without successfully completing the required training specified by the Bar Standards Board.

gC40

In addition to Guidance gC38 above, a BSB entity or a manager of such body should ensure that work is allocated appropriately, to managers and/or employees with the appropriate knowledge and expertise to undertake such work.

gC41

You should remember that your client may not be familiar with legal proceedings and may find them difficult and stressful. You should do what you reasonably can to ensure that the client understands the process and what to expect from it and from you. You should also try to avoid any unnecessary distress for your client. This is particularly important where you are dealing with a vulnerable client.

gC42

The duty of confidentiality (CD6) is central to the administration of justice. Clients who put their confidence in their legal advisers must be able to do so in the knowledge that the information they give, or which is given on their behalf, will stay confidential. In normal circumstances, this information will be privileged and not disclosed to a court. CD6, rC4 and Guidance gC8 and gC11 to gC13 provide further information.

gC43

Rule rC15.5 acknowledges that your duty of confidentiality is subject to an exception if disclosure is required or permitted by law. For example, you may be obliged to disclose certain matters by the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002. Disclosure in those circumstances would not amount to a breach of CD6 or Rule rC15.5. In other circumstances, you may only make disclosure of confidential information where your client gives informed consent to the disclosure. See the Guidance to Rule rC21 at gC69 for an example of circumstances where it may be appropriate for you to seek such consent.

gC44

There may be circumstances when your duty of confidentiality to your client conflicts with your duty to the court. Rule rC4 and Guidance gC8 and gC11 to gC13 provide further information.

gC45

Similarly, there may be circumstances when your duty of confidentiality to your client conflicts with your duty to your regulator. Rule rC64 and Guidance gC92 in respect of that rule provide further information. In addition, Rule rC66 may also apply.

gC46

If you are a pupil of, or are devilling work for, a self-employed barrister, Rule rC15.5 applies to you as if the client of the self-employed barrister was your own client.

gC47

The section You and Your Practice, at 2.C5, provides for duties regarding the systems and procedures you must put in place and enforce in order to ensure compliance with Rule rC15.5.

gC48

If you are an authorised individual or a manager working in a BSB entity your personal duty to act in the best interests of your client requires you to assist in the redistribution of client files and otherwise assisting to ensure each client's interests are protected in the event that the BSB entity itself is unable to do so for whatever reason (for example, insolvency).

Rule C17Rules

rC17

Your duty to act in the best interests of each client (CD2) includes a duty to consider whether the client's best interests are served by different legal representation, and if so, to advise the client to that effect.

Guidance to Rule C17Guidance

gC49

Your duty to comply with Rule rC17 may require you to advise your client that in their best interests they should be represented by:

- .1 a different advocate or legal representative, whether more senior or more junior than you, or with different experience from yours;
- .2 more than one advocate or legal representative;
- .3 fewer advocates or legal representatives than have been instructed; or
- .4 in the case where you are acting through a professional client, different solicitors.

gC50

Specific rules apply where you are acting on a public access basis, which oblige you to consider whether solicitors should also be instructed. As to these see the public access rules at Section 2.D2 and further in respect of BSB entities Rule S28 and the associated guidance.

gC51

CD2 and Rules rC15.5 and rC17 require you, subject to Rule rC16, to put your client's interests ahead of your own and those of any other person. If you consider that your professional client, another solicitor or intermediary, another barrister, or any other person acting on behalf of your client has been negligent, you should ensure that your client is advised of this.

Rule C18Rules

Your duty to provide a competent standard of work and service to each client (CD7) includes a duty to inform your professional client, or your client if instructed by a client, as far as reasonably possible in sufficient time to enable appropriate steps to be taken to protect the client's interests, if:

- .1 it becomes apparent to you that you will not be able to carry out the instructions within the time requested, or within a reasonable time after receipt of instructions; or
- .2 there is an appreciable risk that you may not be able to undertake the instructions.

Guidance to Rule C18Guidance

gC52

For further information about what you should do in the event that you have a clash of listings, please refer to our guidance which can be accessed on the Bar Standards Board's website.

Rule C19 - Not misleading clients and potential clientsRules

rC19

If you supply, or offer to supply, legal services, you must not mislead, or cause or permit to be misled, any person to whom you supply, or offer to supply, legal services about:

- .1 the nature and scope of the legal services which you are offering or agreeing to supply;
- .2 the terms on which the legal services will be supplied, who will carry out the work and the basis of charging;
- .3 who is legally responsible for the provision of the services;
- .4 whether you are entitled to supply those services and the extent to which you are regulated when providing those services and by whom; or
- .5 the extent to which you are covered by insurance against claims for professional negligence.

Guidance to Rule C19Guidance

gC53

The best interests of clients (CD2) and public confidence in the profession (CD5) are undermined if there is a lack of clarity as to whether services are regulated, who is supplying them, on what terms, and what redress clients have and against whom if things go wrong. Rule rC19 may potentially be infringed in a broad variety of situations. You must consider how matters will appear to the client.

gC54

Clients may, by way of example, be misled if self-employed barristers were to share premises with solicitors or other professionals without making sufficiently clear to clients that they remain separate and independent from one another and are not responsible for one another's work.

gC55

Likewise, it is likely to be necessary to make clear to clients that any entity established as a "ProcureCo" is not itself able to supply reserved legal activities and is not subject to regulation by the Bar Standards Board.

gC56

A set of chambers dealing directly with unsophisticated lay clients might breach Rule rC19 if its branding created the appearance of an entity or partnership and it failed to explain that the members of chambers are, in fact, self-employed individuals who are not responsible for one another's work.

gC57

Knowingly or recklessly publishing advertising material which is inaccurate or likely to mislead could also result in you being in breach of Rule rC19. You should be particularly careful about making comparisons with other persons as these may often be regarded as misleading.

gC58

If you carry out public access work but are not authorised to conduct litigation, you would breach Rule rC19 if you caused or permitted your client to be misled into believing that you are entitled to, or will, provide services that include the conduct of litigation on behalf of your client.

gC59

If you are a self-employed barrister, you would, for example, likely be regarded as having breached Rule rC19 if you charged at your own hourly rate for work done by a devil or pupil. Moreover, such conduct may well breach your duty to act with honesty and also with integrity (CD3).

gC60

If you are an unregistered barrister, you would breach Rule rC19 if you misled your client into thinking that you were providing legal services to them as a barrister or that you were subject to the same regulation as a practising barrister. You would also breach the rule if you implied that you were covered by insurance if you were not, or if you suggested that your clients could seek a remedy from the Bar Standards Board or the Legal Ombudsman if they were dissatisfied with the services you provided. You should also be aware of the rules set out in Section D4 of this Code of Conduct and the additional guidance for unregistered barristers available on the Bar Standards Board website.

gC61

Rule C19.3 is particularly relevant where you act in more than one capacity, for example as a BSB authorised individual as well as a manager or employee of an authorised (non BSB) body. This is because you should make it clear to each client in what capacity you are acting and, therefore, who has legal responsibility for the provision of the services.

gC62

If you are a pupil, you should not hold yourself out as a member of chambers or permit your name to appear as such. You should ensure the client understands your status.

gC63

A number of other rules impose positive obligations on you, in particular circumstances, to make clear your regulatory status and the basis and terms on which you are acting. See, for example, Rule rC23 and guidance gC74.

Rule C20 - Personal responsibility

Rules

rC20

Where you are a BSB authorised individual, you are personally responsible for your own conduct and for your professional work. You must use your own professional judgment in relation to those matters on which you are instructed and be able to justify your decisions and actions. You must do this notwithstanding the views of your client, professional client, employer or any other person.

Guidance to Rule C20

Guidance

gC64

It is fundamental that BSB authorised individuals and authorised (non-BSB) individuals are personally responsible for their own conduct and for their own professional work, whether they are acting in a self-employed or employed capacity (in the case of BSB authorised individuals) or as an employee or manager of a BSB entity (in the case of authorised (non-BSB) individuals).

gC65

Nothing in Rule rC20 is intended to prevent you from delegating or outsourcing to any other person discrete tasks (for example, research) which such other person is well-equipped to provide. However, where such tasks are delegated or outsourced, you remain personally responsible for such work. Further, in circumstances where such tasks are being outsourced, Rule rC86 which deals with outsourcing, must be complied with.

gC66

You are responsible for the service provided by all those who represent you in your dealings with your client, including your clerks or any other employees or agents.

gC67

Nothing in this rule or guidance prevents a BSB entity from contracting on the basis that any civil liability for the services provided by a BSB regulated individual lies with the BSB entity and the BSB regulated individual is not to be liable. However, any such stipulation as to civil liability does not affect the regulatory obligations of the BSB regulated individual including (but not limited to) that of being personally responsible under Rule rC20 for the professional judgments made.

gC68

See, further, guidance to Rule rC19, as regards work by pupils and devils Rule rC15, gC124 and Rule rC86 (on outsourcing).

Rule C21 - Accepting instructions

Rules

rC21

You must not accept instructions to act in a particular matter if:

- .1 due to any existing or previous instructions you are not able to fulfil your obligation to act in the best interests of the prospective client; or
- .2 there is a conflict of interest, or real risk of conflict of interest, between your own personal interests and the interests of the prospective client in respect of the particular matter; or
- .3 there is a conflict of interest, or real risk of conflict of interest, between the prospective client and one or more of your former or existing clients in respect of the particular matter unless all of the clients who have an interest in the particular matter give their informed consent to your acting in such circumstances; or
- .4 there is a real risk that information confidential to another former or existing client, or any other person to whom you owe duties of confidence, may be relevant to the matter, such that if, obliged to maintain confidentiality, you could not act in the best interests of the prospective client, and the former or existing client or person to whom you owe that duty does not give informed consent to disclosure of that confidential information; or
- .5 your instructions seek to limit your ordinary authority or discretion in the conduct of proceedings in court; or
- .6 your instructions require you to act other than in accordance with law or with the provisions of this Handbook; or
- .7 you are not authorised and/or otherwise accredited to perform the work required by the relevant instruction; or
- .8 you are not competent to handle the particular matter or otherwise do not have enough experience to handle the matter; or
- .9 you do not have enough time to deal with the particular matter, unless the circumstances are such that it would nevertheless be in the client's best interests for you to accept; or
- .10 there is a real prospect that you are not going to be able to maintain your independence.

Guidance to Rule C21

Guidance

gC69

Rules rC21.2, rC21.3 and rC21.4 are intended to reflect the law on conflict of interests and confidentiality and what is required of you by your duty to act in the client's best interests (CD2), independently (CD4), and maintaining client confidentiality (CD6). You are prohibited from acting where there is a conflict of interest between your own personal interests and the interests of a prospective client. However, where there is a conflict of interest between an existing client or clients and a prospective client or clients or two or more prospective clients, you may be entitled to accept instructions or to continue to act on a particular matter where you have fully disclosed to the relevant clients and prospective clients (as appropriate) the extent and nature of the conflict; they have each provided their informed consent to you acting; and you are able to act in the best interests of each client and independently as required by CD2 and CD4.

gC70

Examples of where you may be required to refuse to accept instructions in accordance with Rule rC21.7 include:

- .1 where the instructions relate to the provision of litigation services and you have not been authorised to conduct litigation in accordance with the requirements of this Handbook;
- .2 removed
- .3 where the matter would require you to conduct correspondence with parties other than your client (in the form of letters, faxes, emails or the like), you do not have adequate systems, experience or resources for managing appropriately such correspondence and/or you do not have adequate insurance in place in accordance with Rule rC75 which covers, amongst other things, any loss suffered by the client as a result of the conduct of such correspondence.

gC71

Competency and experience under Rule rC21.8 includes your ability to work with vulnerable clients.

gC72

Rule rC21.9 recognises that there may be exceptional circumstances when instructions are delivered so late that no suitable, competent advocate would have adequate time to prepare. In those cases you are not required to refuse instructions as it will be in the client's best interests that you accept. Indeed, if you are obliged under the cab rank rule to accept the instructions, you must do so.

gC73

Rule rC21.10 is an aspect of your broader obligation to maintain your independence (CD4). Your ability to perform your duty to the court (CD1) and act in the best interests of your client (CD2) may be put at risk if you act in circumstances where your independence is compromised. Examples of when you may not be able to maintain your independence include appearing as an advocate in a matter in which you are likely to be called as a witness (unless the matter on which you are likely to be called as a witness is peripheral or minor in the context of the litigation as a whole and is unlikely to lead to your involvement in the matter being challenged at a later date). If it appears that you are likely to be a witness on a material question of fact, and therefore must withdraw from a case as there is a real prospect that you are not going to be able to maintain your independence (Rules C21.10 and C25), you must also comply with Rule C27.

Where the instructions relate to public access or licensed access work and you are a self-employed barrister you will also need to have regard to the relevant rules at 2.D2. If you are a BSB entity, you should have regard to the guidance to Rule S28.

Rules C22-C24 - Defining terms or basis on which instructions are accepted

Rules

rC22

Where you first accept instructions to act in a matter:

- .1 you must, subject to Rule rC23, confirm in writing acceptance of the instructions and the terms and/or basis on which you will be acting, including the basis of charging;
- .2 where your instructions are from a professional client, the confirmation required by rC22.1 must be sent to the professional client;
- .3 where your instructions are from a client, the confirmation required by rC22.1 must be sent to the client.
- .4 if you are a BSB entity, you must ensure that the terms under which you accept instructions from clients include consent from clients to disclose and give control of files to the Bar Standards Board or its agent in circumstances where the conditions in rS113.5 are met.

rC23

In the event that, following your acceptance of the instructions in accordance with Rule rC22, the scope of the instructions is varied by the relevant client (including where the client instructs you on additional aspects relating to the same matter), you are not required to confirm again in writing acceptance of the instructions or the terms and/or basis upon which you will be acting. In these circumstances, you will be deemed to have accepted the instructions when you begin the work, on the same terms or basis as before, unless otherwise specified.

rC24

You must comply with the requirements set out in Rules rC22 and rC23 before doing the work unless that is not reasonably practicable, in which case you should do so as soon as reasonably practicable.

Guidance to Rules C22-C24

Guidance

gC75

Compliance with the requirement in Rule rC22 to set out the terms and/or basis upon which you will be acting may be achieved by including a reference or link to the relevant terms in your written communication of acceptance. You may, for example, refer the client or professional client (as the case may be) to the terms of service set out on your website or to standard terms of service set out on the Bar Council's website (in which regard, please also refer to the guidance on the use of the standard terms of service). Where you agree to do your work on terms and conditions that have been proposed to you by the client or by the professional client, you should confirm in writing that that is the basis on which your work is done. Where there are competing sets of terms and conditions, which terms have been agreed and are the basis of your retainer will be a matter to be determined in accordance with the law of contract.

gC76

Your obligation under Rule rC23 is to ensure that the basis on which you act has been defined, which does not necessarily mean governed by your own contractual terms. In circumstances where Rule rC23 applies, you should take particular care to ensure that the client is clear about the basis for charging for any variation to the work where it may be unclear. You must also ensure that you comply with the requirements of the Provision of Services Regulations 2009. See, further Rule rC19 (not misleading clients or prospective clients) and the guidance to that rule at gC52 to gC62.

If you are a self-employed barrister a clerk may confirm on your behalf your acceptance of instructions in accordance with Rules rC22 and rC23 above.

gC78

When accepting instructions, you must also ensure that you comply with the complaints handling rules set out in Section 2.D.

gC79

When accepting instructions in accordance with Rule rC22, confirmation by email will satisfy any requirement for written acceptance.

gC80

You may have been instructed in relation to a discrete and finite task, such as to provide an opinion on a particular issue, or to provide ongoing services, for example, to conduct particular litigation. Your confirmation of acceptance of instructions under Rule rC22 should make clear the scope of the instructions you are accepting, whether by cross-referring to the instructions, where these are in writing or by summarising your understanding of the scope of work you are instructed to undertake.

gC81

Disputes about costs are one of the most frequent complaints. The provision of clear information before work starts is the best way of avoiding such complaints. The Legal Ombudsman has produced a useful guide "An Ombudsman's view of good costs service" which can be found on its website.

gC82

Where the instructions relate to public access or licensed access work and you are a self-employed barrister, you will also need to have regard to the relevant rules at 2.D2. If you are a BSB entity, you should have regard to the guidance to Rule S28.

Rules C25-C26 - Returning instructions

Rules

rC25

Where you have accepted instructions to act but one or more of the circumstances set out in Rules rC21.1 to rC21.10 above then arises, you must cease to act and return your instructions promptly. In addition, you must cease to act and return your instructions if:

- .1 in a case funded by the Legal Aid Agency as part of Criminal Legal Aid or Civil Legal Aid it has become apparent to you that this funding has been wrongly obtained by false or inaccurate information and action to remedy the situation is not immediately taken by your client; or
- .2 the client refuses to authorise you to make some disclosure to the court which your duty to the court requires you to make; or
- .3 you become aware during the course of a case of the existence of a document which should have been but has not been disclosed, and the client fails to disclose it or fails to permit you to disclose it, contrary to your advice.

You may cease to act on a matter on which you are instructed and return your instructions if:

- .1 your professional conduct is being called into question; or
- .2 the client consents; or
- .3 you are a self-employed barrister and:
 - .a despite all reasonable efforts to prevent it, a hearing becomes fixed for a date on which you have already entered in your professional diary that you will not be available; or
 - .b illness, injury, pregnancy, childbirth, a bereavement or a similar matter makes you unable reasonably to perform the services required in the instructions; or
 - .c you are unavoidably required to attend on jury service;
- .4 you are a BSB entity and the only appropriate authorised individual(s) are unable to continue acting on the particular matter due to one or more of the grounds referred to at Rules rC26.3.a to rC26.3.c above occurring;

.5 you do not receive payment when due in accordance with terms agreed, subject to Rule rC26.7 (if you are conducting litigation) and in any other case subject to your giving reasonable notice requiring the non-payment to be remedied and making it clear to the client in that notice that failure to remedy the non-payment may result in you ceasing to act and returning your instructions in respect of the particular matter; or

.6 you become aware of confidential or privileged information or documents of another person which relate to the matter on which you are instructed; or

.7 if you are conducting litigation, and your client does not consent to your ceasing to act, your application to come off the record has been granted; or

.8 there is some other substantial reason for doing so (subject to Rules rC27 to rC29 below).

Guidance to Rule C26

Guidance

gC83

In deciding whether to cease to act and to return existing instructions in accordance with Rule rC26, you should, where possible and subject to your overriding duty to the court, ensure that the client is not adversely affected because there is not enough time to engage other adequate legal assistance.

gC84

If you are working on a referral basis and your professional client withdraws, you are no longer instructed and cannot continue to act unless appointed by the court, or you otherwise receive new instructions. You will not be bound by the cab rank rule if appointed by the court. For these purposes working on a “referral basis” means where a professional client instructs a BSB authorised individual to provide legal services on behalf of one of that professional client’s own clients

gC85

You should not rely on Rule rC26.3 to break an engagement to supply legal services so that you can attend or fulfil a non-professional engagement of any kind other than those indicated in Rule rC26.3.

gC86

When considering whether or not you are required to return instructions in accordance with Rule rC26.6 you should have regard to relevant case law including: English & American Insurance Co Ltd & Others -v- Herbert Smith; ChD 1987; (1987) NLJ 148 and Ablitt -v- Mills & Reeve (A Firm) and Another; ChD (Times, 24-Oct-1995).

gC87

If a fundamental change is made to the basis of your remuneration, you should treat such a change as though your original instructions have been withdrawn by the client and replaced by an offer of new instructions on different terms. Accordingly:

.1 you must decide whether you are obliged by Rule rC29 to accept the new instructions;

.2 if you are obliged under Rule rC29 to accept the new instructions, you must do so;

.3 if you are not obliged to accept the new instructions, you may decline them;

.4 if you decline to accept the new instructions in such circumstances, you are not to be regarded as returning your instructions, nor as withdrawing from the matter, nor as ceasing to act, for the purposes of Rules rC25 to rC26, because the previous instructions have been withdrawn by the client.

Rule C27

Rules

rC27

Notwithstanding the provisions of Rules rC25 and rC26, you must not:

.1 cease to act or return instructions without either:

.a obtaining your client’s consent; or

.b clearly explaining to your client or your professional client the reasons for doing so; or

- .2 return instructions to another person without the consent of your client or your professional client.

Rule C28 - Requirement not to discriminateRules

rC28

You must not withhold your services or permit your services to be withheld:

- .1 on the ground that the nature of the case is objectionable to you or to any section of the public;
- .2 on the ground that the conduct, opinions or beliefs of the prospective client are unacceptable to you or to any section of the public;
- .3 on any ground relating to the source of any financial support which may properly be given to the prospective client for the proceedings in question.

Guidance to Rule C28Guidance

gC88

As a matter of general law you have an obligation not to discriminate unlawfully as to those to whom you make your services available on any of the statutorily prohibited grounds such as gender or race. See the Equality Rules in the BSB Handbook and the BSB's website for guidance as to your obligations in respect of equality and diversity. This rule of conduct is concerned with a broader obligation not to withhold your services on grounds that are inherently inconsistent with your role in upholding access to justice and the rule of law and therefore in this rule "discriminate" is used in this broader sense. This obligation applies whether or not the client is a member of any protected group for the purposes of the Equality Act 2010. For example, you must not withhold services on the ground that any financial support which may properly be given to the prospective client for the proceedings in question will be available as part of Criminal Legal Aid and Civil Legal Aid.

Rules C29-C30 - The cab rank ruleRules

If you receive instructions from a professional client, and you are:

- .1 a self-employed barrister instructed by a professional client; or
- .2 an authorised individual working within a BSB entity; or
- .3 a BSB entity and the instructions seek the services of a named authorised individual working for you, and the instructions are appropriate taking into account the experience, seniority and/or field of practice of yourself or (as appropriate) of the named authorised individual you must, subject to Rule rC30 below, accept the instructions addressed specifically to you, irrespective of:

- .a the identity of the client;
- .b the nature of the case to which the instructions relate;
- .c whether the client is paying privately or is publicly funded; and
- .d any belief or opinion which you may have formed as to the character, reputation, cause, conduct, guilt or innocence of the client.

rC30

The cab rank Rule rC29 does not apply if:

- .1 you are required to refuse to accept the instructions pursuant to Rule rC21; or
- .2 accepting the instructions would require you or the named authorised individual to do something other than in the course of their ordinary working time or to cancel a commitment already in their diary; or
- .3 the potential liability for professional negligence in respect of the particular matter could exceed the level of professional indemnity insurance which is reasonably available and likely to be available in the market for you to accept; or
- .4 you are a Queen's Counsel, and the acceptance of the instructions would require you to act without a junior in circumstances where you reasonably consider that the interests of the client require that a junior should also be instructed; or

- .5 accepting the instructions would require you to do any foreign work; or
- .6 accepting the instructions would require you to act for a foreign lawyer (other than a European lawyer, a lawyer from a country that is a member of EFTA, a solicitor or barrister of Northern Ireland or a solicitor or advocate under the law of Scotland); or
- .7 the professional client:
 - .a is not accepting liability for your fees; or
 - .b represents, in your reasonable opinion, an unacceptable credit risk; or
 - .c is instructing you as a lay client and not in their capacity as a professional client; or
- .8 you have not been offered a proper fee for your services (except that you shall not be entitled to refuse to accept instructions on this ground if you have not made or responded to any fee proposal within a reasonable time after receiving the instructions); or
- .9 except where you are to be paid directly by (i) the Legal Aid Agency as part of the Community Legal Service or the Criminal Defence Service or (ii) the Crown Prosecution Service:
 - .a your fees have not been agreed (except that you shall not be entitled to refuse to accept instructions on this ground if you have not taken reasonable steps to agree fees within a reasonable time after receiving the instructions);
 - .b having required your fees to be paid before you accept the instructions, those fees have not been paid;
 - .c accepting the instructions would require you to act other than on (A) the Standard Contractual Terms for the Supply of Legal Services by Barristers to Authorised Persons 2020 as published on the Bar Council's website; or (B) if you publish standard terms of work, on those standard terms of work.

Guidance to Rules C29-C30Guidance

gC89

Rule rC30 means that you would not be required to accept instructions to, for example, conduct litigation or attend a police station in circumstances where you do not normally undertake such work or, in the case of litigation, are not authorised to undertake such work.

gC90

In determining whether or not a fee is proper for the purposes of Rule C30.8, regard shall be had to the following:

- .1 the complexity length and difficulty of the case;
- .2 your ability, experience and seniority; and
- .3 the expenses which you will incur.

gC91

Further, you may refuse to accept instructions on the basis that the fee is not proper if the instructions are on the basis that you will do the work under a conditional fee agreement or damages based agreement.

gC91A

Examples of when you might reasonably conclude (subject to the following paragraph) that a professional client represents an unacceptable credit risk for the purposes of Rule C30.7.b include:

- .1 Where they are included on the Bar Council's List of Defaulting Solicitors;
- .2 Where to your knowledge a barrister has obtained a judgment against a professional client, which remains unpaid;
- .3 Where a firm or sole practitioner is subject to insolvency proceedings, an individual voluntary arrangement or partnership voluntary arrangement; or
- .4 Where there is evidence of other unsatisfied judgments that reasonably call into question the professional client's ability to pay your fees.

Even where you consider that there is a serious credit risk, you should not conclude that the professional client represents an unacceptable credit risk without first considering alternatives. This will include considering whether the credit risk could be mitigated in other ways, for example by seeking payment of the fee in advance or payment into a third party payment service as permitted by rC74, rC75 and associated guidance.

The standard terms referred to in Rule C30.9.c may be drafted as if the professional client were an authorised person regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA). However, the cab rank rule applies (subject to the various exceptions in Rule C30) to instructions from any professional client, therefore you may be instructed under the cab rank rule by authorised persons who are regulated by another approved regulator.

The BSB expects all authorised persons to be able to access the cab rank rule on behalf of their clients in the same way. Therefore, if you are instructed by an authorised person who is not regulated by the SRA, you are obliged to act on the same terms. You should therefore apply the standard terms referred to in Rule C30.9.c as if (i) the definition of professional client includes that authorised person, and (ii) any references to the SRA or its regulatory arrangements are references to that person's approved regulator and its regulatory arrangements.

Part 2 - C4. You and your regulator

Rules

Outcomes C21-C23

Outcomes

oC21

BSB regulated persons are effectively regulated.

oC22

The public have confidence in the proper regulation of persons regulated by the Bar Standards Board.

oC23

The Bar Standards Board has the information that it needs in order to be able to assess risks and regulate effectively and in accordance with the regulatory objectives.

Rule C64 - Provision of information to the Bar Standards Board

Rules

rC64

You must:

- .1 promptly provide all such information to the Bar Standards Board as it may, for the purpose of its regulatory functions, from time to time require of you, and notify it of any material changes to that information;
- .2 comply in due time with any decision or sentence imposed by the Bar Standards Board, a Disciplinary Tribunal, the High Court, the First Tier Tribunal, an interim panel, a review panel, an appeal panel, an Independent Decision-Making Panel or a Fitness to Practise Panel;
- .3 if you are a BSB entity or an owner or manager of a BSB entity and the conditions outlined in rS113.5 apply, give the Bar Standards Board whatever co-operation is necessary;
- .4 comply with any notice sent by the Bar Standards Board or its agent; and
- .5 register within 28 days if you undertake work in the Youth Court if you did not register when applying for a practising certificate.

Guidance to Rule C64

Guidance

gC92

Your obligations under Rule rC64 include, for example, responding promptly to any request from the Bar Standards Board for comments or information relating to any matter whether or not the matter relates to you, or to another BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister.

gC92A

A notice under rC64.4 refers to a notice under any part of the Legal Services Act 2007, or the Legal Services Act 2007 (General Council of the Bar) (Modification of Functions) Order 2018.

gC93

The documents that you are required to disclose pursuant to Rule C64 may include client information that is subject to legal professional privilege. Pursuant to R (Morgan Grenfell & Co Ltd) v Special Commissioner [2003] 1 A.C. 563, referred to in R (Lumsdon) v Legal Services Board [2014] EWHC 28 (Admin) at [73], the BSB is entitled to serve you with a notice for production of those documents.

Where you are being required to report serious misconduct by others and legal professional privilege applies, this will override the requirement to report serious misconduct by another. However, the BSB may subsequently serve you with a notice for production of documents in which case the same principles set out above apply.

For the avoidance of doubt, none of this casts any doubt on your entitlement to withhold from the BSB any material that is subject to your own legal privilege (such as legal advice given to you about your own position during a BSB investigation).

Rule C65 - Duty to report certain matters to the Bar Standards Board

Rules

rC65

You must report promptly to the Bar Standards Board if:

- .1 you are charged with an indictable offence; in the jurisdiction of England and Wales or with a criminal offence of comparable seriousness in any other jurisdiction;
- .2 subject to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended) you are convicted of, or accept a caution, for any criminal offence, in any jurisdiction, other than a minor criminal offence;
- .3 you (or an entity of which you are a manager) to your knowledge are the subject of any disciplinary or other regulatory or enforcement action by another Approved Regulator or other regulator, including being the subject of disciplinary proceedings;
- .4 you are a manager of a regulated entity (other than a BSB entity) which is the subject of an intervention by the approved regulator of that body;
- .5 you are a registered European lawyer and:
 - .a to your knowledge any investigation into your conduct is commenced by your home regulator; or
 - .b any finding of professional misconduct is made by your home regulator; or
 - .c your authorisation in your home state to pursue professional activities under your home professional title is withdrawn or suspended; or
 - .d you are charged with a disciplinary offence.
- .6 any of the following occur:
 - .a bankruptcy proceedings are initiated in respect of or against you;
 - .b director's disqualification proceedings are initiated against you;
 - .c a bankruptcy order or director's disqualification order is made against you;
 - .d you have made a composition or arrangement with, or granted a trust deed for, your creditors;
 - .e winding up proceedings are initiated in respect of or against you;
 - .f you have had an administrator, administrative receiver, receiver or liquidator appointed in respect of you;
 - .g administration proceedings are initiated in respect of or against you;
- .7 you have committed serious misconduct;
- .8 you become authorised to practise by another approved regulator.

Guidance to Rule C65Guidance

gC94

In circumstances where you have committed serious misconduct you should take all reasonable steps to mitigate the effects of such serious misconduct.

gC94.1

For the avoidance of doubt rC65.2 does not oblige you to disclose cautions or criminal convictions that are “spent” under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 unless the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (SI 1975/1023) applies. However, unless the caution or conviction is immediately spent, you must notify the BSB before it becomes spent.

Rules C66-C69 - Reporting serious misconduct by othersRules

rC66

Subject to your duty to keep the affairs of each client confidential and subject also to Rules rC67 and rC68, you must report to the Bar Standards Board if you have reasonable grounds to believe that there has been serious misconduct by a barrister or a registered European lawyer, a BSB entity, manager of a BSB entity or an authorised (non-BSB) individual who is working as a manager or an employee of a BSB entity.

rC67

You must never make, or threaten to make, a report under Rule rC66 without a genuine and reasonably held belief that Rule rC66 applies.

rC68

You are not under a duty to report serious misconduct by others if:

- .1 you become aware of the facts giving rise to the belief that there has been serious misconduct from matters that are in the public domain and the circumstances are such that you reasonably consider it likely that the facts will have come to the attention of the Bar Standards Board; or
- .2 you are aware that the person that committed the serious misconduct has already reported the serious misconduct to the Bar Standards Board; or
- .3 the information or documents which led to you becoming aware of that other person’s serious misconduct are subject to legal professional privilege; or
- .4 you become aware of such serious misconduct as a result of your work on a Bar Council advice line.

rC69

You must not victimise anyone for making in good faith a report under Rule C66.

Guidance to Rules C65.7-C68Guidance

gC95

It is in the public interest that the Bar Standards Board, as an Approved Regulator, is made aware of, and is able to investigate, potential instances of serious misconduct. The purpose of Rules rC65.7 to rC69, therefore, is to assist the Bar Standards Board in undertaking this regulatory function.

gC96

Serious misconduct includes, without being limited to:

- .1 dishonesty (CD3);
- .2 assault or harassment (CD3 and/or CD5 and/or CD8);
- .3 seeking to gain access without consent to instructions or other confidential information relating to the opposing party’s case (CD3 and/or CD5); or
- .4 seeking to gain access without consent to confidential information relating to another member of chambers, member of staff or pupil (CD3 and/or CD5);

- .5 encouraging a witness to give evidence which is untruthful or misleading (CD1 and/or CD3);
- .6 knowingly or recklessly misleading, or attempting to mislead, the court or an opponent (CD1 and/ or CD3); or
- .7 being drunk or under the influence of drugs in court (CD2 and/or CD7); or
- .8 failure to report promptly to the Bar Standards Board pursuant to rC65.1-rC65.5 and/or rC66 above or if;
 - director's disqualification proceedings are initiated against you;
 - a director's disqualification order is made against you;
 - winding up proceedings are initiated in respect of or against you;
 - you have had an administrator, administrative receiver, receiver or liquidator appointed in respect of you;
 - administration proceedings are initiated in respect of or against you;
- .9 a breach of rC67 above; for example, reporting, or threatening to report, another person as a litigation tactic or otherwise abusively; or merely to please a client or any other person or otherwise for an improper motive;
- .10 conduct that poses a serious risk to the public.

If you believe (or suspect) that there has been serious misconduct, then the first step is to carefully consider all of the circumstances. The circumstances include:

- .1 whether that person's instructions or other confidential matters might have a bearing on the assessment of their conduct;
- .2 whether that person has been offered an opportunity to explain their conduct, and if not, why not;
- .3 any explanation which has been or could be offered for that person's conduct;
- .4 whether the matter has been raised, or will be raised, in the litigation in which it occurred, and if not, why not.

Having considered all of the circumstances, the duty to report arises if you have reasonable grounds to believe there has been serious misconduct. This will be so where, having given due consideration to the circumstances, including the matters identified at Guidance gC97, you have material before you which as it stands establishes a reasonably credible case of serious misconduct. Your duty under Rule rC66 is then to report the potential instance of serious misconduct so that the Bar Standards Board can investigate whether or not there has in fact been misconduct.

gC99

Circumstances which may give rise to the exception from the general requirement to report serious misconduct set out in Rule rC68.1 include for example where misconduct has been widely reported in the national media. In these circumstances it would not be in the public interest for every BSB regulated person and unregistered barrister to have an obligation to report such serious misconduct.

gC100

In Rule rC68.4 "work on the Bar Council advice line" means:

- .1 dealing with queries from BSB regulated persons and unregistered barristers who contact an advice line operated by the Bar Council for the purposes of providing advice to those persons; and
- .2 either providing advice to BSB regulated persons and unregistered barristers in the course of working for an advice line or to any individual working for an advice line where (i) you are identified on the list of BSB regulated persons maintained by the Bar Council as being permitted to provide such advice (the "approved list"); and (ii) the advice which you are being asked to provide to the individual working for an advice line arises from a query which originated from their work for that service; and
- .3 providing advice to BSB regulated persons and unregistered barristers where any individual working for an advice line arranges for you to give such advice and you are on the approved list.
- .4 for the purposes of Rule C68, the relevant advice lines are:
 - the Ethical Queries Helpline;
 - the Equality and Diversity Helpline;
 - the Remuneration Helpline; and – the Pupillage Helpline.

gC101

Rule rC68.4 has been carved out of the general requirement to report serious misconduct of others because it is not in the public interest that the duty to report misconduct should constrain BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers appointed by or on behalf of the Bar Council to offer ethical advice to others from doing so or inhibit BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers needing advice from seeking it. Consequently, BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers appointed by or on behalf of the Bar Council to offer ethical advice to BSB regulated persons or unregistered barristers through a specified advice service will not be under a duty to report information received by them in confidence from persons seeking such advice, subject only to the requirements of the general law. However, in circumstances where Rule C68.4 applies, the relevant BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister will still be expected to encourage the relevant BSB regulated person or unregistered barrister who has committed serious misconduct to disclose such serious misconduct to the Bar Standards Board in accordance with Rule C65.7.

gC102

Misconduct which falls short of serious misconduct should, where applicable, be reported to your HOLP so that they can keep a record of non-compliance in accordance with Rule rC96.4.

Rule C70 - Access to premises

Rules

rC70

You must permit the Bar Standards Board, or any person appointed by them, reasonable access, on request, to inspect:

- .1 any premises from which you provide, or are believed to provide, legal services; and
- .2 any documents or records relating to those premises and your practice, or BSB entity, and the Bar Standards Board, or any person appointed by them, shall be entitled to take copies of such documents or records as may be required by them for the purposes of their functions.

Rule C71 - Co-operation with the Legal Ombudsman

Rules

rC71

You must give the Legal Ombudsman all reasonable assistance requested of you, in connection with the investigation, consideration, and determination, of complaints made under the Ombudsman scheme.

Rule C72 - Ceasing to practise

Rules

rC72

Once you are aware that you (if you are a self-employed barrister or a BSB entity) or the BSB entity within which you work (if you are an authorised individual or manager of such BSB entity) will cease to practise, you shall effect the orderly wind-down of activities, including:

- .1 informing the Bar Standards Board and providing them with a contact address;
- .2 notifying those clients for whom you have current matters and liaising with them in respect of the arrangements that they would like to be put in place in respect of those matters;
- .3 providing such information to the Bar Standards Board in respect of your practice and your proposed arrangements in respect of the winding down of your activities as the Bar Standards Board may require.

Part 2 - C5. You and your practice

Rules

Outcomes C24-C25

Outcomes

oC24

Your practice is run competently in a way that achieves compliance with the Core Duties and your other obligations under this Handbook. Your employees, pupils and trainees understand, and do, what is required of them in order that you meet your obligations under this Handbook.

oC25

Clients are clear about the extent to which your services are regulated and by whom, and who is responsible for providing those services.

Rules C73-C75 - Client money

Rules

rC73

Except where you are acting in your capacity as a manager or employee of an authorised (non-BSB) body, you must not receive, control or handle client money apart from what the client pays you for your services.

rC74

If you make use of a third party payment service for making payments to or from or on behalf of your client you must:

- .1 Ensure that the service you use will not result in your receiving, controlling or handling client money; and
- .2 Only use the service for payments to or from or on behalf of your client that are made in respect of legal services, such as fees, disbursements or settlement monies; and
- .3 Take reasonable steps to check that making use of the service is consistent with your duty to act competently and in your client's best interests.

rC75

The Bar Standards Board may give notice under this rule that (effective from the date of that notice) you may only use third party payment services approved by the Bar Standards Board or which satisfy criteria set by the Bar Standards Board

Guidance to Rules C73-C74

Guidance

gC103

The prohibition in Rule rC73 applies to you and to anyone acting on your behalf, including any "ProcureCo" being a company established as a vehicle to enable the provision of legal services but does not in itself supply or provide those legal services. Rule rC73 prohibits you from holding client money or other client assets yourself, or through any agent, third party or nominee.

gC104

Receiving, controlling or handling client money includes entering into any arrangement which gives you de facto control over the use and/or destination of funds provided by or for the benefit of your client or intended by another party to be transmitted to your client, whether or not those funds are beneficially owned by your client and whether or not held in an account of yours.

gC105

The circumstances in which you will have de facto control within the meaning of Rule rC73 include when you can cause money to be transferred from a balance standing to the credit of your client without that client's consent to such a withdrawal. For large withdrawals, explicit consent should usually be required. However, the client's consent may be deemed to be given if:

- .1 the client has given informed consent to an arrangement which enables withdrawals to be made after the client has received an invoice; and
- .2 the client has not objected to the withdrawal within a pre-agreed reasonable period (which should not normally be less than one week from receipt of the invoice).

gC106

A fixed fee paid in advance is not client money for the purposes of Rule rC73.

gC107

If you have decided in principle to take a particular case you may request an 'upfront' fixed fee from your prospective client before finally agreeing to work on their behalf. This should only be done having regard to the following principles:

- You should take care to estimate accurately the likely time commitment and only take payment when you are satisfied that:
 - it is a reasonable payment for the work being done; and
 - in the case of public access work, that it is suitable for you to undertake.
- If the amount of work required is unclear, you should consider staged payments rather than a fixed fee in advance.
- You should never accept an upfront fee in advance of considering whether it is appropriate for you to take the case and considering whether you will be able to undertake the work within a reasonable timescale.
- If the client can reasonably be expected to understand such an arrangement, you may agree that when the work has been done, you will pay the client any difference between that fixed fee and (if lower) the fee which has actually been earned based on the time spent, provided that it is clear that you will not hold the difference between the fixed fee and the fee which has been earned on trust for the client. That difference will not be client money if you can demonstrate that this was expressly agreed in writing, on clear terms understood by the client, and before payment of the fixed fee. You should also consider carefully whether such an arrangement is in the client's interest, taking into account the nature of the instructions, the client and whether the client fully understands the implications. Any abuse of an agreement to pay a fixed fee subject to reimbursement, the effect of which is that you receive more money than is reasonable for the case at the outset, will be considered to be holding client money and a breach of rC73. For this reason, you should take extreme care if contracting with a client in this way.
- In any case, rC22 requires you to confirm in writing the acceptance of any instructions and the terms or basis on which you are acting, including the basis of charging.

gC108

Acting in the following ways may demonstrate compliance with Rules rC73, rC74 and rC75:

gC109

Checking that any third party payment service you may use is not structured in such a way that the service provider is holding, as your agent, money to which the client is beneficially entitled. If this is so you will be in breach of Rule rC73.

gC110

Considering whether your client will be safe in using the third party payment service as a means of transmitting or receiving funds. The steps you should take in order to satisfy yourself will depend on what would be expected in all the circumstances of a reasonably competent legal adviser acting in their client's best interests. However, you are unlikely to demonstrate that you have acted competently and in your client's best interests if you have not:

- .1 ensured that the payment service is authorised or regulated as a payment service by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and taken reasonable steps to satisfy yourself that it is in good standing with the FCA;
- .2 if the payment service is classified as a small payment institution, ensured that it has arrangements to safeguard clients' funds or adequate insurance arrangements;
- .3 ensured that the payment service segregates client money from its own funds;
- .4 satisfied yourself that the terms of the service are such as to ensure that any money paid in by or on behalf of the client can only be paid out with the client's consent;
- .5 informed your client that moneys held by the payment service provider are not covered by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

Unless you are reasonably satisfied that it is safe for your client to use the third party payment service (see rC74.3, gC109 and gC110 above), advising your client against using the third party payment service and not making use of it yourself.

gC112

The Bar Standards Board has not yet given notice under rule rC75.

- .1 ensure that you have adequate insurance (taking into account the nature of your practice) which covers all the legal services you supply to the public; and
- .2 if you are a BSB authorised person or a manager of a BSB entity then in the event that the Bar Standards Board, by any notice it may from time to time issue under this Rule C76, stipulates a minimum level of insurance and/or minimum terms for the insurance which must be taken out by BSB authorised persons, you must ensure that you have or put in place within the time specified in such notice, insurance meeting such requirements as apply to you.

rC77

Where you are acting as a self-employed barrister, you must be a member of BMIF, unless:

- .1 you are a pupil who is covered by your pupil supervisor's insurance; or
- .2 you were called to the Bar under Rule Q25, in which case you must either be insured with BMIF or be covered by insurance against claims for professional negligence arising out of the supply of your services in England and Wales in such amount and on such terms as are currently required by the Bar Standards Board, and have delivered to the Bar Standards Board a copy of the current insurance policy, or the current certificate of insurance, issued by the insurer.

rC78

If you are a member of BMIF, you must:

- .1 pay promptly the insurance premium required by BMIF; and
- .2 supply promptly such information as BMIF may from time to time require pursuant to its rules.

Guidance

gC113

Where you are working in a BSB entity, you will satisfy the requirements of Rule rC76.1 so long as the BSB entity has taken out insurance, which covers your activities. A BSB entity will have to confirm each year that it has reviewed the adequacy of its insurance cover on the basis of a risk analysis and that they have complied with this rule.

gC114

Any notice issued under Rule rC76 will be posted on the Bar Standards Board's website and may also be publicised by such other means as the Bar Standards Board may judge appropriate. Notices issued under Rule C76, which stipulate minimum terms of cover for self-employed barristers and BSB entities, are currently in force and available on the Bar Standards Board's website.

The Bar Standards Board's requirements in respect of professional indemnity insurance, including the minimum terms, are concerned with ensuring consumer protection, specifically that there is adequate cover for liabilities which BSB regulated persons may incur to their clients or other parties to whom they may owe duties when performing their legal services. This includes claims for contribution which third parties, such as instructing solicitors, may make on the basis that the BSB regulated person has such a liability to a mutual client. However, Rule C76.1 of the Handbook does not require BSB regulated persons to carry insurance for other types of liability, which do not relate to their liabilities towards consumers, such as a contractual liability to instructing solicitors in respect of losses incurred by the solicitor that are not based on any liability the solicitor has in turn incurred to the client. Nor are the minimum terms concerned with the latter type of liability and whether and on what terms to seek to insure against such exposure is a commercial judgment for BSB regulated persons to make. You should however ensure that you are aware of and comply with any general legal requirements for you to carry other types of insurance than professional indemnity cover.

BSB regulated persons considering excluding or limiting liability should consider carefully the ramifications of the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977 and other legislation and case law. If a BSB regulated person is found by the court to have limited liability in a way which is in breach of the Unfair Contract Terms Act, that might amount to professional misconduct.

BSB regulated persons should regularly review the amount of their professional indemnity insurance cover, taking into account the type of work which they undertake and the likely liability for negligence. They should be aware that claims can arise many years after the work was undertaken and that they would be prudent to maintain adequate insurance cover for that time since cover operates on a "claims made" basis and as such it is the policy and the limits in force at the time a claim is made that are relevant, not the policy and limits in force when the work was undertaken. They should also bear in mind the need to arrange run-off cover if they cease practice.

Where you are working in an authorised (non-BSB) body, the rules of the approved regulator of that body will determine what insurance the authorised (non-BSB) body must have.

gC116

Where you are working as an employed barrister (non-authorised body), the rule does not require you to have your own insurance if you provide legal services only to your employer. If you supply legal services to other people (to the extent permitted by the Scope of Practice and Authorisation, and Licensing Rules set out at Section S.B you should consider whether you need insurance yourself having regard to the arrangements made by your employer for insuring against claims made in respect of your services. If your employer already has adequate insurance for this purpose, you need not take out any insurance of your own. You should ensure that your employer's policy covers you, for example, for any pro-bono work you may do.

gC117

Where you are a registered European lawyer, the rule does not require you to have your own insurance if:

- .1 you provide to the Bar Standards Board evidence to show that you are covered by insurance taken out or a guarantee provided in accordance with the rules of your home State; and
- .2 the Bar Standards Board is satisfied that such insurance or guarantee is fully equivalent in terms of conditions and extent of cover to the cover required pursuant to Rule rC76. However, where the Bar Standards Board is satisfied that the equivalence is only partial, the Bar Standards Board may require you to arrange additional insurance or an additional guarantee to cover the elements which are not already covered by the insurance or guarantee contracted by you in accordance with the rules of your home state

Rules C79-C85 - Associations with others

Rules

rC79

You may not do anything, practising in an association, which you are otherwise prohibited from doing.

rC80

Where you are in an association on more than a one-off basis, you must notify the Bar Standards Board that you are in an association, and provide such details of that association as are required by the Bar Standards Board.

rC81

If you have a material commercial interest in an organisation to which you plan to refer a client, you must:

- .1 tell the client in writing about your interest in that organisation before you refer the client; and
- .2 keep a record of your referrals to any such organisation for review by the Bar Standards Board on request.

rC82

If you have a material commercial interest in an organisation which is proposing to refer a matter to you, you must:

- .1 tell the client in writing about your interest in that organisation before you accept such instructions;
- .2 make a clear agreement with that organisation or other public statement about how relevant issues, such as conflicts of interest, will be dealt with; and
- .3 keep a record of referrals received from any such organisation for review by the Bar Standards Board on reasonable request.

rC83

If you refer a client to a third party which is not a BSB authorised person or an authorised (non-BSB) person, you must take reasonable steps to ensure that the client is not wrongly led to believe that the third party is subject to regulation by the Bar Standards Board or by another approved regulator.

rC84

You must not have a material commercial interest in any organisation which gives the impression of being, or may be reasonably perceived as being, subject to the regulation of the Bar Standards Board or of another approved regulator, in circumstances where it is not so regulated.

rC85

A material commercial interest for the purposes of Rules rC78 to rC84 is an interest which an objective observer with knowledge of the salient facts would reasonably consider might potentially influence your judgment.

rC85A

You must not act as a supervisor of an immigration adviser for the purposes of section 84(2) of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 (as amended) (IAA 1999) where the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner has refused or cancelled the adviser's registration, or where the adviser is:

1. disqualified in accordance with paragraph 4 of Schedule 6 to the IAA 1999; or
2. prohibited or suspended by the First-tier Tribunal (Immigration Services); or
3. permanently prohibited from practising by an approved regulator, or a designated professional body under the IAA 1999, pursuant to its powers as such, and removed from the relevant register; or
4. currently suspended from practising by an approved regulator, or a designated professional body under the IAA 1999, pursuant to its powers as such.

Guidance to Rules C79-C85 (and CD5)

Guidance

gC118

You may not use an association with the purpose of, or in order to evade rules which would otherwise apply to you. You may not do anything, practising in an association, which you are individually prohibited from doing.

gC119

You will bring yourself and your profession into disrepute (CD5) if you are personally involved in arrangements which breach the restrictions imposed by the Legal Services Act 2007 on those who can provide reserved legal activities. For example, you must not remain a member of any "ProcureCo" arrangement where you know or are reckless as to whether the ProcureCo is itself carrying on reserved legal activities without a licence or where you have failed to take reasonable steps to ensure this is not so before joining or continuing your involvement with the Procureco.

gC120

The purpose of Rules rC79 to rC85 is to ensure that clients and members of the public are not confused by any such association. In particular, the public should be clear who is responsible for doing work, and about the extent to which that person is regulated in doing it: see Rules rC79-85.

gC121

This Handbook applies in full whether or not you are practising in an association. You are particularly reminded of the need to ensure that, notwithstanding any such association, you continue to comply with Rules C8, C9, C10, C12, C15, C19, C20, C28, C73, C75, C79, C82 and C86 (and, where relevant C80, C81, C83, C74 and C110).

gC122

References to "organisation" in Rules rC81 and C82 include BSB entities and authorised (non-BSB) bodies, as well as non-authorised bodies. So, if you have an interest, as owner, or manager, in any such body, your relationship with any such organisation is caught by these rules.

gC123

These rules do not permit you to accept instructions from a third party in any case where that would give rise to a potential conflict of interest contrary to CD2 or any relevant part of Rule rC21.

gC124

You should only refer a client to an organisation in which you have a material commercial interest if it is in the client's best interest to be referred to that organisation. This is one aspect of what is required of you by CD2. Your obligations of honesty and integrity, in CD3, require you to be open with clients about any interest you have in, or arrangement you have with, any organisation to which you properly refer the client, or from which the client is referred to you. It is inherently unlikely that a general referral arrangement obliging you (whether or not you have an interest in such organisation) to refer to that organisation, without the option to refer elsewhere if the client's circumstances make that more appropriate, could be justified as being in the best interests of each individual client (CD2) and it may well also be contrary to your obligations of honesty and integrity (CD3) and compromise your independence (CD4).

gC125

The Bar Standards Board may require you to provide copies of any protocols that you may have in order to ensure compliance with these rules.

gC126

Your obligations under CD5 require you not to act in an association with a person where, merely by being associated with such person, you may reasonably be considered as bringing the profession into disrepute or otherwise diminishing the trust that the public places in you and your profession.

Rule C86 - OutsourcingRules

rC86

Where you outsource to a third party any support services that are critical to the delivery of any legal services in respect of which you are instructed:

- .1 any outsourcing does not alter your obligations to your client;
- .2 you remain responsible for compliance with your obligations under this Handbook in respect of the legal services;
- .3 you must ensure that such outsourcing is subject to contractual arrangements which ensure that such third party:
 - .a is subject to confidentiality obligations similar to the confidentiality obligations placed on you in accordance with this Handbook;
 - .b complies with any other obligations set out in this Code of Conduct which may be relevant to or affected by such outsourcing;
 - .c processes any personal data in accordance with your instructions;
 - .d is required to allow the Bar Standards Board or its agent to obtain information from, inspect the records (including electronic records) of, or enter the premises of such third party in relation to the outsourced activities or functions, and;
 - .e processes any personal data in accordance with those arrangements, and for the avoidance of doubt, those arrangements are compliant with any relevant data protection laws.

Guidance to Rule C86Guidance

gC127

Rule C86 applies to the outsourcing of clerking services.

gC128

Rule C86 does not apply where the client enters into a separate agreement with the third party for the services in question.

gC129

Rule C86 does not apply where you are instructing a pupil or a devil to undertake work on your behalf. Instead rC15 will apply in those circumstances.

rC87

You must take reasonable steps to ensure that:

- .1 your practice is efficiently and properly administered having regard to the nature of your practice; and

- .1 ensure that adequate records supporting the fees charged or claimed in a case are kept at least until the later of the following:

- .a your fees have been paid; and

 - .b carry out their duties in a correct and efficient manner;
 - .c are made clearly aware of such provisions of this Handbook as may affect or be relevant to the performance of their duties;
 - .d do nothing which causes or substantially contributes to a breach of this Handbook by any BSB authorised individual or authorised (non-BSB) individual within chambers,and all complaints against them are dealt with in accordance with the complaints rules;

 - .b every BSB authorised individual practising from your chambers has a current practising certificate and every other authorised (non-BSB) individual providing reserved legal activities is currently authorised by their Approved Regulator.

For the purposes of Rule rC89 the steps which it is reasonable for you to take will depend on all the circumstances, which include, but are not limited to:

- .1 the arrangements in place in your chambers for the management of chambers;
- .2 any role which you play in those arrangements; and
- .3 the independence of individual members of chambers from one another.

Guidance

gC131

Members of chambers are not in partnership but are independent of one another and are not responsible for the conduct of other members. However, each individual member of chambers is responsible for their own conduct and the constitution of chambers enables, or should enable, each individual member of chambers to take steps to terminate another person's membership in specified circumstances. Rule C89 does not require you to sever connection with a member of chambers solely because to your knowledge they are found to breach this Handbook, provided that they are not disbarred and comply with such sanctions as may be imposed for such breach; however, your chambers constitution should be drafted so as to allow you to exclude from chambers a member whose conduct is reasonably considered such as to diminish the trust the public places in you and your profession and you should take such steps as are reasonably available to you under your constitution to exclude any such member.

gC132

The Supervision Team of the Bar Standards Board reviews the key controls that are in place in chambers and BSB entities to manage the risks in relation to key processes. These key processes are shown in guidance that is published on the Supervision section of the Bar Standards Board's website. You should retain relevant policies, procedures, monitoring reports and other records of your practice so that they are available to view if a Supervision visit is arranged.

gC133

- .2 complying with data protection obligations imposed by law;
- .3 taking reasonable steps to ensure that anyone who has access to such information or data in the course of their work for you complies with these obligations; and
- .4 taking into account any further guidance on confidentiality which is available on the Bar Standards Board's website.

gC135

gC136

For further guidance on what may constitute appropriate risk management procedures in accordance with Rule rC89.8 please refer to the further guidance published by the Bar Standards Board which can be accessed on the Supervision section of its website.

gC137

Rule C94 extends this obligation to BSB entities other than licensed bodies.

Rules C99-C109 - Complaints rulesRules

Provision of information

rC99

You must notify clients in writing when you are instructed, or, if that is if not practicable, at the next appropriate opportunity:

.1 of their right to make a complaint, including their right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman (if they have such a right), how, and to whom, they can complain, and of any time limits for making a complaint;

.2 if you are doing referral work, that the lay client may complain directly to chambers or the BSB entity without going through solicitors.

rC100

If you are doing public access, or licensed access work using an intermediary, the intermediary must similarly be informed.

rC101

If you are doing referral work, you do not need to give a professional client the information set out in Rules rC99.1 and rC99.2, in a separate, specific letter. It is enough to provide it in the ordinary terms of reference letter (or equivalent letter) which you send when you accept instructions in accordance with Rule rC21.

rC102

If you do not send a letter of engagement to a lay client in which this information can be included, a specific letter must be sent to them giving them the information set out at Rules rC99.1 and rC99.2.

rC103

Each website of self-employed barristers, chambers and BSB entities must display:

.1 on the homepage, the text "regulated by the Bar Standards Board" (for sole practitioners) or "barristers regulated by the Bar Standards Board" (for chambers) or "authorised and regulated by the Bar Standards Board" (for BSB entities); and

.2 in a sufficiently accessible and prominent place:

.a information about their complaints procedure, any right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman, how to complain to the Legal Ombudsman and any time limits for making a complaint;

.b a link to the decision data on the Legal Ombudsman's website; and

.c a link to the Barristers' Register on the BSB's website.

.3 All e-mail and letterheads from self-employed barristers and BSB entities, their managers and employees must state "regulated by the Bar Standards Board" (for self-employed barristers) or "authorised and regulated by the Bar Standards Board" (for BSB entities).

.4 Self-employed barristers, chambers and BSB entities must have regard to guidance published from time to time by the Bar Standards Board in relation to redress transparency.

Response to complaints

rC104

All complaints must be acknowledged promptly. When you acknowledge a complaint, you must give the complainant:

.1 the name of the person who will deal with the complaint and a description of that person's role in chambers or in the BSB entity (as appropriate);

.2 a copy of the chambers' complaints procedure or the BSB entity's Complaints Procedure (as appropriate);

.3 the date by which the complainant will next hear from chambers or the BSB entity (as appropriate).

rC105

When chambers or a BSB entity (as appropriate) has dealt with the complaint, complainants must be told in writing of their right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman (where applicable), of the time limit for doing so, and how to contact them.

Documents and record keeping

All communications and documents relating to complaints must be kept confidential. They must be disclosed only so far as is necessary for:

.1 the investigation and resolution of the complaint;

.2 internal review in order to improve chambers' or the BSB entity's (as appropriate) handling of complaints;

.3 complying with requests from the Bar Standards Board in the exercise of its monitoring and/or auditing functions.

rC107

The disclosure to the Bar Standards Board of internal documents relating to the handling of the complaint (such as the minutes of any meeting held to discuss a particular complaint) for the further resolution or investigation of the complaint is not required.

rC108

A record must be kept of each complaint, of all steps taken in response to it, and of the outcome of the complaint. Copies of all correspondence, including electronic mail, and all other documents generated in response to the complaint must also be kept. The records and copies should be kept for 6 years from resolution of the complaint.

rC109

- .1 pupils;
- .2 barristers of fewer than four years' standing ; and
- .3 barristers returning from parental leave;

Guidance to Rules C110-C112Guidance

gC140

Rule rC110 places a personal obligation on all self-employed barristers, however they practise, and on the managers of BSB entities, as well as on the entity itself, to take reasonable steps to ensure that they have appropriate policies which are enforced.

gC141

In relation to Rule rC110, if you are a Head of chambers or a HOLP it is likely to be reasonable for you to ensure that you have the policies required by Rule rC110, that an Equality and Diversity Officer is appointed to monitor compliance, and that any breaches are appropriately punished. If you are a member of a chambers you are expected to use the means available to you under your constitution to take reasonable steps to ensure there are policies and that they are enforced. If you are a manager of a BSB entity, you are expected to take reasonable steps to ensure that there are policies and that they are enforced.

gC142

For the purpose of Rule rC110 training means any course of study covering all the following areas:

- a) Fair and effective selection & avoiding unconscious bias
- b) Attraction and advertising
- c) Application processes
- d) Shortlisting skills
- e) Interviewing skills
- f) Assessment and making a selection decision
- g) Monitoring and evaluation

gC143

Training should ideally be undertaken via classroom sessions. However, it is also permissible for training to be undertaken in the following ways: online sessions, private study of relevant materials such as the Bar Council's Fair Recruitment Guide and completion of CPD covering fair recruitment and selection processes.

gC144

The purpose of Rule rC110.3.d is to ensure that applicants with relevant characteristics are not refused employment because of such characteristics. In order to ensure compliance with this rule, therefore, it is anticipated that the Equality and Diversity Officer will compile and retain data about the relevant characteristics of all applicants for the purposes of reviewing the data in order to see whether there are any apparent disparities in recruitment.

gC145

For the purpose of Rule rC110 "regular review", means as often as is necessary in order to ensure effective monitoring and review takes place. In respect of data on pupils it is likely to be considered reasonable that "regularly" should mean annually. In respect of managers of a BSB entity or tenants, it is likely to be considered reasonable that "regularly" should mean every three years unless the numbers change to such a degree as to make more frequent monitoring appropriate.

gC146

For the purposes of Rule rC110, "remedial action" means any action aimed at removing or reducing the disadvantage experienced by particular relevant groups. Remedial action cannot, however, include positive discrimination in favour of members of relevant groups.

gC147

Rule rC110.3.f.iii places an obligation on practices to take reasonable steps to ensure the work opportunities are shared fairly among its workforce. In the case of chambers, this obligation includes work which has not been allocated by the solicitor to a named barrister. It includes fairness in presenting to solicitors names for consideration and fairness in opportunities to attract future named work (for example, fairness in arrangements for marketing). These obligations apply even if individual members of chambers incorporate their practices, or use a "ProcureCo" to obtain or distribute work, as long as their relationship between each other remains one of independent service providers competing for the same work while sharing clerking arrangements and costs.

- a) Rule rC110.3.k applies to all members of chambers, irrespective of whether their partner or spouse takes parental leave.
- b) A flexible policy might include for example: keeping in touch (KIT) days; returns to practice in between periods of parental leave; or allowing a carer to practise part time.
- c) Any periods of leave/return should be arranged between chambers and members taking parental leave in a way that is mutually convenient.

gC149

Rule rC110.3.k.vi sets out the minimum requirements which must be included in a parental leave policy if any element of rent is paid on a flat rate. If rent is paid on any other basis, then the policy should be drafted so as not to put any self-employed barrister in a worse position than they would have been in if any element of the rent were paid on a flat rate.

gC150

For the purposes of Rule rC110 above investigation means, considering the reasons for disparities in data such as:

- .1 Under or overrepresentation of particular groups e.g. men, women, different ethnic groups or disabled people
- .2 Absence of particular groups e.g. men, women, different ethnic groups or disabled people
- 3 Success rates of particular groups
- .4 In the case of chambers, over or under allocation of unassigned work to particular groups

gC151

These rules are supplemented by the BSB's Supporting Information on the BSB Handbook Equality Rules ("the Supporting Information") which is available on the BSB's website. These describe the legal and regulatory requirements relating to equality and diversity and provide guidance on how they should be applied in chambers and in BSB entities. If you are a self-employed barrister, a BSB entity, or a manager of a BSB entity, you should seek to comply with the Supporting Information as well as with the rules as set out above.

gC152

The Supporting Information is also relevant to all pupil supervisors and AETOs. AETOs will be expected to show how they comply with the Supporting Information as a condition of authorisation.

gC153

Although the Supporting Information does not apply directly to BSB authorised persons working as employed barristers (non-authorised bodies) or employed barristers (authorised non-BSB body), they provide helpful guidance which you are encouraged to take into account in your practice.

rC116

- .7 the following travel by a pupil shall not constitute travel for the purposes of their pupillage:
 - .a travel between their home and chambers or, for an entity pupil, their place of work; and
 - .b travel for the purposes of their practice as a barrister.

oC31

Rules

rC119

These rules apply to barristers instructed by or on behalf of a lay client (other than a licensed access client) who has not also instructed a solicitor or other professional client (public access clients). Guidance on public access rules is available on the Bar Standards Board website.

In any case where you are not prohibited from accepting instructions, you must at all times consider the developing circumstances of the case, and whether at any stage it is in the best interests of the public access client or in the interests of justice for the public access client to instruct a solicitor or other professional client. If, after accepting instructions from a public access client you form the view that circumstances are such that it would be in the best interests of the public access client, or in the interests of justice for the public access client to instruct a solicitor or other professional client you must:

- .6 the fact that you may be prevented from completing the work by reason of your professional duties or conflicting professional obligations, and what the client can expect of you in such a situation;
- .7 the fees which you propose to charge for that work, or the basis on which your fee will be calculated;
- .8 your contact arrangements; and
- .9 the information about your complaints procedure required by D1.1 of this Part 2.

rC126

Save in exceptional circumstances, you will have complied with Rule rC125 above if you have written promptly to the public access client in the terms of the model letter provided on the Bar Standards Board website.

rC127

In any case where you have been instructed by an intermediary, you must give the notice required by Rule C125 above both:

 - .c the fact that circumstances may require the client to retain a solicitor or other person who is authorised to conduct litigation at short notice and possibly during the case.

- .1 you must forthwith advise the licensed access client in writing to instruct a solicitor or other person who is authorised to conduct litigation or other appropriate intermediary (as the case may be); and
- .2 unless a solicitor or other person who is authorised to conduct litigation or other appropriate intermediary (as the case may be) is instructed as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter you must cease to act and must return any instructions.

rC139

rC140

Having accepted instructions from a licensed access client, you must keep a case record which sets out:

If you are established in a CCBE State other than the UK and you wish to participate directly in commercial or other activities not connected with the practice of the law in that CCBE State, you must respect the Rules regarding forbidden or incompatible occupations as they are applied to lawyers of that CCBE State.

Fee sharing with non-lawyers

rC149

You must not share your fees with a person situated in a CCBE State other than the UK who is not a lawyer except where otherwise permitted by the terms of this Handbook or Rule rC150 below.

rC150

Rule rC149 shall not preclude you from paying a fee, commission or other compensation to a deceased lawyer's heirs or to a retired lawyer in respect of taking over the deceased or retired lawyer's practice.

Co-operation among lawyers of different member states

rC151

If you are approached by a lawyer of a CCBE State other than the UK to undertake work which you are not competent to undertake, you must assist that lawyer to obtain the information necessary to find and instruct a lawyer capable of providing the service asked for.

rC152

When co-operating with a lawyer of a CCBE State other than the UK you must take into account the differences which may exist between your respective legal systems and the professional organisations, competencies and obligations of lawyers in your respective states.

Correspondence between lawyers in different CCBE states

rC153

If you want to send to a lawyer in a CCBE State other than the UK a communication which you wish to remain "confidential" or "without prejudice", you must, before sending the communication, clearly express your intention in order to avoid misunderstanding, and ask if the lawyer is able to accept the communication on that basis.

rC154

If you are the intended recipient of a communication from a lawyer in another CCBE State which is stated to be "confidential" or "without prejudice", but which you are unable to accept on the basis intended by that lawyer, you must inform that lawyer accordingly without delay.

Responsibility for fees

rC155

If in the course of practice you instruct a lawyer of a CCBE State other than the UK to provide legal services on your behalf, you must pay the fees, costs and outlays which are properly incurred by that lawyer (even where the client is insolvent) unless:

.1 you were simply introducing the client to them and the lawyer of the CCBE State other than the UK has since had a direct contractual relationship with the client; or

.2 you have expressly disclaimed that responsibility at the outset, or at a later date you have expressly disclaimed responsibility for any fees incurred after that date; or the lawyer of the CCBE State other than the UK is, in the particular matter, practising as a lawyer in England or Wales (whether authorised by the BSB or any other Approved Regulator).

Disputes amongst lawyers in different member states

rC156

If you consider that a lawyer in a CCBE State other than the UK has acted in breach of a rule of professional conduct you must draw the breach to the other lawyer's attention.

rC157

If any personal dispute of a professional nature arises between you and a lawyer in a CCBE State other than the UK you must first try to settle it in a friendly way.

rC158

You must not commence any form of proceedings against a lawyer in a CCBE State other than the UK on matters referred to in Rules rC156 or rC157 without first informing the Bar Council and the other lawyer's bar or law society in order to allow them an opportunity to assist in resolving the matter.

.b an office of an organisation of which an employee, partner, manager or director is a relevant qualified person who is readily available to provide guidance to you.

If you are an employed barrister (non-authorised body) and you are only exercising a right of audience or conducting litigation for those persons listed at Rule rS39.1 to rS39.6, then the place of practice from which you perform such duties is only required to be an office of an organisation of which an employee, partner, manager or director is a relevant qualified person who is readily available to provide guidance to you if you are of less than one year's standing.

rS22

This may be, but is not necessarily, the same person.

Part 3 - B3. Scope of practice as a self-employed barrister (Rules S23-S24)Rules

rS24

You may only supply legal services if you are appointed or instructed by the court or instructed:

- .1 by a professional client (who may be an employee of the client); or
- .2 by a licensed access client, in which case you must comply with the licensed access rules; or
- .3 by or on behalf of any other client, provided that:
 - .a the matter is public access instructions and:
 - .i you are entitled to provide public access work and the instructions are relevant to such entitlement; and
 - .ii you have notified the Bar Standards Board that you are willing to accept instructions from lay clients; and
 - .iii you comply with the public access rules; or
 - .b the matter relates to the conduct of litigation and:
 - .i you have a litigation extension to your practising certificate; and

Guidance to Rule S24Guidance

gS3

References to professional client in Rule rS24.1 include foreign lawyers and references to client in Rule rS24.3 include foreign clients.

gS4

If you are instructed by a foreign lawyer to provide advocacy services in relation to court proceedings in England and Wales, you should advise the foreign lawyer of any limitation on the services you can provide. In particular, if conduct of litigation will be required, and you are not authorised to conduct litigation or have not been instructed to do so, you should advise the foreign lawyer to take appropriate steps to instruct a person authorised to conduct litigation and, if requested, assist the foreign lawyer to do so. If it appears to you that the foreign lawyer is not taking reasonable steps to instruct someone authorised to conduct litigation, then you should consider whether to return your instructions under rules C25 and C26.

Part 3 - B3. Scope of practice as a self-employed barrister (Rules S25-S26)Rules

rS25

Subject to Rule rS26, you must not in the course of your practice undertake the management, administration or general conduct of a client's affairs.

rS26

Nothing in Rule rS25 prevents you from undertaking the management, administration or general conduct of a client's affairs where such work is foreign work performed by you at or from an office outside England and Wales which you have established or joined primarily for the purposes of carrying out that particular foreign work or foreign work in general.

Part 3 - B4. Scope of practice as a BSB entity (Rules S27-S28)Rules

rS27

Rules rS28 and rS29 apply to you where you are acting in your capacity as a BSB entity.

rS28

You may only supply legal services if you are appointed or instructed by the court or instructed:

- .1 by a professional client (who may be an employee of the client);
- .2 by a licensed access client, in which case you must comply with the licensed access rules; or
- .3 by or on behalf of any other client, provided that:
 - .a at least one manager or employee is suitably qualified and experienced to undertake public access work; and

Guidance to Rule S28

Guidance

gS5

References to professional client in Rule rS28.1 include foreign lawyers and references to client in Rule rS28.3 include foreign clients.

gS6

If you are instructed to provide advocacy services in relation to court proceedings in England and Wales by a foreign lawyer or other professional client who does not have a right to conduct litigation pursuant to Rule rS28.1 and you are not authorised to conduct litigation yourself or you are otherwise not instructed to conduct the litigation in the particular matter, then you must:

- .1 advise the foreign lawyer to take appropriate steps to instruct a solicitor or other authorised litigator to conduct the litigation and, if requested, take reasonable steps to assist the foreign lawyer to do so;
- .2 cease to act and return your instructions if it appears to you that the foreign lawyer is not taking reasonable steps to instruct a solicitor or other authorised litigator to conduct the litigation; and
- .3 not appear in court unless a solicitor or other authorised litigator has been instructed to conduct the litigation.

gS7

The public access and licensed access rules do not apply to BSB entities as their circumstances will vary considerably. Nevertheless those rules provide guidance on best practice. In the case of a barrister, "suitably qualified and experienced to undertake public access work" will mean successful completion of the public access training required by the BSB or an exemption for the requirement to do the training. If you are a BSB entity, you will also need to have regard to relevant provisions in the Code of Conduct (Part 2 of this Handbook), especially C17, C21.7, C21.8 and C22. You will therefore need to consider whether:

- .1 You have the necessary skills and experience to do the work, including, where relevant, the ability to work with a vulnerable client;
- .2 The employees who will be dealing with the client are either authorised to conduct litigation or entitled to do public access work or have had other relevant training and experience;
- .3 it would be in the best interests of the client or of the interests of justice for the client to instruct a solicitor or other professional client if you are not able to provide such services;
- .4 If the matter involves the conduct of litigation and you are not able or instructed to conduct litigation, whether the client will be able to undertake the tasks that you cannot perform for them;
- .5 The client is clear about the services which you will and will not provide and any limitations on what you can do, and what will be expected of them;
- .6 If you are not able to act in legal aid cases, the client is in a position to take an informed decision as to whether to seek legal aid or proceed with public access.

gS8

You will also need to ensure that you keep proper records.

Part 3 - B4. Scope of practice as a BSB entity (Rules S29-S30)

Rules

rS29

Subject to Rule rS30, you must not in the course of your practice undertake the management, administration or general conduct of a client's affairs.

rS34

Nothing in Rule rS33 prevents you from undertaking the management, administration or general conduct of a client's affairs where such work is foreign work performed by you at or from an office outside England and Wales which you have established or joined primarily for the purposes of carrying out that particular foreign work or foreign work in general.

Part 3 - B6. Scope of practice as a manager of an authorised (non-BSB) body or as an employed barrister (authorised non-BSB body)

If you provide services through a non-authorised body (A) whose purpose is to facilitate the provision by you of in-house legal services to another non-authorised body (B) then for the purposes of rS39 you will be treated as if you are employed by B and you should comply with your duties under this Handbook as if you are employed by B.

gS8C

Reserved legal activities may only be provided in a way that is permitted by s15 of the Legal Services Act 2007. S15 details when an employer needs to be authorised to carry on reserved legal activities and prevents those activities from being provided to the public, or a section of the public, by a non-authorised body.

rS55

The litigation extension fee shall be the amount or amounts prescribed by the Bar Standards Board from time to time, and in these Rules the “appropriate litigation extension fee” or the “litigation extension fee payable by you” is the litigation extension fee payable by you having regard to, among other things:

.1 does not hold adequate insurance in accordance with Rule C76;

.8 has not provided the BSB with a unique email address.

rS60

When the Bar Standards Board issues a practising certificate or a litigation extension, it shall:

.1 inform the relevant barrister or registered European lawyer of that fact; and

.2 in the case of a practising certificate, publish that fact, together with the name and practising address of the barrister and registered European lawyer and the other details specified in Rule rS61 in the register on the Bar Standards Board's website; or

.3 in the case of a litigation extension:

.a issue a revised and updated practising certificate to incorporate an express reference to such litigation extension in accordance with Rule rS66; and

.b amend the register maintained on the Bar Standards Board's website to show that the relevant barrister or registered European lawyer (as the case may be) is now authorised to conduct litigation.

rS61

A practising certificate must state:

.1 the name of the barrister or registered European lawyer (as the case may be);

.2 the period for which the practising certificate is valid;

.3 the reserved legal activities which the barrister or registered European lawyer (as the case may be) to whom it is issued is thereby authorised to carry on;

.4 the capacity (or capacities) in which the barrister or registered European lawyer (as the case may be) practises; and

rS62

A practising certificate may be valid for a practising certificate year or part thereof and for one month after the end of the practising certificate year.

rS63

A full practising certificate shall authorise a barrister to exercise a right of audience before every court in relation to all proceedings.

rS64

A provisional practising certificate shall authorise a pupil to exercise a right of audience before every court in relation to all proceedings.

rS65

A limited practising certificate shall not authorise a barrister to exercise a right of audience, save that it shall authorise a barrister to exercise any right of audience which they had by reason of being a barrister and was entitled to exercise on 30 July 2000.

rS66

A practising certificate shall authorise a barrister to conduct litigation in relation to every court and all proceedings if the practising certificate specifies a litigation extension.

.b probate activities;

.c the administration of oaths; and

.d immigration work.

rS68

A registered European lawyer's practising certificate shall authorise a registered European lawyer to carry on the same reserved legal activities as a full practising certificate issued to a barrister, save that:

.1 a registered European lawyer is only authorised to exercise a right of audience or conduct litigation in proceedings which can lawfully only be provided by a solicitor, barrister or other qualified person, if they act in conjunction with a solicitor or barrister authorised to practise before the court, tribunal or public authority concerned and who could lawfully exercise that right; and

.2 a registered European lawyer is not authorised to prepare for remuneration any instrument creating or transferring an interest in land unless they have a home professional title obtained in Denmark, the Republic of Ireland, Finland, Sweden, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, the Czech Republic, Cyprus, Hungary or Slovakia.

Part 3 - C5. Amendment and revocation of practising certificates and litigation extensions

Rules

rS69

You must inform the Bar Standards Board as soon as reasonably practicable, and in any event within 28 days, if any of the information submitted in support of your practising certificate application form or litigation extension application form:

- .1 was incomplete or inaccurate when the application form was submitted; or
- .2 changes before the expiry of your practising certificate.

rS70

If you wish to:

- .1 change the capacity in which you practise (e.g. if you change from being an employed barrister or a manager or employee of a BSB entity or an authorised (non-BSB) body to a self-employed barrister, or vice versa, or if you commence or cease practice in a dual capacity); or
- .2 cease to be authorised to conduct litigation, before the expiry of your practising certificate, you must:

- .a notify the Bar Standards Board of such requested amendment to your practising certificate; and
- .b submit to the Bar Standards Board such further information as the Bar Standards Board may reasonably require in order for them to be able to determine whether or not to grant such proposed amendment to your practising certificate; and
- .c within 14 days of demand by the Bar Council pay to the Bar Council the amount (if any) by which the annual practising certificate fee which would apply to you in respect of your amended practising certificate exceeds the annual practising certificate fee which you have already paid (or undertaken to pay) to the Bar Council. In the event that the revised annual practising certificate fee is less than the amount originally paid to the Bar Council or in circumstances where you wish to cease to be authorised to conduct litigation, the Bar Council is not under any obligation to refund any part of the annual practising certificate fee already paid although it may in its absolute discretion elect to do so in the circumstances contemplated by the Schedule of Practising Certificate Fees issued by the Bar Council from time to time. In circumstances where you wish to cease to be authorised to conduct litigation, the Bar Standards Board is not under any obligation to refund any part of the litigation extension fee already paid although it may in its absolute discretion elect to do so.

The Bar Standards Board may amend a practising certificate if it is satisfied that any of the information contained in the relevant application form was inaccurate or incomplete or has changed, but may not amend a practising certificate (except in response to a request from the barrister or a registered European lawyer) without first:

- .1 giving written notice to the barrister or registered European lawyer of the grounds on which the practising certificate may be amended; and
- .2 giving the barrister or registered European lawyer a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

rS72

The Bar Standards Board shall endorse a practising certificate to reflect any qualification restriction or condition imposed on the barrister or registered European lawyer by the Bar Standards Board or by a Disciplinary Tribunal, Interim Suspension or Disqualification Panel, Fitness to Practise Panel or the High Court.

rS73

The Bar Standards Board:

- .1 shall revoke a practising certificate:

- .a if the barrister becomes authorised to practise by another approved regulator;
 - .b if the barrister or registered European lawyer is disbarred or suspended from practice as a barrister or registered European lawyer whether on an interim basis under section D of Part 5 or otherwise under section B of Part 5;
 - .c if the barrister or registered European lawyer has notified the Bar Standards Board that they no longer wish to have a practising certificate;
 - .d in the case of a Registered European Lawyer, where the individual no longer meets the eligibility requirements; and
- .2 may revoke a practising certificate:
- .a in the circumstances set out in Rule rS59; or
 - .b if the barrister or registered European lawyer has given an undertaking to pay the appropriate practising certificate fee and fails to comply with that undertaking in accordance with its terms, but in either case only after:
 - (i) giving written notice to the relevant barrister or registered European lawyer of the grounds on which the practising certificate may be revoked; and
 - (ii) giving the relevant barrister or registered European lawyer a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

rS74

The Bar Standards Board:

- .1 shall revoke a litigation extension if the barrister or registered European lawyer has notified the Bar Standards Board that they no longer wish to have the litigation extension; and
- .2 may revoke a litigation extension:
- .a in the circumstances set out in Rule rS59; or
 - .b if the barrister or registered European lawyer has given an undertaking to pay the appropriate litigation extension fee and fails to comply with that undertaking in accordance with its terms, but in either case only after:
 - (i) giving written notice to the relevant barrister or registered European lawyer of the grounds on which the litigation extension may be revoked; and
 - (ii) giving the relevant barrister or registered European lawyer a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

Part 3 - C6. Applications for review

Rules

rS75

If you contend that the Bar Standards Board has:

- .1 wrongly failed or refused to issue or amend a practising certificate; or
- .2 wrongly amended or revoked a practising certificate; or
- .3 wrongly failed or refused to issue a litigation extension; or
- .4 wrongly revoked a litigation extension, in each case in accordance with this Section 3.C, then you may lodge an application for review using the form supplied for that purpose by the Bar Standards Board which can be found on its website. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.C6 does not apply to any amendment or revocation of a practising certificate or litigation extension made by order of a Disciplinary Tribunal, Interim Suspension or Disqualification Panel, Fitness to Practise Panel or the High Court.

The decision of the Bar Standards Board shall take effect notwithstanding any application for review being submitted in accordance with Rule S75. However, the Bar Standards Board may, in its absolute discretion, issue a temporary practising certificate or litigation extension to a barrister or registered European lawyer who has lodged an application for review.

rS77

If the review finds that the Bar Standards Board:

- .1 has wrongly failed or refused to issue a practising certificate, then the Bar Standards Board must issue such practising certificate as ought to have been issued; or
- .2 has wrongly failed or refused to amend a practising certificate, then the Bar Standards Board must make such amendment to the practising certificate as ought to have been made; or

.3 has wrongly amended a practising certificate, then the Bar Standards Board must cancel the amendment; or

.4 has wrongly revoked a practising certificate, then the Bar Standards Board must re-issue the practising certificate; or

.5 has wrongly failed or refused to grant a litigation extension, then the Bar Standards Board must grant such litigation extension as ought to have been granted; or

.6 has wrongly revoked a litigation extension, then the Bar Standards Board must re-grant the litigation extension.

Part 3 - E. Entity Application and Authorisation

Rules

Part 3 - E1. Eligibility for authorisation to practise as a BSB entity

Rules

rS82

In this Section 3.E, “you” and “your” refer to the partnership, LLP or company which is applying for, or has applied for (in accordance with this Section 3.E) authorisation or (if a licensable body) a licence to practise as a BSB entity, and references in these Rules to “authorisation to practise” mean the grant by the Bar Standards Board of an authorisation or a licence (as the case may be) under this Section 3.E (distinguishing between the two only where the context so requires).

rS83

To be eligible for authorisation to practise as a BSB entity, you:

- .1 must have arrangements in place designed to ensure at all times that any obligations imposed from time to time on the BSB entity, its managers, owners or employees by or under the Bar Standards Board’s regulatory arrangements, including its rules and disciplinary arrangements, are complied with and confirm that the BSB entity and all owners and managers expressly consent to be bound by the Bar Standards Board’s regulatory arrangements (including disciplinary arrangements);
- .2 must have arrangements in place designed to ensure at all times that any other statutory obligations imposed on the BSB entity, its managers, owners or employees, in relation to the activities it carries on, are complied with;
- .3 must confirm that, subject to the provisions of rS131, you will have in place, at all times, individuals appointed to act as a HOLP (who must also be a manager) and a HOFA of the BSB entity;
- .4 must confirm that you have or will have appropriate insurance arrangements in place at all times in accordance with Rule C76 and you must be able to provide evidence of those insurance arrangements if required to do so by the Bar Standards Board;
- .5 must confirm that, in connection with your proposed practice, you will not directly or indirectly hold client money in accordance with Rule C73 or have someone else hold client money on your behalf other than in those circumstances permitted by Rule C74;
- .6 must confirm that no individual that has been appointed or will be appointed as a HOLP, HOFA, manager or employee of the BSB entity is disqualified from acting as such by the Bar Standards Board or any Approved Regulator pursuant to section 99 of the LSA or otherwise as a result of its regulatory arrangements;
- .7 must confirm that you will at all times have a practising address in England or Wales;
- .8 must confirm that:
 - .a if you are an LLP, you are incorporated and registered in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland under the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2000;
 - .b if you are a Company, you are:
 - .i incorporated and registered in England and Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland under Parts 1 and 2 of the Companies Act 2006;
- .9 must confirm that at least one manager or employee is an authorised individual in respect of each reserved legal activity which you wish to provide;
- .10 must confirm that you will pay annual fees as and when they become due.

rS84

In addition to the requirements set out at Rule rS83:

- .1 to be eligible for authorisation to practise as a BSB entity:

able to hold such interest taking into account the relevant suitability criteria.

rS85

In the event that you meet the eligibility criteria set out in Rule rS83, you may submit an application in accordance with Section 3.E2 and the Bar Standards Board will review that application in accordance with Section 3.E3 and 3.E4 to determine whether or not to authorise you or to grant you a licence (as appropriate) to practise as a BSB entity. In the event that the Bar Standards Board determines that you should be authorised or licensed (as appropriate) to practise as a BSB entity then it may either:

rS86

Authorise you to practise as a BSB entity in the event that you also meet the eligibility criteria set out in Rule rS84.1 and you have applied to be authorised as such in your relevant application form; or

.1 license you to practise as a BSB licensed body, in the event that you also meet the eligibility criteria set out in Rule rS84.2 and you have applied to be authorised as such in your relevant application form.

rS87

Such authorisation or licence (as appropriate) will entitle you to:

- .2 to carry on:
 - .a reserved instrument activities;
 - .b probate activities;
 - .c the administration of oaths;
- .3 to do immigration work; and

Guidance to Rules S82-S85

Guidance

gS13

Single person entities are permitted under these arrangements. Therefore, a BSB entity may (subject to any structural requirements imposed by general law for the particular type of entity) comprise just one barrister who is both the owner and manager of that entity.

gS14

These are mandatory eligibility requirements. The Bar Standards Board has a discretion to take other factors into account in deciding whether an applicant body is one which it would be appropriate for it to regulate (see Section 3.E3 and 3.E4 below).

.1 notify the Bar Standards Board of such a proposed appointment before it is made; and

.2 make an application to the Bar Standards Board for approval of the new HOLP, HOFA, owner or manager (as appropriate); and

rS92

On receipt of the application, the Bar Standards Board may require, from you or from a third party, such additional information, documents or references as it considers appropriate to the consideration of your application.

rS93

You are responsible for the contents of your application and any information submitted to the Bar Standards Board by you, or on your behalf, and you must not submit (or cause or permit to be submitted on your behalf) information to the Bar Standards Board which you do not believe is full and accurate.

rS94

The application fee and the litigation extension fee shall be the amount or amounts prescribed by the Bar Standards Board from time to time. The authorisation fee and litigation fee shall also be payable and shall be the amount or amounts prescribed by the Bar Standards Board from time to time.

gS18

Once you have submitted an application, if you fail to disclose to the Bar Standards Board any information of which you later become aware and which you would have been required to supply if it had been known by you at the time of the original application the Bar Standards Board may refuse your application in accordance with rS101.5.

Part 3 - E3. Decision process

Rules

rS95

Subject to Rules rS96 and rS97, the Bar Standards Board must make a decision in respect of each valid and complete application within the decision period.

rS96

In the event that the Bar Standards Board is not able to reach a decision within the decision period, it must notify you and must confirm to you the latest date by which you will have received a response to your application from the Bar Standards Board.

rS97

The Bar Standards Board may issue more than one notice to extend the decision period except that:

- .1 any notice to extend must always be issued before the decision period expires on the first occasion, and before any such extended decision period expires on any second and subsequent occasions; and
- .2 no notice to extend can result in the total decision period exceeding more than 9 months.

rS98

During its consideration of your application form, the Bar Standards Board may identify further information or documentation which it needs in order to be able to reach its decision. If this is the case, you must provide such additional information or documentation as soon as possible after you receive the relevant request from the Bar Standards Board. Any delay in providing this information shall further entitle the Bar Standards Board to issue an extension notice in accordance with Rule rS96 and rS97 (as the case may be) or to treat the application as having been withdrawn.

Part 3 - E4. Issues to be considered by the Bar Standards Board (Rules S99-S100)

Rules

Applications for authorisation or the grant of a licence

rS99

In circumstances where the mandatory conditions in Rules rS83 and rS84 have been met, the Bar Standards Board must then consider whether to exercise its discretion to grant the authorisation or licence (as appropriate). In exercising this discretion, the Bar Standards Board will consider whether the entity is one which it would be appropriate for the Bar Standards Board to regulate, taking into account its analysis of the risks posed by you, the regulatory objectives of the LSA and the Entity Regulation Policy Statement of the Bar Standards Board as published from time to time.

rS100

In circumstances where the mandatory conditions set out at Rules S83 and S84 have not been met, the Bar Standards Board must refuse to grant the authorisation or licence (as appropriate).

rS101

Where the Bar Standards Board concludes that you are an entity which it is appropriate for it to regulate the Bar Standards Board may nonetheless in its discretion refuse your application for authorisation if:

- .1 it is not satisfied that your managers and owners are suitable as a group to operate or control a practice providing services regulated by the Bar Standards Board;
- .2 if it is not satisfied that your proposed HOLP and HOFAs meet the relevant suitability criteria;
- .3 it is not satisfied that your management or governance arrangements are adequate to safeguard the regulatory objectives of the LSA or the policy objectives of the Bar Standards Board as set out in the Entity Regulation Policy Statement;
- .4 it is not satisfied that, if the authorisation is granted, you will comply with the Bar Standards Board's regulatory arrangements including this Handbook and any conditions imposed on the authorisation;
- .5 you have provided inaccurate or misleading information in your application or in response to any requests by the Bar Standards Board for information;
- .6 you have failed to notify the Bar Standards Board of any changes in the information provided in the application;
- .7 removed;
- .8 for any other reason, the Bar Standards Board considers that it would be inappropriate for the Bar Standards Board to grant authorisation to you, having regard to its analysis of the risk posed by you, the regulatory objectives of the LSA or the Entity Regulation Policy Statement of the Bar Standards Board.

gS21

In circumstances where the Bar Standards Board rejects your application on the basis of Rule rS101, you will have the opportunity to make the necessary adjustments to your composition and to re-apply to become a BSB entity.

Applications for authorisation to conduct litigation

rS102

If the Bar Standards Board is unable to satisfy itself that the BSB entity meets the requirements set out in Rule rS89, it can refuse to grant the litigation extension.

Approval applications for any new HOLPs, HOFAs, owners and/or managers

rS103

The Bar Standards Board must consider any approval applications for any new HOLPs, HOFAs, owners and/or managers made in accordance with Rule rS90 and must determine any application by deciding whether the relevant individual meets the suitability criteria which apply relevant to such a proposed appointment.

Part 3 - E5. Suitability criteria in respect of HOLPs, HOFAs, owners and managers

Rules

rS104

The Bar Standards Board must conclude that an individual does not meet the suitability criteria to undertake the role of a HOLP if:

- .1 they are not an authorised individual;
- .2 they are disqualified from acting as a HOLP by the Bar Standards Board or an Approved Regulator or licensing authority pursuant to section 99 of the LSA or otherwise as a result of its regulatory arrangements; or
- .3 It determines that the individual is not able effectively to carry out the duties imposed on a HOLP by section 91 of the LSA.

rS105

The Bar Standards Board may conclude that an individual does not meet the suitability criteria to undertake the role of a HOLP if any of the circumstances listed in Rule rS110 apply to the individual designated as the HOLP.

rS106

The Bar Standards Board must conclude that an individual does not meet the suitability criteria for acting as a HOFA if:

- .1 they are disqualified from acting as a HOFA by the Bar Standards Board or by an Approved Regulator or licensing authority pursuant to section 99 of the LSA or otherwise as a result of its regulatory arrangements; or
- .2 the Bar Standards Board determines that they are not able effectively to carry out the duties imposed on a HOFA by section 92 of the LSA.

rS107

The Bar Standards Board may conclude that an individual does not meet the suitability criteria for acting as a HOFA if any of the circumstances listed in Rule rS110 apply to them.

rS108

If an owner is also a non-authorised individual, the Bar Standards Board must approve them as an owner. The Bar Standards Board shall approve a non-authorised individual to be an owner of a BSB licensed body if:

- .1 their holding of an ownership interest does not compromise the regulatory objectives; and
- .2 their holding of an ownership interest does not compromise compliance with the duties imposed pursuant to section 176 of the LSA by the licensed body or by any authorised individuals who are to be employees or managers of that licensed body; and
- .3 they otherwise meet the suitability criteria to hold that ownership interest taking into account:
 - (a) their probity and financial position;
 - (b) whether they are disqualified pursuant to section 100(1) of LSA or included in the list maintained by the Legal Services Board pursuant to paragraph 51 of Schedule 13 of the LSA; and
 - (c) their associates; and
 - (d) the suitability criteria in Rule rS110 which apply to managers and employees.

rS109

If a manager is a non-authorised individual, the Bar Standards Board must approve them as a manager. The Bar Standards Board must approve a non-authorised individual to be a manager of a BSB licensed body if they meet the suitability criteria to hold that interest taking into account:

- .1 their probity;
- .2 whether they are disqualified pursuant to section 100(1) of the LSA or included in the list maintained by the Legal Services Board pursuant to paragraph 51 of Schedule 13 of the LSA; and
- .3 the suitability criteria in Rule rS110 which apply to managers and employees.

rS110

The Bar Standards Board may reject an application if it is not satisfied that:

- .1 an individual identified in an application for authorisation or the grant of a licence as a proposed owner, manager, HOLP or HOFA of the relevant applicant body; or

.2 any individual identified as a replacement owner, manager, HOLP or HOFA, meets the suitability criteria to act as an owner, manager, HOLP or HOFA of a BSB entity. Reasons why the Bar Standards Board may conclude that an individual does not meet the suitability criteria include where an individual:

.3 has been committed to prison in civil or criminal proceedings (unless the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (SI 1975/1023) applies, this is subject to any conviction being unspent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended));

.4 has been disqualified from being a director;

.5 has been removed from the office of charity trustee or trustee for a charity by an order under section 72(1)(d) of the Charities Act 1993;

.6 is an undischarged bankrupt;

.7 has been adjudged bankrupt and discharged;

.8 has entered into an individual voluntary arrangement or a partnership voluntary arrangement under the Insolvency Act 1986;

.9 has been a manager of a regulated entity or a BSB entity which has entered into a voluntary arrangement under the Insolvency Act 1986;

.11 lacks capacity (within the meaning of the Mental Capacity Act 2005) and powers under sections 15 to 20 or section 48 of that Act are exercisable in relation to that individual;

.12 is the subject of an outstanding judgment or judgments involving the payment of money;

.13 is currently charged with an indictable offence, or has been convicted of an indictable offence, any offence of dishonesty, or any offence under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 or the Compensation Act 2006 (unless the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (SI 1975/1023) applies, this is subject to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (as amended));

.14 has been disqualified from being appointed to act as a HOLP or a HOFA or from being a manager or employed by an authorised or licensed body (as appropriate) by the Bar Standards Board or another Approved Regulator or licensing authority pursuant to its or their powers under section 99 of the LSA or otherwise as a result of its regulatory arrangements;

.15 has been the subject in another jurisdiction of circumstances equivalent to those listed in Rules rS110.1 to rS110.14;

.16 has an investigation or disciplinary proceedings pending against them and/or has professional conduct findings against them either under the disciplinary scheme for barristers or otherwise; or

Guidance to Rule S110

gS21.1

For the avoidance of doubt rS110 does not oblige you to disclose cautions or criminal convictions that are “spent” under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 unless the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (SI 1975/1023) applies. The latter entitles the BSB to ask for disclosure of unprotected cautions or criminal convictions that are “spent” in relation to HOLPs and HOFAs of licensed bodies when seeking authorisation and owners who require approval under Schedule 13 to the LSA.

Part 3 - E6. Notification of the authorisation decision

Rules

rS111

The Bar Standards Board will notify you of its decision in writing within the decision period or by such later date as may have been notified to the applicant body in accordance with Rules rS96 or rS97. In the event that the Bar Standards Board decides to refuse to grant the application, it must give the reasons for such refusal.

Part 3 - E7. Terms of authorisationRules*rS112

Any authorisation given by the Bar Standards Board to a BSB entity, and the terms of any licence granted by the Bar Standards Board to a BSB licensed body in accordance with this Section 3.E must specify:

- .1 the activities which are reserved legal activities and which the BSB entity is authorised to carry on by virtue of the authorisation or the licence (as the case may be); and
- .2 any conditions subject to which the authorisation or the licence (as the case may be) is given (which may include those in Rule rS114).

Authorisations and licences must, in all cases, be given on the conditions that:

- .1 any obligation which may from time to time be imposed on you (or your managers, employees, or owners) by the Bar Standards Board is complied with; and
- .2 any other obligation imposed on you (or your managers, employees or owners) by or under the LSA or any other enactment is complied with.
- .3 you (and your managers, employees, and owners) consent to be bound by the regulatory arrangements (including the disciplinary arrangements) of the Bar Standards Board; and
- .4 if the conditions outlined at rS113.5 apply, the Bar Standards Board may without notice:
 - .a modify an authorisation granted under rS116;
 - .b revoke an authorisation under rS117;
 - .c require specific co-operation with the Bar Standards Board as provided for in rC64 and rC70;
 - .d take such action as may be necessary in the public or clients' interests and in the interests of the regulatory objectives; and
 - .e recover from the BSB entity any reasonable costs that were necessarily incurred in the exercise of its regulatory functions.
- .5 The conditions referred to in rS113.4 are that:
 - .a one or more of the terms of the BSB entity's authorisation have not been complied with;
 - .b a person has been appointed receiver or manager of the property of the BSB entity;
 - .c a relevant insolvency event has occurred in relation to the BSB entity;
 - .d the Bar Standards Board has reason to suspect dishonesty on the part of any manager or employee of the BSB entity in connection with either that BSB entity's business or the business of another body of which the person was a manager or employee, or the practice or former practice of the manager or employee;
 - .e the Bar Standards Board is satisfied that it is necessary to exercise any of the powers listed in rS113.4 in relation to the BSB entity to protect the interests of clients (or former or potential clients) of the BSB entity.

In addition to the provisions in Rule rS113, an authorisation or a licence may be given subject to such other terms as the Bar Standards Board considers appropriate including terms as to:

- .1 the non-reserved activities which you may or may not carry on; and/or
- .2 in the case of licensed bodies:
 - (a) the nature of any interest held by a non-authorised owner provided always that the Bar Standards Board complies with its obligations under paragraph 17 of Schedule 13 to the LSA; and/or
 - (b) any limitations on the shareholdings or voting controls which may be held by non-authorised owners in accordance with paragraph 33 of Schedule 13 to the LSA.

Part 3 - E8. Duration of the authorisation/licence grantedRules*rS115

Except where indicated otherwise in the authorisation or licence, any authorisation or licence granted in accordance with this Section 3.E will be of unlimited duration except that the authorisation or licence:

.1 the authorisation or licence shall cease to have effect on the occurrence of any of the following:

- (a) if you have your authorisation/licence withdrawn in accordance with Rule rS117; or
- (b) if you obtain authorisation/licence from an Approved Regulator or licensing authority;

.2 the authorisation or licence may cease to have effect on the occurrence of any of the following:

- (a) if you fail to provide the relevant monitoring information or fail to pay any relevant fees in circumstances where the Bar Standards Board has notified you (i) that such information or payment is required within a particular time; and (ii) that failure to provide such information or payment within that time may result in the withdrawal of your authorisation or licence in accordance with this Rule rS115; or
- (b) if you fail to replace your HOLP/HOFA in accordance with the requirements of this Handbook.

.3 The licence of a partnership or other unincorporated body ("the existing body") may continue where the existing body ceases to exist and another body succeeds to the whole or substantially the whole of its business subject to the following in rS115.3(a)-(b):

- (a) you have notified the Bar Standards Board of such a change within 28 days;
- (b) if there is no remaining partner who was a partner before the existing body ceased to exist the licence shall cease to have effect from the date the existing body ceased to exist.

Part 3 - E9. Modification of an authorisation/licence

Rules

rS116

In addition to any powers which the Bar Standards Board may have in accordance with Part 5, the Bar Standards Board may modify the terms of an authorisation or licence granted by it:

- .1 if you apply to the Bar Standards Board for the terms of such authorisation or licence (as the case may be) to be modified; or
- .2 if it is satisfied that any of the information contained in the relevant application form was inaccurate or incomplete or has changed; or
- .3 if such modification is required in accordance with the provisions of this Handbook; or
- .4 where the Bar Standards Board reasonably considers that such modification is appropriate and in accordance with the regulatory objectives under the LSA or the policy objectives of the Bar Standards Board; or
- .5 where the conditions in rS113.5 are met, but, in the circumstances set out in Rules rS116.2 to rS116.4 above, shall only be entitled to do so after:

- .a giving notice to you in writing of the modifications which the Bar Standards Board is intending to make to your authorisation or licence (as the case may be); and
- .b giving you a reasonable opportunity to make representations about such proposed modifications.

Part 3 - E10. Revocation or suspension of an authorisation/licence

Rules

rS117

In addition to any powers which the Bar Standards Board may have in accordance with Part 5, the Bar Standards Board may:

.1 revoke an authorisation or licence granted by it:

- (a) subject to Section 3.F, in the event that you no longer comply with the mandatory requirements set out in Rules rS83 and rS84; or
- (b) if your circumstances have changed in relation to the issues considered by the Bar Standards Board in Section 3.E4; or
- (c) if revocation otherwise appears appropriate taking into account the regulatory objectives of the Bar Standards Board; or
- (d) where the conditions in rS113.5 are met.

.2 suspend an authorisation or licence granted by it to give it an opportunity to investigate whether or not your authorisation or licence should be revoked in accordance with Rule rS117 (for the avoidance of doubt a BSB entity whose authorisation has been suspended remains a BSB regulated person),

but (except for when the conditions in rS113.5 are met) in either case only after:

- (i) giving written notice to the relevant BSB entity of the grounds on which the authorisation or licence may be revoked; and
- (ii) giving the relevant BSB entity a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

Part 3 - E11. Applications for review

Rules

rS118

If you consider that the Bar Standards Board has (other than pursuant to [Section 5]):

- .1 wrongly refused an application for authorisation or licence; or
- .2 wrongly imposed a term or condition on an authorisation or licence; or
- .3 wrongly modified the terms of your authorisation or licence; or
- .4 wrongly refused to modify the terms of your authorisation or licence; or
- .5 wrongly revoked or suspended your authorisation or licence; or
- .6 wrongly done any of these things in relation to a litigation extension to your authorisation or licence; or
- .7 failed to provide to you notice of a decision in accordance with this Section 3.E, then you may lodge an application for review of that decision using the form supplied for that purpose by the Bar Standards Board. Such application for review will only have been made once the Bar Standards Board has received the relevant fee in respect of such application for review.

rS119

Any individual:

- .1 designated to act as a HOLP or a HOFA; or
- .2 identified as a non-authorised owner or manager of the applicant body, who considers that the Bar Standards Board has wrongly concluded that they do not meet the suitability criteria which apply to their proposed position in the entity, may lodge an application for a review of that decision using the form supplied for that purpose by the Bar Standards Board. Alternatively, you may lodge an application for review on their behalf whether or not they have asked you to. In either case, such an application for a review will only have been made once the Bar Standards Board has received the relevant fee for it.

Any application for a review of the decision must be made within 28 days from the date when the decision is notified to you.

rS121

The decision of the Bar Standards Board will take effect notwithstanding the making of any application for a review in accordance with Rule rS118 or rS119. However, the Bar Standards Board may, in its absolute discretion, issue a temporary authorisation, licence or litigation extension to a BSB entity which has lodged an application for a review in accordance with this Section 3.E11.

rS122

If the review finds that the Bar Standards Board:

- .1 has wrongly failed or refused to grant an authorisation or licence; or
- .2 has wrongly imposed a term or condition on an authorisation or licence;

then in each case the Bar Standards Board must issue such authorisation or licence as ought to have been issued.

rS123

If the review finds that the Bar Standards Board:

- .1 finds that the Bar Standards Board has wrongly modified an authorisation or licence; or
- .2 finds that the Bar Standards Board has wrongly refused to modify an authorisation or licence, then in each case the Bar Standards Board shall make such modification to the authorisation or licence as ought to have been made.

rS124

If the review finds that the Bar Standards Board has wrongly revoked or suspended an authorisation or licence, then the Bar Standards Board shall re-issue such authorisation or licence.

.1 If the review finds that the Bar Standards Board has wrongly done any of the things described in rS122 or rS123 in relation to your litigation extension, then the Bar Standards Board shall grant such litigation extension as ought to have been granted.

If the review finds that the Bar Standards Board has wrongly concluded that an individual does not meet the suitability criteria relevant to their proposed position, the Bar Standards Board shall amend its decision and confirm that they do meet the suitability criteria which apply to their proposed position.

rS126

If, after such a review, you or the relevant individual(s) (as the case may be) do not agree with the decision you or the relevant individual(s) may appeal to the First Tier Tribunal against the decision.

rS127

Any appeal to the First Tier Tribunal against a decision of the BSB must be lodged within 28 days from the date that the decision is notified to you.

rS127A

Where a BSB decision is appealed to the First Tier Tribunal, the First Tier Tribunal may suspend the effect of that decision until the conclusion of the appeal.

Part 3 - E12. Register

Rules

rS128

The Bar Standards Board must keep a public register containing the names and places of practice of all BSB entities (together with details of the reserved legal activities which such BSB entities are able to undertake) as well as details of any bodies which have in the past been granted authorisation or obtained a licence from the Bar Standards Board but where such licence and/or authorisation is no longer current.

rS129

If an authorisation or licence is, at any time, suspended or made subject to conditions, this must be noted on the register of BSB entities by the Bar Standards Board.

Part 3 - F. Continuing Compliance with the Authorisation and Licensing Requirements

Rules

Part 3 - F1. Non-compliance with the mandatory conditions

Rules

rS130

If, at any time, and for whatever reason, you fail to meet the mandatory conditions in Rules rS83 and rS84 which apply to the type of BSB entity which you are, then you must notify the Bar Standards Board of your failure to comply with the mandatory conditions within seven days of your failure to comply and, at the same time, you must submit your proposals for rectifying that non-compliance which, for the avoidance of doubt, must include your proposed timetable for rectifying them. If the Bar Standards Board considers that your proposals for rectifying them are not sufficient, the Bar Standards Board may issue a notice suspending or revoking your authorisation or licence (as appropriate) in accordance with Section 3.E10.

Guidance to Rule S130

Guidance

gS22

Examples of non-compliance include:

.1 where your last remaining authorised person:

.a dies; or

- .b abandons, retires or resigns from the practice; or
- .2 where you are a BSB entity (other than a BSB licensed body) a non-authorized individual is appointed as a manager of or otherwise acquires an ownership interest in such a practice;
- .3 where you cease to have available at least one employee who is authorised to carry on a particular reserved activity which you are authorised to provide. Examples of situations where an individual should be considered to be unavailable to a BSB entity include where:
 - .a they are committed to prison;
 - .b they are unable to attend to the practice because of incapacity caused by illness, accident or age;
 - .c they become and continue to lack capacity under Part 1 of the Mental Capacity Act 2005;
 - .d they are made subject to a condition on their practising certificate or registration which would be breached if they continue to be an owner and/or manager of the body; or
 - .e they are no longer authorised to perform the particular reserved legal activity.
- .4 you cease to have a HOLP or a HOFA appointed;
- .5 your HOLP, HOFA, any manager or owner ceases to meet the relevant suitability criteria; or
- .6 where you are a licensed body, your last remaining owner and/or manager who is a non-authorized individual dies or otherwise leaves the practice.

gS23

Examples of proposals that you may submit in order to rectify such non-compliance include:

- .1 In the case of Guidance gS22.1, that you are seeking to appoint a different authorised person to be an owner and/or a manager of a BSB entity;
- .2 In the case of Guidance gS22.2, confirmation that you will take the necessary steps to rectify your status, whether by submitting an application to the Bar Standards Board for authorisation to practise as a licensed body and/or for approval of the non-authorized individual as a manager or by ensuring that the non-authorized person divest themselves of their interest as soon as is reasonably practicable, or by seeking a licence from another licensing authority, as the case may be [but note Guidance gS24];
- .3 in the case of Guidance gS22.4, that you are seeking to appoint a replacement HOLP or HOFA (as appropriate) in accordance with the relevant procedure in Rule sS90;
- .4 in the case of Guidance gS22.5, that you are taking the necessary steps to exclude the relevant individual from the practice and, where necessary, you are taking steps to replace them; and
- .5 in the case of Guidance gS22.6, you confirm whether or not you are likely to appoint a replacement non-authorized individual or, if not, whether you will be seeking authorisation from the Bar Standards Board to practise as a BSB authorised body.

gS24

In respect of Guidance gS23.2, it may be the case that a non-authorized individual obtains an ownership interest in a BSB entity following the death of a barrister or a non-authorized person. Similarly, a non-authorized person who has not been approved pursuant to the suitability criteria may acquire an ownership interest in a licensed body. In these cases, it may be that the BSB entity will not need to apply for authorisation to practise as a licensed body or for approval of such non-authorized individual (as appropriate) if the BSB entity instead satisfies the Bar Standards Board that it is taking steps to ensure that such non-authorized individual divest themselves of their interest as soon as is reasonably practicable (for example, on completion of the relevant probate).

Part 3 - F2. Temporary emergency approvals for HOLPs and HOFAs

Rules

rS131

If a BSB entity ceases to have a HOLP or HOFA whose designation has been approved by the Bar Standards Board, the BSB entity must immediately and in any event within seven days:

- .1 notify the Bar Standards Board;
- .2 designate another manager or employee to replace its previous HOLP or HOFA, as appropriate; and
- .3 make an application to the Bar Standards Board for temporary approval of the new HOLP or HOFA, as appropriate.

rS132

The Bar Standards Board may grant a temporary approval under this Section 3.F2 if on the face of the application and any other information immediately before the Bar Standards Board, there is no evidence suggesting that the new HOLP or HOFA is not suitable to carry out the duties imposed on them under this Handbook.

rS133

If granted temporary approval under Rule rS132 for its designation of a new HOLP or HOFA, the BSB entity must:

- .1 designate a permanent HOLP or HOFA, as appropriate; and
- .2 submit a substantive application for approval of that designation in accordance with Rule rS90, before the expiry of the temporary approval or any extension of that approval by the Bar Standards Board, otherwise the Bar Standards Board may be entitled to suspend or revoke the authorisation or licence in accordance with Section 3.E10.

Part 4 - C. The CPD Rules

Rules

The mandatory continuing professional development requirements (Rules Q130-Q131)

Rules

rQ130

For the purpose of this Section 4.C:

.1 “calendar year” means a period of one year starting on 1 January in the year in question;

.2 “continuing professional development” (“CPD”) means work undertaken over and above the normal commitments of a barrister and is work undertaken with a view to developing the barrister’s skills, knowledge and professional standards in areas relevant to their present or proposed area of practice in order to keep the barrister up to date and maintain the highest standards of professional practice.

.3 “CPD Guidance” means guidance issued by the Bar Standards Board from time to time which sets out the CPD structure with which an EPP barrister should have regard to.

.4 “EPP” means the Established Practitioners Programme which requires barristers, once they have completed the NPP, to undertake CPD during each calendar year in accordance with these Rules.

.5 the “mandatory requirements” are those in Rules Q131 to Q138 below.

.6 “NPP” means the New Practitioner Programme which requires barristers to complete CPD in their first three calendar years of practice in accordance with these rules.

.7 a “pupillage year” is any calendar year in which a barrister is at any time a pupil.

.8 a “learning objective” is a statement of what a barrister intends to achieve through their CPD activities for that calendar year with reference to a specific aim and one or more outcomes.

rQ131

Any practising barrister who, as at 1 October 2001, had started but not completed the period of three years referred to in the Continuing Education Scheme Rules at Annex Q to the Sixth Edition of the Code of Conduct must complete a minimum of 42 hours of CPD during their first three years of practice.

Guidance to Rule Q131

gQ1

Rule rQ131 is intended to apply only in those limited circumstances where a barrister started practice before 1 October 2001 but after the NPP first came into force, left practice before completing the NPP, but has since returned. Rule rQ131 requires them to finish their NPP during whatever is left of their first three years of practice.

The mandatory continuing professional development requirements (Rule Q132)RulesrQ132

Any practising NPP barrister who starts practice on or after 1 October 2001 must during the first three calendar years in which the barrister holds a practising certificate after any pupillage year complete a minimum of 45 hours of CPD.

Guidance to Rule Q132GuidancegQ2

NPP barristers should have regard to rQ137 and the NPP guidance which will note the details of any compulsory courses the NPP barristers must complete. It also provides guidance as to the types of activities that count towards CPD.

The mandatory continuing professional development requirements (Rules Q133-Q134)RulesrQ133

Subject to Rule Q136, any EPP barrister who holds a practising certificate or certificates during a calendar year must undertake CPD.

rQ134

An EPP barrister who is required to undertake CPD must:

1. prepare a written CPD Plan setting out the barrister's learning objectives and the types of CPD activities they propose to undertake during the calendar year
2. keep a written record of the CPD activities the barrister has undertaken in the calendar year
3. keep a written record in the CPD Plan for each calendar year of:
 - a. the barrister's reflection on the CPD they have undertaken;
 - b. any variation in the barrister's planned CPD activities; and
 - c. the barrister's assessment of their future learning objectives.
4. Retain a record of the CPD Plan and completed CPD activities for three years.
5. submit to the Bar Standards Board an annual declaration of completion of CPD in the form specified by the BSB.

Guidance to Rules Q133-Q134GuidancegQ3

EPP barristers who are required by these Rules to undertake CPD should refer to the CPD Guidance. The CPD Guidance provides further detailed information which EPP barristers should have regard to when planning, undertaking and recording their CPD. The CPD Guidance is not prescriptive. Its purpose is to provide a structure that would represent good practice for most barristers when considering their CPD requirements.

gQ4

The CPD Guidance explains that these Rules do not specify a minimum number of CPD hours which an EPP barrister must undertake in a calendar year: it is the responsibility of the individual barrister to determine the CPD activities they will undertake in order meet the requirements of CPD. The Bar Standards Board will assess and monitor barristers' compliance with CPD.

gQ5

The underlying principle behind the requirement to plan CPD and set learning objectives is that barristers consider their own circumstances and development needs when they complete CPD activities. This best ensures that activities completed contribute to the development of the barrister's practice.

The mandatory continuing professional development requirements (Rules Q135-Q138)Rules

rQ135

Upon the request of the Bar Standards Board, a barrister must produce their CPD Plan and record of CPD activities for assessment.

rQ136

Rule Q133 does not apply:

.1 in the case of a barrister to whom Rule Q131 applies, to any calendar year forming or containing part of the period of 3 years referred to in Rule Q131; or

.2 in the case of a barrister to whom Rule Q132 applies, during any pupillage year or during the first three calendar years in which the barrister holds a practising certificate.

rQ137

The Bar Standards Board may, by resolution, specify the nature, content and format of courses and other activities which may be undertaken by barristers (or by any category of barristers) in order to satisfy the mandatory requirements.

rQ138

The Bar Standards Board may, by resolution and after consultation with the Inns, Circuits and other providers as appropriate, vary the minimum number of hours of CPD which must be completed by an NPP barrister in order to satisfy any of the mandatory requirements.

Reference where an applicable person acting in judicial or quasi-judicial capacity

rE5

If it appears to the Commissioner that a report relates to an applicable person's actions in a part-time or temporary judicial or quasi-judicial capacity, the Commissioner must refer the report to the person or body responsible for the appointment of the applicable person to the judicial or quasi-judicial office concerned or another person or body responsible for considering such reports ("the appropriate body"), where it appears that the appropriate body should consider the report, requesting notification of the outcome of the appropriate body's consideration as soon as it has been dealt with, subject to rE6 to rE8 below.

rE6

Where:

rE11

If, having referred a report to another body under rE10, the Commissioner subsequently considers that the report has not been dealt with by that other body within a reasonable time or fully or satisfactorily, the Commissioner may choose to exercise the powers set out in rE2.1 and rE2.2 above.

Initial assessment of reports

rE12

Where the Commissioner, having regard to rE13, considers that a report:

- .1 discloses a potential breach of the Handbook by an applicable person; and/or
- .2 potentially satisfies the disqualification condition

the Commissioner may treat the report as an allegation.

rE13

In determining whether to treat a report as an allegation under rE12 the Commissioner must have regard to:

- .1 whether the conduct disclosed in the report or its consequences presents sufficient risk to the regulatory objectives to justify further action;
- .2 whether the conduct disclosed in the report can be properly and fairly investigated; and
- .3 whether the conduct disclosed in the report could not more appropriately be dealt with under one or more of the provisions set out at rE4 to rE11 above.

rE16

If a new report comes to light during an investigation of an allegation that meets the criteria of rE12, it may be treated as a new allegation and investigated in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.A.

rE17

The Commissioner may defer further consideration of the original allegation until a new allegation has been investigated.

Part 5 - A3. Possible outcomes of the investigation of an allegation

Regulations

Powers of the Commissioner in relation to the conclusion of investigations

rE19

At the conclusion of an investigation of an allegation the Commissioner has the power to decide:

- .1 that the conduct alleged did not constitute a breach of the Handbook, or that there was insufficient evidence of a breach of the Handbook (on the civil standard of proof);
 - .2 that the conduct alleged did constitute a breach of the Handbook (on the civil standard of proof) but that, in all the circumstances, no enforcement action should be taken in respect of the breach;
 - .3 that the conduct alleged did constitute a breach of the Handbook (on the civil standard of proof) and that the breach should be dealt with by the imposition of an administrative sanction;
 - .4 that the conduct alleged may constitute a breach of the Handbook and, if the breach were to be proved, that an administrative sanction under rE19.3 would not be appropriate in all the circumstances, and that the subject matter of the allegation against an applicable person involves:
 - .a a conviction for an offence of dishonesty or deception; or
 - .b a conviction for an offence under Section 4, Section 5 or Section 5A Road Traffic Act 1988 (Driving or being in charge of a motor vehicle with alcohol concentration/concentration of a controlled drug above prescribed limit); or

rE20

In conjunction with a decision under rE19, or following a recommendation from an Independent Decision-Making Panel under rE23, the Commissioner may refer any allegation for supervisory action.

rE21

In conjunction with a decision under rE19.1 or rE19.2 the Commissioner may issue the applicable person with advice.

Powers of an Independent Decision-Making Panel in relation to allegations referred to it

rE22

Where an allegation has been referred to an Independent Decision-Making Panel under rE19.5 the Independent Decision-Making Panel has the power to decide:

- .2 that, on the evidence before it, the conduct alleged did constitute a breach of the Handbook (on the civil standard of proof) but that, in all the circumstances, no enforcement action should be taken in respect of the breach; or

.3 that, on the evidence before it, the conduct alleged did constitute a breach of the Handbook (on the civil standard of proof) and that the breach should be dealt with by an administrative sanction; or

.4 that

.a there is a realistic prospect of a finding of professional misconduct being made or there is a realistic prospect of the disqualification condition being satisfied, and

.b having regard to the regulatory objectives, it is in the public interest to pursue Disciplinary Action in which case the allegation must form the subject matter of Disciplinary Action.

rE23

In conjunction with a decision under rE22 the Independent Decision-Making Panel may recommend the matter be referred for supervisory action.

rE24

In conjunction with a decision under rE22.1 or rE22.2 the Independent Decision-Making Panel may issue the applicable person with advice.

Independent Decision-Making Panel and Commissioner powers/requirements

rE25

In exercising its powers under Section 5.A, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must have regard to the Bar Standards Board enforcement strategy and any published Bar Standards Board policy and guidance that appear to be relevant.

Administrative sanction

rE26

Pursuant to rE19.3 and rE22.3 above, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel may impose an administrative sanction on an applicable person where there is sufficient evidence on the balance of probabilities of a breach of the Handbook by that applicable person.

rE27

The Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel may only impose an administrative sanction on an applicable person pursuant to rE26 where:

.1 the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel considers that to impose an administrative sanction is proportionate and sufficient in the public interest; or

.2 where the matter falls to be considered under rE209 of Section 5.B of the Handbook.

rE28

In determining the level of administrative sanction to be imposed, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must have regard to any published Bar Standards Board policy that appears to the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel to be relevant.

rE29

The maximum level of a fine which can be imposed by the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel under rE19.3 and rE22.3 is:

.1 £1,000 (one thousand pounds) where the fine is to be imposed on an applicable person who is not a BSB entity; or

.2 £1,500 (one thousand and five hundred pounds) where the fine is to be imposed on a BSB entity.

The applicable person may appeal a decision of the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel to impose an administrative sanction in accordance with Section 5.A of the Handbook

rE32

rE33

Where rE19.4 or rE22.4 is applicable, the allegation shall be referred to Disciplinary Action only where the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel is satisfied that:

- .1 there is a realistic prospect of a finding of professional misconduct being made or there is a realistic prospect of the disqualification condition being satisfied; and
- .2 having regard to the regulatory objectives, it is in the public interest to pursue Disciplinary Action.

rE34

Where the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel is satisfied that the requirements of rE33 are met, an allegation which the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel is otherwise intending to refer to the Disciplinary Tribunal may, with the consent of the applicable person against whom the allegation is made, be finally determined by an Independent Decision-Making Panel. This is referred to as the "determination by consent procedure".

rE35

The Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must, in deciding whether to refer an allegation to the determination by consent procedure, consider all the circumstances. However, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel may only make the allegation subject to the determination by consent procedure if:

- .1 the applicable person submits to the jurisdiction of an Independent Decision-Making Panel; and
- .2 the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel considers that:
 - .a there are no substantial disputes of fact which can only fairly be resolved by oral evidence being taken; and
 - .b having regard to the regulatory objectives, it is in the public interest to resolve the allegation under the determination by consent procedure; and
 - .c the potential professional misconduct or disqualification condition, if proved, combined with the applicable person's previous disciplinary history, does not appear to be such as to warrant a period of suspension or disbarment, the withdrawal of an authorisation or licence (as appropriate) or the imposition of a disqualification order (or equivalent by another Approved Regulator).

rE36

Disciplinary Action will be conducted in accordance with such procedures as the Bar Standards Board may prescribe from time to time, including in Section 5.B of the Handbook, and will apply the appropriate standard of proof as described in rE37, rE38, rE164, and rE261A.

rE37

Where a matter is to be considered under the determination by consent procedure as per rE34, the standard of proof to be applied is the civil standard of proof, except when rE38 applies.

rE38

In considering allegations under the determination by consent procedure, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must apply the criminal standard of proof when deciding charges of professional misconduct where the conduct alleged within that charge occurred prior to 1 April 2019, including where the same alleged conduct continued beyond 31 March 2019 and forms the basis of a single charge of professional misconduct.

Determination by Consent

rE39

Where the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel has decided to refer an allegation to the determination by consent procedure in accordance with rE35, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel (as the case may be) may terminate the determination by consent procedure at any time if it no longer considers that the requirements of rE35 are satisfied, or for any other good reason.

rE40

If the determination by consent procedure ends other than by a finding and sanction to which the applicable person consents, then an allegation may be referred to a three-person Disciplinary Tribunal.

rE41

An Independent Decision-Making Panel may impose on an applicable person against whom a charge of professional misconduct has been found proved under the determination by consent procedure any one or more the following:

- .1 an order to pay a fine to the Bar Standards Board (the amount of such fine to be determined having regard to the relevant sanctions guidance) on such terms as to payment as the Independent Decision-Making Panel thinks fit;
- .2 the imposition of any conditions on their licence or authorisation (where appropriate);
- .3 a reprimand by the Bar Standards Board;
- .4 advice by the Independent Decision-Making Panel as to their future conduct; and
- .5 an order to complete (or, in the case of a BSB entity, an order to procure that any relevant managers or employees complete) continuing professional development of such nature and duration as an Independent Decision-Making Panel shall direct and to provide satisfactory proof of compliance with this order to the Commissioner.

rE42

In determining what sanction, if any, to impose under the determination by consent procedure, an Independent Decision-Making Panel shall have regard to any relevant policy or guidelines issued by the Bar Standards Board and/or by the Council of the Inns of Court from time to time.

rE43

An Independent Decision-Making Panel may not make an award of costs when dealing with an allegation under the determination by consent procedure.

rE44

The Commissioner must publish any finding and sanction resulting from the determination by consent procedure to the same extent as such publication would have taken place on a finding and sanction by a Disciplinary Tribunal, as provided for in the Disciplinary Tribunal Regulations.

rE45

If the applicable person accepts the outcome of the determination by consent procedure, no one may appeal against it.

Disciplinary Tribunal

rE46

At the same time as the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel directs that an allegation shall form the subject matter of a disciplinary charge and/or disqualification application before a Disciplinary Tribunal, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must also decide whether a three-person panel or a five-person panel is to be constituted.

rE47

In deciding whether to direct the constitution of a three-person or a five-person panel, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel shall consider the sanction which it considers is likely to be imposed on the applicable person if the charge or application is proved, having regard to:

- .1 any indicative sanctions guidance published by BTAS/COIC/Bar Standards Board from time to time; and
- .2 the previous disciplinary record of the applicable person.

rE48

The Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel may direct that a five-person panel is to be constituted if it considers that:

- .1 having regard to any indicative sanctions guidance published by BTAS/COIC/Bar Standards Board, in all the circumstances, a sanction of disbarment or suspension from practice for more than twelve months may be appropriate; or
- .2 having regard to any indicative sanctions guidance published by BTAS/COIC/Bar Standards Board, in all the circumstances, a sanction of indefinite disqualification or disqualification for a defined term of more than twelve months may be appropriate; or
- .3 having regard to any indicative sanctions guidance published by BTAS/COIC/Bar Standards Board, in all the circumstances, a sanction of a BSB entity having its authorisation or licence revoked or suspended for a period of more than twelve months may be appropriate; or
- .4 the allegation involves a conviction for dishonesty or deception otherwise the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must direct that a three-person panel is to be constituted.

rE49

The Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel must inform the applicable person of the direction that it has made pursuant to rE46. There is no appeal against the decision to refer a matter to a three or a five-person panel.

rE50

The Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel may:

- .1 refer to the same Disciplinary Tribunal any charges and/or disqualification applications which they consider may conveniently be dealt with together; and
- .2 refer any additional charges or disqualification applications relating to the same applicable person to the Disciplinary Tribunal which is dealing with the original disciplinary charge or disqualification application (as the case may be), even if the additional charge or application, by itself, may be regarded as insufficiently serious to merit disposal by a Disciplinary Tribunal of that level.

rE51

When the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel has directed that an allegation shall form the subject matter of a charge or application before a Disciplinary Tribunal, the Commissioner is responsible for bringing the charge or application on behalf of the Bar Standards Board and prosecuting that charge before such Disciplinary Tribunal. If so:

- .1 the Commissioner may arrange for the appointment of a representative to settle the charge and to present the case before the Disciplinary Tribunal; and
- .2 any charges shall be brought in the name and on behalf of the Bar Standards Board.

rE52

Section 5.B applies in respect of the procedure to be followed by the Disciplinary Tribunal

rE53

Where a Disciplinary Tribunal directs that matter(s) be referred to Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel under rE209 to consider whether an administrative sanction should be imposed, the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel shall consider the matter in accordance with rE26 to rE32 or take no enforcement action in accordance with rE19.2 and rE22.2.

Part 5 - A5. Appeals

Regulations

rE54

An applicable person has a right to appeal from a decision to impose an administrative sanction. That appeal is to an appeal panel nominated by the President in the same composition as a three-person panel constituted under rE141 of the Disciplinary Tribunal Regulations.

rE55

An appeal, if made, shall be made by the applicable person sending to the Commissioner, within 28 days of the imposition of the administrative sanction, a notice identifying the decision appealed against, the decision the applicable person contends for, the grounds of such appeal and a statement whether the applicable person requires their appeal to be disposed of at an oral hearing. If the applicable person does not expressly request an oral hearing, the appeal will be dealt with by a review of the papers. The appeal is a review of the original decision, not a re-hearing.

rE56

The notice must be accompanied by a sum as prescribed by the Bar Standards Board from time to time. The sum will be payable to the Bar Standards Board to cover expenses.

rE57

Where the appeal is to be dealt with at an oral hearing then:

- .1 at least 5 working days before the time set for the appeal, the Bar Standards Board will provide each member of the appeal panel and the applicable person with a paginated bundle of the correspondence and other documents on its files relating to the original decision; and
- .2 the applicable person and Bar Standards Board may be represented at the hearing.

rE58

The decision of an appeal panel is final and shall not be subject to any further appeal or reconsideration.

rE59

The appeal panel must decide whether to set aside or to vary the original decision.

rE60

If the appeal panel allows the appeal in whole or in part, the appeal panel may direct that any administrative fine or appeal fee already paid by the applicable person be refunded either in whole or in part, but the appeal panel has no power to award costs.

Part 5 - A6. Reconsidering allegations which have been disposed of

Regulations

rE61

The Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel may reconsider an allegation which has been disposed of by the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel respectively where:

- .1 new evidence becomes available which leads it to conclude that it should do so, or
- .2 for some other good reason.

rE62

Following such reconsideration, the Commissioner may take any further or different action the Commissioner thinks fit, as if any earlier decision had not been made.

Part 5 - A7. Confidentiality

Regulations

rE63

The Bar Standards Board must keep reports and allegations assessed or investigated under these regulations confidential. The Bar Standards Board must not disclose the fact that a report exists, or details of the report or of its treatment as an allegation or otherwise, or of its disposal save as specified in this Section 5.A, or as otherwise required by law.

rE64

Disclosure may be made:

- .1 for the purpose of the Bar Standards Board's regulatory assurance, supervision or authorisations functions; or
- .2 for the purpose of keeping the applicable person, or any source of information relating to the applicable person, informed of the progress of the consideration of a report or allegation; or
- .3 for the purpose of publicising any forthcoming public hearing of charges arising from the allegation; or
- .4 where the applicable person consents; or
- .5 in response to a request from the selection panel or a member of its secretariat in respect of an application by a barrister for silk; or from any body responsible for the appointment of judges in respect of an application for judicial appointment; or from some other body or the BSB authorised individual for a certificate of good standing in respect of a barrister; or
- .6 for the purposes of providing examples of the types of behaviour that may constitute breaches of the Handbook either externally or internally within the Bar Standards Board, provided that where disclosure occurs in these circumstances although details of the individual reports or allegations may be published, any relevant party's identities will remain anonymous; or
- .7 with the approval of the Commissioner, where the Commissioner considers it is in the public interest to disclose some or all of the details of the report or allegation.

Part 5 - A8. Interpretation

Regulations

rE65

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 5.A does not prevent the immediate operation of the Interim Suspension and Disqualification Regulations or the Fitness to Practise Regulations, where appropriate.

Part 5 - A9. CommencementRegulations

rE66

This Section 5.A shall come into force in accordance with the provisions of Part 1 of this Handbook.

Part 5 - B. The Disciplinary Tribunals RegulationsRegulationsPart 5 - B1. The RegulationsRegulationsRegulation E101Regulations

rE101

These Regulations will apply following the referral of an allegation by the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel to a Disciplinary Tribunal, in accordance with Part 5 Section A.

Regulation E102 - Service of Charges and/or ApplicationsRegulations

rE102

The Bar Standards Board must ensure that a copy of the charge(s) and/or application(s):

.1 is served on the relevant respondent(s), together with a copy of these Regulations not later than ten weeks after the date on which the Commissioner or an Independent Decision-Making Panel decides to refer the matter to a Disciplinary Tribunal; and

.2 at the same time, ensure that copies of the charge(s) and/or application(s) are sent to BTAS.

Regulations E103-E105 - Documents to be served on the respondentRegulations

rE103

As soon as practicable after the issue of the charge(s) and/or application(s) to the respondent(s), the Bar Standards Board must serve on the respondent(s) and file with BTAS:

- .1 a copy of the evidence of any witness intended to be called in support of any charge(s) or application(s) (which, for the avoidance of doubt, may be a formal witness statement or an informal document such as a letter or attendance note); and
- .2 a copy of any other documents intended to be relied on by the Bar Standards Board; and
- .3 the standard directions and/or non-standard directions, which, subject to rE111, the Bar Standards Board proposes to apply to the case and which must include such timetable as may be considered reasonable by the Bar Standards Board, having regard to the facts of that case.

rE104

If the documents referred to in rE103.1 and/or rE103.2 are not sent to the respondent(s) within 28 days of the service of the charges on the respondent(s) in accordance with rE102 above, then the Bar Standards Board must provide to the respondent(s) within that period:

- .1 details of the evidence that is still being sought; and
- .2 details of when it is believed that it will be practicable to supply that evidence to the respondent(s).

rE105

Nothing in rE103 or rE104 above shall prevent a Disciplinary Tribunal from receiving the evidence of a witness which has not been served on the respondent(s) in accordance with rE103 or rE104, provided that the Disciplinary Tribunal is of the opinion either that this does not materially prejudice the respondent(s), or that the evidence is accepted on such terms as are necessary to ensure that no such prejudice occurs.

Regulations E106-E107 - DirectionsRegulations

Within 21 days of the date of service of the directions under rE103.3, the respondent(s) must:

- .1 agree the standard directions and/or non-standard directions; or
- .2 provide to the Bar Standards Board written submissions explaining why the directions sought by the Bar Standards Board, should be amended, withdrawn or added to; and/or
- .3 indicate to the Bar Standards Board whether they intend to make any of the applications referred to in rE127.

rE107

Within 14 days of the date when the Bar Standards Board receives any written submissions from a respondent in accordance with rE106.2, the Bar Standards Board must consider them and must during that 14 day period:

- .1 inform the respondent(s) of those changes to the standard directions or non-standard directions (as appropriate) which the Bar Standards Board is able to agree; and
- .2 seek to agree with the respondent(s) such other changes to the standard directions or non-standard directions (as appropriate) as may be acceptable to all parties.

Regulations E108-E109 - No reply from respondentRegulations

rE108

Where standard directions are sought by the Bar Standards Board and the respondent does not reply to a request to agree directions within the relevant 21 day period referred to in rE106, the respondent will be deemed to have accepted the standard directions and they shall be deemed to apply to the particular matter, save and in so far as they may have been modified on the application of any other respondent to the same proceedings which was made within the relevant 21 day period. The Bar Standards Board must forthwith serve on the respondent and file with BTAS any directions which are deemed to apply to the matter.

rE109

Where non-standard directions are sought by the Bar Standards Board and the respondent does not reply within the 21 day period referred to in rE106, the Bar Standards Board must send to the President a copy of the non-standard directions and invite them to appoint a Directions

Judge to endorse the directions in accordance with rE114 to rE126.

Regulations E110-E112 - Agreement of directions

Regulations

rE110

Where standard directions are sought in a case by the Bar Standards Board and the parties agree the directions within the relevant 21 day period referred to in rE106, or within the 14 day period referred to in rE107, those directions will apply to the case and the Bar Standards Board must forthwith serve the agreed directions on the respondent and file them with BTAS.

rE111

The parties may agree non-standard directions, save that where any non-standard directions would have the effect of preventing BTAS from carrying out any function given to it by these Regulations, the said direction cannot be agreed without endorsement of a Directions Judge. In these circumstances, the Bar Standards Board must send to the President a copy of the non-standard directions and invite them to appoint a Directions Judge to endorse the directions in accordance with rE114 to rE126.

rE112

Where non-standard directions, which do not include matters under rE111, are sought by the Bar Standards Board in a case and the parties agree those directions within the relevant 21 day period referred to in rE106, or within the 14 day period referred to in rE107, those directions will apply to the case. The Bar Standards Board must forthwith serve the agreed directions on the respondent and file them with BTAS.

Regulation E113 - Non-agreement of directions

Regulations

rE113

Where standard directions and/or non-standard directions are sought in a case by the Bar Standards Board and the respondent does not agree those directions within the relevant 21 day period referred to in rE106, or within the 14 day period referred to in rE107, the Bar Standards Board must write to the respondent to confirm that the directions have not been agreed and must send to the President the following (where relevant):

- .1 a copy of the directions, including any standard directions and/or non-standard directions which have been agreed;
- .2 any written submissions received from the respondent(s) in accordance with rE106.2;
- .3 any notice from the respondent(s) that they may be intending to make an application referred to at rE106.3; and
- .4 the Bar Standards Board's response to any such request(s) and/or submissions.

Regulations E114-E126 - Agreement/endorsement of directions by a Directions Judge

Regulations

rE114

When the President has received the documents referred to in rE109, rE111 or rE113 above, the President must designate either a Queen's Counsel or Judge, to be determined at the President's sole discretion ("the Directions judge"), to exercise the powers and functions conferred on the Directions Judge in these Regulations.

rE115

The President must ensure that copies of the charge(s) or application(s), together with the documentation referred to at rE109, rE111 or rE113 above, are sent to the Directions Judge once the Directions Judge has been designated.

rE116

When they receive the relevant documents, the Directions Judge must consider any submissions about the directions and will determine whether an oral directions hearing is necessary.

rE117

If the Directions Judge considers that no oral hearing is necessary, then:

- .1 they must make an order setting out those directions which are to apply in the case taking into account all the relevant circumstances, including any written submissions of the parties and the Directions Judge's own findings; and

.2 they may consider and decide any other issues which may be necessary in accordance with rE129.

rE118

If the Directions Judge considers that an oral hearing is necessary, the Directions Judge must give written notice to the Bar Standards Board and the respondent(s) that an oral hearing is to be held for the purpose of giving directions and taking such other steps as the Directions Judge considers suitable for the clarification of the issues before the Disciplinary Tribunal and generally for the just and expeditious handling of the proceedings. The Directions Judge shall also provide the Bar Standards Board and the respondent(s) with a time estimate for the oral directions hearing.

rE119

Within seven days of receiving the notice referred to in rE118 above, the Bar Standards Board and the respondent(s) must notify the President and the other party of their and, where relevant, their representative's available dates and times during the six week period immediately after the date of that notice.

rE120

The Directions Judge must try to find a date and time within that six week period which are convenient for all parties. If that is not possible, the Directions Judge must fix a date and time for the oral directions hearing within that six week period and must notify the Bar Standards Board and the respondent(s) of that date and time.

rE121

Once the Directions Judge has set a date for the oral hearing, BTAS must appoint a person(s) in accordance with rE136 to act as Clerk at the hearing to take a note of the proceedings; draw up a record of the directions given and/or any admissions made at it.

rE122

BTAS must arrange for a record of the oral hearing before a Directions Judge to be made.

rE123

The oral hearing before a Directions Judge will be in private.

rE124

After the oral directions hearing (or, if one was not required, after the review of the papers by the Directions Judge) BTAS must ensure that copies of the directions order are served on the Bar Standards Board and on the respondent(s).

rE125

The directions order served under rE124 is final, and there is no appeal against it.

rE126

Any variation sought by a party to an order for standard directions made and served under rE108 or rE110, or to an order for non-standard directions made and served under rE112, must be endorsed by a Directions Judge, who shall be designated by the President in accordance with the requirements of rE114.

Regulations E127-E128 - Applications

Regulations

rE127

At any time before the hearing, either party can make any of the following applications and thereafter file with BTAS and serve on the opposing party written submission in support of the applications, namely:

- .1 an application to sever the charges and/or applications;
- .2 an application to strike out the charges and/or applications which relate to the respondent who makes the application;
- .3 an application to stay the proceedings;
- .4 an application about the admissibility of documents;
- .5 an application for disclosure of documents;
- .6 an application to extend or abridge any relevant time limits;
- .7 an application for the hearing to be held in private;

.8 an application for separate hearings or an application that proceedings pending against separate respondents be dealt with at the same hearing; or

.9 any other application to vary standard directions or non-standard directions (which either party considers reasonable, having regard to the facts of the case).

rE128

The Directions Judge or Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Disciplinary Tribunal will consider how any of the applications referred to rE127 are to be dealt with.

Regulation E129 - Extent of powers to order directions

Regulations

rE129

The Directions Judge or the Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal designated in the Convening Order (or failing the Directions Judge or the Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal, any other Judge nominated by the President) may, at any stage, make such directions for the management of the case or the hearing as they consider will expedite the just and efficient conduct of the case.

Regulations E130-E131 - Setting the hearing date

Regulations

rE130

This regulation applies where, after the deemed acceptance, later agreement of directions, or the service of a directions order by the President, the date of the hearing has not been fixed. Where this Regulation applies, each party must submit details of their availability for the substantive hearing to BTAS in accordance with the directions. After they receive such details, or, where no such details are provided, once the time for providing such details has expired, the President must fix the date of the substantive hearing, having regard to the availability of the parties (if provided) and the need for the prompt determination of any charges and/or application(s) made against the respondent(s), in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.

rE131

BTAS must inform all parties of the date fixed for the hearing as soon as reasonably practicable after the President has fixed the date.

Regulations E132-E135 - Appointing a Disciplinary Tribunal and issuing a Convening order

Regulations

rE132

On

.1 the deemed acceptance or later agreement of directions by the parties; or

.2 the service of the directions order by BTAS; or

.3 the fixing of the date of the hearing in accordance with rE130 above, the President must, in all cases,

.a appoint an appropriate Disciplinary Tribunal to sit on the relevant date(s), taking into account the requirements of these Regulations;

.b appoint a person or persons to act as Clerk or Clerks to the Disciplinary Tribunal in accordance with rE136;

.c not less than 14 days before the date of the substantive hearing, serve an order on the respondent(s) ("the Convening order") specifying:

.i the name of the respondent(s) to the proceedings and such other information as may be relevant to the respondent(s), for example:

(1) where any respondent is a barrister, details of the barrister's Inn, their date of call and (if appropriate) the date of their appointment as Queen's Counsel, and details of whether or not the barrister was acting as a self-employed barrister or an employed barrister (and, in the latter case, details of their employer, including whether or not it is a BSB entity) and if the barrister was acting as a HOLP or manager of a regulated entity, identifying this fact and identifying the regulated entity and whether or not it is a BSB entity;

(2) where any respondent is a BSB entity, details of the date when that body was so authorised or licensed with a summary of the number of barristers and other individuals working within that BSB authorised body;

(3) where any respondent is another type of BSB regulated person, details of whether or not the BSB regulated person is an authorised (non-BSB) person or is otherwise subject to regulation by any other regulator and, if so, the identity of that regulator, and the role of that individual, including whether they were acting as a HOLP, HOFA, manager or employee of a regulated entity and identifying that regulated entity and its Approved Regulator; and,

(4) where any respondent is a non-authorised individual employed by a BSB authorised person, details of the role of that individual and identifying the BSB authorised person who directly or indirectly employs the respondent;

.ii the date and time of the sitting of the Disciplinary Tribunal at which it is proposed the charge(s) and/or application(s) should be heard; and

.iii the names and status (that is, as Chair, as lay member, as barrister or other) of those persons who it is proposed should constitute the Disciplinary Tribunal to hear the case; and

.iv the name of the Clerk, and send copies of that Convening Order to the nominated members of the Disciplinary Tribunal, the Bar Standards Board, and the Clerk. In the Order the attention of the respondent(s) will be drawn to:

(1) their right to represent themselves or be represented professionally, with or without instructing a solicitor, as they shall think fit; and

(2) their right to inspect and be given copies of documents referred to in the list served pursuant to rE103 above; and

(3) their right (without prejudice to their right to appear and take part in the proceedings) to deliver a written answer to the charge(s) and/or application(s) if they think fit.

rE133

The respondent(s) may, when they receive the Convening Order, give notice to the President objecting to any one or more of the proposed members of the Disciplinary Tribunal. The respondent must give this notice as soon as is reasonably practicable and must specify the grounds for their objection.

rE134

When the President receives such an objection, they must, if satisfied that it is justified (but subject to rE135), exercise the power conferred on them by rE148 to nominate a substitute member or members of the Disciplinary Tribunal, and must notify the respondent(s) accordingly. When they receive that notification, the respondent(s) may object to any substitute member or members, in the same way as they may object under rE133.

rE135

No objection to any member of the Disciplinary Tribunal may be made, or if made, may be upheld, on the grounds only that they know, or might have known, about a charge of professional misconduct, or of a breach of proper professional standards, or a previous application to disqualify, or a charge consisting of a legal aid complaint, against the respondent(s), or any finding on any such application or charge, or any sanction imposed on the respondent(s) in connection with any such application or charge.

Regulations E136-E138 - Appointment of Clerk(s)

Regulations

rE136

BTAS shall appoint a Clerk(s) to perform the functions specified in these Regulations and such other functions as the President, Directions Judge or the Chair of any Disciplinary Tribunal may direct.

rE137

The President may publish qualifications or other requirements for those appointed to be Clerks.

rE138

No person who has been engaged in the investigation of an allegation or application against a respondent in accordance with the relevant procedure or otherwise shall act as Clerk of proceedings under these Regulations arising out of that allegation or application.

Regulations E139-E150 - The Disciplinary Tribunal - Composition of Disciplinary Tribunals

Regulations

rE139

A Disciplinary Tribunal must consist of either three persons or five persons.

rE140

A five-person panel must include the following persons nominated by the President:

- .1 as Chair, a Judge; and
- .2 two lay members; and
- .3 two practising barristers of not less than seven years' standing.

rE141

A three-person panel shall include the following persons nominated by the President:

- .1 as Chair, a Queen's Counsel or a Judge; and
- .2 one lay member; and
- .3 one practising barrister of not less than seven years' standing .

rE142

With the exception of judicial Chairs, the persons nominated by the President to sit on a Disciplinary Tribunal must be selected from the pool appointed by the Tribunal Appointments Body.

rE143

In deciding who will sit on the panel, the President may have regard to the nature of the charge(s) and/or application(s) being determined and to the identity of the respondent(s) against whom the charges have been made. When constituting the panel, the President shall take into account the requirements of rE140 and rE141 above, and rE144 and rE145 below.

rE144

A person must not be nominated to serve on a Disciplinary Tribunal if they:

- .1 are a member of the Bar Council or of any of its committees or the Independent Decision-Making Body; or
- .2 are a member of the Bar Standards Board or of any of its committees or the Independent Decision-Making Body; or
- .3 were a member of the Bar Standards Board or of any of its committees or the Independent Decision-Making Body at any time when the matter was being considered by the Bar Standards Board.

rE145

The person nominated by the President, in accordance with rE140 and rE141, to be Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal, may be the Directions Judge as appointed under rE114, unless the Directions Judge considers there to be any reason why they should not Chair the hearing.

rE146

The President may publish qualifications or other requirements made for those appointed to serve on a Disciplinary Tribunal.

rE147

If a vacancy in the Disciplinary Tribunal arises before the substantive hearing of the charge, the President must choose another member of the relevant class to fill that vacancy.

rE148

At any time before the substantive hearing of the charge starts, the President may cancel any or all of the nominations made pursuant to these Regulations, and make such alternative nominations as, in the exercise of their discretion, they deem necessary or expedient, provided always that the President notifies the respondent(s) of the identity of such substitutes as soon as is reasonably practicable after they have chosen them. The respondent(s) may object to such substitute members in the same way as they may object under rE133.

rE149

The proceedings of a five-person panel will not be invalidated on the sole ground that after the Convening Order has been issued (in accordance with rE132 above), one or more of the members becomes unable to act or is disqualified from acting, provided that:

- .1 the Chair and at least one lay member and one barrister member are still able to act and are present throughout the substantive hearing; and
- .2 the number of members present throughout the substantive hearing of the charge is not reduced below three.

rE155

An application under rE154 must be submitted to the Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal which has been convened to hear the case and served upon the other party. The Chair must make reasonable attempts to seek any representations in response to the application from the other party. The Chair must consider the application for adjournment taking into account any response submitted by the other party and may:

- .1 grant the adjournment; or

Regulations E158-E160 - JoinderRegulations

rE158

Unless it is of the view that there is a risk of prejudice to the fairness of the proceedings, the Disciplinary Tribunal may consider and determine charges against two or more respondents at the same hearing where:

- .1 the charge(s) against each respondent arises out of the same circumstances; or
- .2 in the view of the Disciplinary Tribunal, a joint hearing is necessary or desirable.

rE159

Where a joint hearing is held:

- .1 these Regulations are to have effect in relation to the hearing with the necessary modifications as directed by the Chair; and
- .2 each respondent concerned is to be able to exercise any of the rights granted to that respondent under these Regulations whether or not any other respondent concerned wishes to exercise that right.

rE160

Unless it is of the view that there is a risk of prejudice to the fairness of the proceedings, the Disciplinary Tribunal may consider and determine at a single hearing two or more matters which have been separately referred to the Disciplinary Tribunal in respect of the same respondent, whether or not those matters arise from the same circumstances.

Regulation E161 - Amendment and addition of charge(s) and/or application(s)Regulations

rE161

A Disciplinary Tribunal may at any time before or during the hearing grant permission to the Bar Standards Board to amend the charge(s) and/or application(s) against any respondent, or grant permission for new charge(s) and/or application(s) be added, provided that:

- .1 the Disciplinary Tribunal is satisfied that no respondent will by reason of such an amendment or addition suffer any substantial prejudice in the conduct of their defence; and
- .2 the Disciplinary Tribunal will, if so requested by a respondent, adjourn for such time as the Disciplinary Tribunal considers reasonably necessary to enable that respondent to meet the amended charge(s) or application(s).

Regulations E162-E163 - Adjournment of the hearingRegulations

rE162

Subject to rE163, the Disciplinary Tribunal must sit from day to day until it has made a finding and, if any charge or application is found proved, until sanction has been determined.

rE163

A Disciplinary Tribunal may, if they decide an adjournment is necessary for any reason, adjourn the hearing for such period or periods as it may decide.

Regulation E164 - Standard of proofRegulations

rE166

The Disciplinary Tribunal may:

- .1 (subject to rE167 below) admit any evidence, whether oral or written, whether given in person, or over the telephone, or by video link, or by such other means as the Disciplinary Tribunal may deem appropriate, whether direct or hearsay, and whether or not it would be admissible in a court of law;
- .2 give such directions with regard to the admission of evidence at the hearing as it considers appropriate, ensuring that a respondent has a proper opportunity of answering the charge(s) and/or application(s) made against them;
- .3 exclude any hearsay evidence if it is not satisfied that reasonable steps have been taken to obtain direct evidence of the facts sought to be proved by the hearsay evidence.

rE167

Any party may refer to the fact (if relevant) that the determination by consent procedure was used before the allegation was referred as a charge before a Disciplinary Tribunal. However, no reference may be made to the substance of the procedure (including, without limitation, any reference to the contents of any report produced in the course of such procedure, or to the circumstances in which the determination by consent procedure ended), unless and until the respondent refers to the substance of the procedure in the course of presenting their case, or when they are being sanctioned.

rE168

Where a party has previously failed to comply with any direction made by the Directions Judge, or has failed to do any act, including the submission of evidence, within the time period specified in a direction, the Disciplinary Tribunal may, at its discretion:

- .1 decide to exclude the relevant evidence; or
- .2 draw an adverse inference against that party.

Regulations E169-E170 - Decisions of courts or tribunalsRegulations

rE169

- .3 the finding and sanction of any tribunal in or outside England and Wales exercising a professional disciplinary jurisdiction may be proved by producing an official copy of the finding and sanction and the findings of fact upon which that finding or sanction was based shall be proof of those facts, unless proved to be inaccurate; and
- .4 the judgment of any civil court, or a wasted costs order made in any court, may be proved by producing an official copy of the judgment or order, and the findings of fact upon which that judgment or order was based shall be proof of those facts, unless proved to be inaccurate.

In proceedings before a Disciplinary Tribunal which involve the decision of a court or tribunal in previous proceedings to which the respondent was not a party, with the exception of a wasted costs order that was made against the respondent, the provisions of rE169 do not apply.

Regulations E171-E175 - Witness evidence at the Disciplinary Tribunal

Regulations

rE171

Witnesses shall be required to take an oath, or to affirm, before giving oral evidence at the hearing.

rE172

- .2 may be cross-examined by the opposing party;
- .3 may be re-examined by the party calling them; and
- .4 may at any time be questioned by the Disciplinary Tribunal.

rE173

Any further questioning of the witnesses by the parties shall be at the discretion of the Disciplinary Tribunal.

rE174

The Disciplinary Tribunal may, upon the application of a party, agree that the identity of a witness should not be revealed in public.

rE175

A witness of fact shall be excluded from the hearing until they are called to give evidence, failing which they will not be entitled to give evidence without leave of the Disciplinary Tribunal

Regulations E176-E182 - Vulnerable Witnesses

Regulations

rE176

For the purpose of Part 5: Section B, any person falling into one or more of the following categories may be treated by the Disciplinary Tribunal as a vulnerable witness in proceedings before it:

- .1 any witness under the age of 18 at the time of the hearing;
- .2 any witness with a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1983;
- .3 any witness who is significantly impaired in relation to intelligence and social functioning;
- .4 any witness with physical disabilities who requires assistance to give evidence;
- .5 any witness, where the allegation against the respondent is of a sexual or violent nature and the witness was the alleged victim; and
- .6 any witness who complains of intimidation.

rE177

Subject to hearing representations from the parties, the Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal or the Disciplinary Tribunal may adopt such measures as it considers desirable to enable it to receive evidence from a vulnerable witness.

rE178

Any witness who is not regarded as a vulnerable witness under rE176 may apply for one or more of the measures set out in rE179 to be put into place on the ground that the measure(s) is desirable to enable the Disciplinary Tribunal to receive the witness's evidence.

rE179

Measures adopted by the Disciplinary Tribunal for receiving evidence from a vulnerable witness may include, but are not to be limited to:

- .1 use of video links;

- .2 use of pre-recorded evidence as the evidence-in-chief of a witness, provided always that such a witness is available at the hearing for cross-examination and questioning by the Disciplinary Tribunal;
- .3 use of interpreters (including signers and translators) or intermediaries;
- .4 use of screens or such other measures as the Disciplinary Tribunal consider necessary in the circumstances in order to prevent:
 - .a the identity of the witness being revealed to the press or the general public; or
 - .b access to the witness by the respondent
- .5 the hearing of evidence (either whole or in part) by the Disciplinary Tribunal in private.

rE180

No respondent charged with an allegation of a sexual or violent nature may cross-examine in person a witness who is the alleged victim, either:

- .1 in connection with that allegation, or
- .2 in connection with any other allegation (of whatever nature) with which the said respondent is charged in the proceedings.

rE181

In the circumstances set out in rE180, in the absence of the respondent's written consent, BTAS must, no less than seven days before the hearing, appoint a legally qualified person to cross-examine the witness on the respondent's behalf.

rE182

Regulations E183-E184 - Absence of Respondent

Regulations

rE183

Where the respondent has not attended at the time and place appointed for the hearing, the Disciplinary Tribunal may nevertheless, subject to compliance with rE234.1 in respect of that respondent, proceed to hear and determine the charge(s) or application(s) relating to that respondent, if it considers it just to do so and it is satisfied that the relevant procedure has been complied with (that is, the respondent has been duly served (in accordance with rE249 of these Regulations) with the documents required by rE102, rE103, and rE132.3.c (as appropriate)).

rE184

If the relevant procedure has not been complied with, but a Disciplinary Tribunal is satisfied that it has not been practicable to comply with the relevant procedure, the Tribunal may hear and determine the charge(s) or application(s) in the absence of that respondent, if it considers it just to do so, subject to compliance with rE234.2 in respect of that respondent if the Disciplinary Tribunal finds any charge or application proved.

Regulations E185-E187 - Application for a fresh hearing

Regulations

rE185

Where the Disciplinary Tribunal proceed in the respondent's absence, in accordance with rE183 or rE184, the respondent may apply to BTAS for a Directions Judge, appointed by the President, to consider an application for a fresh hearing before a new Disciplinary Tribunal.

rE186

The respondent's application under rE185 must be supported by a statement setting out the facts and/or circumstances upon which the respondent relies in support of their application.

rE187

The Directions Judge may grant a new hearing if they consider it just to do so and if they are satisfied that:

- .1 the respondent submitted their application for a new hearing promptly upon becoming aware of the decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal; and
- .2 the respondent had good reason for not attending the hearing.

Regulations E188-E198 - Order of proceedings at a hearingRegulations

rE188

The order of proceedings at a hearing shall be as set out in these regulations unless the Disciplinary Tribunal decides, having considered the interests of justice and fairness to the parties, that the procedure should be varied. The Disciplinary Tribunal may then give such directions with regard to the conduct of, and procedure at, the hearing as it considers appropriate.

rE189

At any time during the hearing when it considers it desirable, the Disciplinary Tribunal may retire into private to deliberate.

rE190

The Disciplinary Tribunal shall consider any submissions from the parties in relation to objection(s) to the charge(s) or preliminary applications, following which the Disciplinary Tribunal will retire into private session to consider the submissions and shall thereafter announce its determination.

rE191

After the Disciplinary Tribunal has dealt with any submissions or applications under rE190, the Clerk shall read the charge(s) in public.

rE192

The Clerk shall ask the respondent(s) whether the charge(s) is admitted or denied. The respondent(s) plea to the charge(s) will be entered on the record.

rE193

Where the respondent(s) admit the charges(s), the Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal shall announce the charge(s) proved and the Disciplinary Tribunal shall record in writing its finding on the charge(s) and its reasons. The matter shall then continue in accordance with the procedure set out at paragraph rE199 onwards.

rE194

Where the respondent(s) denies the charge(s), the Bar Standards Board will present the case against the respondent(s), which may include producing any evidence and calling any witness in person.

rE195

After the evidence against the respondent has been called, the respondent shall be entitled to submit that they have no case to answer. The Bar Standards Board shall be entitled to respond to such a submission. If such a submission is upheld the Disciplinary Tribunal shall dismiss the charge(s), either in whole or in part. If the entirety of the case against the respondent is not dismissed and some charges remain the proceedings shall continue as set out at rE196 to rE198.

rE196

The respondent shall then be entitled to call any witness, give evidence on their own behalf and adduce any other evidence in support of the respondent's defence.

rE197

The Bar Standards Board shall be entitled to call witnesses and adduce evidence in rebuttal of any part of the defence case.

rE198

After the respondent has called any witness in person and adduced any evidence, the Bar Standards Board may address the Disciplinary Tribunal, and thereafter the respondent.

Regulations E199-E202 - The findingRegulations

rE199

At the end of the hearing, the Disciplinary Tribunal must record in writing its finding(s) on each charge or application, and its reasons. That record must be signed by the Chair and by all members of the Disciplinary Tribunal.

rE200

If the members of the Disciplinary Tribunal do not agree on any charge or application, the finding to be recorded on that charge or application must be that of the majority. If the members of the Disciplinary Tribunal are equally divided on any charge or application, then, as the burden of proof is on the Bar Standards Board, the finding to be recorded on that charge or application must be that which is the most favourable to the respondent.

rE201

The Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal must then announce the Disciplinary Tribunal's finding on the charge(s) or application(s), and state whether each such finding was unanimous or by a majority. The Disciplinary Tribunal is free to reserve its judgment.

rE202

In any case where the Disciplinary Tribunal dismisses the charge(s) and/or application(s), it may give advice to the respondent about their future conduct

Regulations E203-E219 - The sanction

Regulations

rE203

If the Disciplinary Tribunal finds any of the charges or applications proved against a respondent, it may hear evidence of any previous:

- .1 finding of professional misconduct by a Disciplinary Tribunal or under the determination by consent procedure; or
- .2 Disqualification Order; or
- .3 finding of a breach of proper professional standards by the Bar Standards Board or any other regulator
- .4 adverse finding on a charge consisting of a legal aid complaint; made in respect of the respondent, or, where the proved charge(s) concerns a BSB entity, in respect of that body or any person employed in the BSB entity directly implicated by the charges

rE204

After hearing any representations by or on behalf of the respondent(s), the Disciplinary Tribunal must decide what sanction to impose on a respondent, taking into account the sentencing guidance and must record its sanction in writing, together with its reasons.

rE205

If the members of the Disciplinary Tribunal do not agree on the sanction to be imposed on a respondent, the sanction to be recorded must be that decided by the majority. If the members of the Disciplinary Tribunal are equally divided on the sanction to be imposed on a respondent, the sanction to be recorded must be that which is the most favourable to the respondent.

rE206

The Chair of the Disciplinary Tribunal must then announce the Disciplinary Tribunal's decision on sanction and state whether the decision was unanimous or by a majority.

rE207

Subject to rE208 below:

.1 a respondent against whom a charge of professional misconduct has been found proved may be sanctioned by the Disciplinary Tribunal as follows:

- .a in the case of barristers, in accordance with Annex 1 to these Regulations;
- .b in the case of a BSB authorised body, in accordance with Annex 2 to these Regulations;
- .c in the case of a BSB licensed body, in accordance with Annex 3 to these Regulations;
- .d in the case of registered European lawyers, in accordance with Annex 4 to these Regulations;
- .e in the case of all other BSB regulated persons, in accordance with Annex 5 to these Regulations;

.2 in the case of a respondent who is an applicable person in respect of whom the Disciplinary Tribunal finds the disqualification condition to be established, the Disciplinary Tribunal may make a Disqualification Order if the Disciplinary Tribunal considers that the making of such a Disqualification Order is a proportionate sanction and is in the public interest (there being no other available sanction in respect of a non-authorised individual (other than an unregistered barrister, manager of a BSB entity or a registered European lawyer who does not have a current practicing certificate) directly or indirectly employed by a BSB authorised person).

In any case where a charge of professional misconduct has been found proved, the Disciplinary Tribunal may decide that no further action should be taken against the respondent

rE209

In any case where a charge of professional misconduct has not been found proved, the Disciplinary Tribunal may direct that the matter(s) be referred to the Bar Standards Board for it to consider whether an administrative sanction should be imposed in accordance with the provisions of rE19.3 or rE22.3 of the Enforcement Decision Regulations, where:

- .1 The Disciplinary Tribunal is satisfied there is sufficient evidence on the balance of probabilities of a breach of the Handbook by the respondent; and
- .2 The Disciplinary Tribunal considers that such referral to the Bar Standards Board is proportionate and in the public interest

rE209A

A direction made under rE209 is not a disposal or a finding for the purposes of the BSB Handbook.

rE210

A three-person panel must not:

- .1 disbar a barrister or suspend a barrister's practising certificate for a period longer than twelve months; or
- .2 revoke the authorisation or licence (as appropriate) of a BSB entity or suspend it for a period longer than twelve months; or
- .3 remove a registered European lawyer from the register of European lawyers; or
- .4 impose a sanction of suspension on any BSB regulated person for a prescribed period longer than twelve months; or
- .5 impose a Disqualification Order for more than twelve months.

This Regulation does not prevent a three-person panel making an order in accordance with rE211 below.

rE211

In the event that a three-person panel considers that a case before it merits the imposition on a respondent of any of the sentences referred to in rE210 or the three-person panel otherwise considers that the case of a particular respondent is complex enough to warrant sentencing by a five-person panel:

- .1 the three-person panel must refer the case to a five-person panel for it to sanction that respondent (but may proceed to sanction any other respondents to the proceedings in respect of whom this regulation does not apply); and
- .2 the three-person panel must, in order to help the five-person panel, prepare a statement of the facts as found (and, where relevant, the sentences passed on any other respondents to the proceedings). The respondent cannot challenge the facts found by the three-person panel; and
- .3 the three-person panel must direct within what period of time the sentencing hearing before the five-person panel is to be held and make appropriate directions for the parties to provide the President with their dates of availability.

rE212

Following a referral by a three-person panel under rE211, the five-person panel must be constituted in accordance with rE140. The President must fix the date for the sentencing hearing and in so doing shall have regard to the availability of the parties, save that the President may disregard the availability of any party where that party has failed to provide any, or any reasonable dates of availability. As soon as is reasonably practicable after they have fixed the sentencing hearing, the President must inform all the parties of that date.

rE213

The respondent must be informed by BTAS as soon as practicable of the names and status (that is, as Chair, as lay member, as barrister or other) of those persons who it is proposed will constitute the five-person panel. The respondent may, when they are so informed, give notice to the President objecting to any one or more of the proposed members of the panel. That notice must be given as soon as is reasonably practicable, must specify the ground of objection, and must be dealt with in accordance with rE134 and rE135.

rE214

If the five-person panel is satisfied that the requirements of rE212 and rE213 above have been complied with, and the respondent has not attended at the time and place appointed for the sentencing hearing, the five-person panel may nonetheless sanction the respondent, provided that it complies with rE234.1.

rE215

If the five-person panel is satisfied that it has not been practicable to comply with the requirements of rE212 and rE213, above, and the respondent has not attended at the time and place appointed for the sentencing hearing, the five-person panel may nonetheless sanction the respondent, provided that it complies with rE234.2.

rE216

If the procedure under rE215 has been followed, the respondent may apply to the Directions Judge for an order that there should be a new sentencing hearing before a fresh five-person panel and the procedure for the respondent's application shall be as set out at rE185 to rE187 in these Regulations.

rE217

Sections 41 and 42 of the Administration of Justice Act 1985 (as substituted by Section 33 of the Legal Aid Act 1988 and as amended by Schedule 4 to the Access to Justice Act 1999) confer certain powers (relating to the reduction or cancellation of fees otherwise payable by the Legal Aid Agency in connection with services provided as part of the Criminal Legal Aid or Civil Legal Aid and to the exclusion from providing representation funded by the Legal Aid Agency as part of the Criminal Legal Aid or Civil Legal Aid) on a Disciplinary Tribunal in the cases to which those Sections apply). Accordingly:

.1 any Disciplinary Tribunal which hears a charge consisting of a legal aid complaint relating to the conduct of a respondent who is a barrister may if it thinks fit (and whether or not it sentences the respondent in accordance with rE207.1 in respect of any conduct arising out of the same legal aid complaint) order that any such fees as are referred to in Section 41(2) of the Act of 1985 shall be reduced or cancelled;

.2 where a Disciplinary Tribunal hears a charge of professional misconduct against a respondent who is a barrister it may (in addition to, or instead of, sentencing that respondent in accordance with rE206.1) order that they be excluded from providing representation funded by the Legal Aid Agency as part of the Community Legal Service, or Criminal Defence Service, either temporarily, or for a specified period, if it determines that there is a good reason to exclude them arising from:

.a their conduct in connection with any such services as are mentioned in Section 40(1) of the Act of 1985; or

.b their professional conduct generally.

rE218

Whether or not a Disciplinary Tribunal finds any charge or application proved against a barrister who is a pupil supervisor, if the Disciplinary Tribunal considers that the circumstances of the allegation are relevant to the respondent in their capacity as a pupil supervisor, it may notify the respondent's AETO and/or the BSB of those concerns in such manner as it sees fit.

rE219

If a barrister is a member of more than one Inn, each Inn of which they are a member must be mentioned in the sanction imposed on them.

Regulations E220-E224 - Sanction of suspension from practice or from authorisation or licensing or imposition of conditions

Regulations

rE220

For the purposes of rE222 to rE224:

.1 The effect of a sanction of suspension for a BSB authorised individual is that:

.a the respondent's practising certificate is suspended by the Bar Standards Board for the period of the suspension;

.b the respondent is prohibited from practising as a barrister, or holding themselves out as being a barrister when providing legal services or as otherwise being authorised by the Bar Standards Board to provide reserved legal activities or when describing themselves as a barrister in providing services other than legal services (whether or not for reward) unless they disclose the suspension;

.2 The effect of a sanction of suspension for a registered European lawyer shall mean that the respondent is suspended from the register of European lawyers maintained by the Bar Standards Board and is, for so long as they remain suspended:

.a prohibited from holding themselves out as registered with the Bar Standards Board; and;

.b not authorised to practise.

.3 The effect of a sanction of suspension for a BSB entity shall mean that the body's authorisation or licence is suspended for the period of the suspension such that the respondent is not an authorised person for that period;

.4 The effect of a sanction on a BSB authorised individual or a registered European lawyer requiring completion of continuing professional development shall be in addition to the mandatory requirements set out in the continuing professional development rules at Part 4 of this Handbook.

rE221

In exceptional circumstances, where the total suspension is three months or less, the Tribunal may postpone the commencement of the suspension for a period as it deems fit.

rE222

The period for which a sanction of suspension from practice is expressed to run may be:

- .1 a fixed period; or
- .2 until the respondent has complied with any conditions specified in the order imposing the sanction of suspension.

rE223

Conditions may be imposed on a barrister's practising certificate or on the authorisation or licence of a BSB entity:

- .1 without its being suspended; or
- .2 to take effect on a barrister's practising certificate or on the authorisation or licence of a BSB entity when a period of suspension ends.

rE224

Conditions may (depending on the circumstances) include:

- .1 conditions limiting the scope of the respondent's practice (after the end of any suspension, if relevant) to such part as the Disciplinary Tribunal may determine, either indefinitely or for a defined period; and/or
- .2 imposing requirements that the respondent, or in the case of a BSB entity, its managers or employees, undergo such further training as the Disciplinary Tribunal may determine; and/or
- .3 prohibiting the respondent from accepting or carrying out any public access instructions; and/or
- .4 such other matters as the Disciplinary Tribunal may consider appropriate for the purpose of protecting the public and/or preventing a repetition of the conduct in question.

Regulations E225-E233 - Suspension/withdrawal of practising rights pending the hearing of any appeal

Regulations

rE225

rE226 to rE233 below apply to any respondent who:

- .1 is a barrister, who has been sanctioned to be disbarred or to be suspended or to be prohibited from accepting or carrying out any public access work or instructions for more than twelve months;
- .2 is a BSB authorised individual, who has been sanctioned to be disqualified or to be suspended for more than twelve months;
- .3 is a BSB entity, which has been sanctioned to have its authorisation or licence revoked or suspended for more than twelve months; or
- .4 is a BSB authorised person, who has been sanctioned to have conditions placed on their practising certificate, authorisation or licence (as appropriate) prohibiting them from accepting any public access instructions or conducting any litigation or for more than twelve months.

rE226

Where rE225 applies, the Disciplinary Tribunal must seek representations from the respondent and from the Bar Standards Board on the appropriateness or otherwise of taking action under rE227 below.

rE227

Having heard any representations under rE225 the Disciplinary Tribunal must (unless in the circumstances of the case it appears to the Disciplinary Tribunal to be inappropriate to do so), either:

- .1 in relation to rE225.1 to rE225.3, require the respondent to suspend their practice immediately, in which case the Bar Standards Board must suspend that respondent's practising certificate with immediate effect; or
- .2 in relation to rE225.4 decide that the condition prohibiting the respondent from accepting public access instructions or conducting any litigation, shall take effect immediately; or

.3 where the respondent has been sanctioned to be disbarred or to be suspended, and where that respondent does not currently hold a practising certificate, require the Bar Standards Board not to issue any practising certificate to them.

rE228

If the Disciplinary Tribunal decides that it would be inappropriate to require immediate suspension or immediate imposition of conditions (as the case may be) it may nonetheless require the respondent to suspend their practice or to impose conditions, from such date as the Disciplinary Tribunal may specify.

rE229

Where the respondent is permitted to continue to practise for any period before being suspended under rE228 the Disciplinary Tribunal may require the Bar Standards Board to impose such terms on the respondent's practice as the Disciplinary Tribunal deems necessary to protect the public until the suspension comes into effect.

rE230

Where an order is made in respect of a respondent under rE225 and that respondent considers that, due to a change in the circumstances, it would be appropriate for that order to be varied, they may apply to the President in writing for it to be varied.

rE231

When the President receives an application made under rE230, they must refer it to the Chair and to one of the lay members of the Disciplinary Tribunal which originally made the order to make a decision on the application.

rE232

- .2 lay down a fixed time and date (normally not less than 14 and not more than twenty-one days from the date of the letter) for the hearing to take place. One alternative shall be given;
- .3 invite the respondent to accept one or other of the dates proposed or to provide a written representation to the President, which should be copied to the Commissioner, objecting to both dates with reasons and providing two further alternative dates which shall be not more than:
 - .a four weeks after the date of the imposition of the immediate interim suspension or disqualification, where relevant; or
 - .b in all other cases, twenty-one days from the date of the letter of notification;

Any such representation must be received by the President not more than ten days from the date of the letter of notification. The President shall consider any such representation together with any representations from the Commissioner, and either confirm one of the original dates or re-fix the hearing. If no such representation is received within ten days of the date of the letter of notification the hearing shall take place at the time and date first fixed pursuant to rE274.2 above. The President's decision, which shall be notified in writing to the respondent by the President, shall be final. Once fixed, a hearing date shall be vacated only in exceptional circumstances and with the agreement of the

.b not to accept or carry out any public access instructions; and/or

.c to inform their professional and/or lay clients about any convictions, charges or other matters leading to a referral, in written terms satisfactory to the Commissioner; and summarising the consequences of the respondent electing to make such an undertaking (which for the avoidance of doubt, may include those set out at rE272.4 to rE272.7 above);

.6 removed.

rE275

If a respondent sends a letter in accordance with rE274.4 above which is satisfactory to the Commissioner, the Chair shall accept the undertaking contained in the letter in lieu of the interim panel imposing any period of interim suspension or interim disqualification pending the disposal by a Disciplinary Tribunal of any charges of professional misconduct or applications for a disqualification order (as the case may be).

Regulations E276-E278 - Procedure and powers of interim panels

Regulations

rE276

At any hearing of an interim panel the proceedings shall be governed by the rules of natural justice, subject to which:

.1 the procedure shall be informal, the details being at the discretion of the Chair of the interim panel;

.2 the respondent shall be entitled to make representations in writing or orally, by themselves or by another on their behalf, as to;

.a why a period of interim suspension or interim disqualification should not be imposed; or

.b why the interim panel should not direct the respondent to notify their professional clients and/or lay clients about any convictions, charges or other matters leading to a referral; or

.c any further or alternative direction which the interim panel is empowered to make in relation to the respondent under rE278.3 below;

pending the disposal of any charges or applications by a Disciplinary Tribunal;

.3 no witnesses may be called without the prior consent of the Chair of the Panel and without the submission of a proof of evidence;

.4 the attendance of the respondent shall be required. Should they nevertheless fail to attend, the hearing may proceed in their absence subject to the interim panel being satisfied that this course is appropriate. Should the interim panel not be so satisfied, it shall have the power to adjourn the hearing;

.5 the hearing shall not be in public unless so requested by the respondent and a record shall be taken electronically; and

.6 if the interim panel decides an adjournment is necessary for any reason, it may adjourn the hearing for such period and to such time and place, and upon such terms, as it may think fit.

rE277

If the members of the interim panel are not unanimous as to any decision, the decision made shall be that of the majority of them. If the members of the interim panel are equally divided the decision shall be that which is most favourable to the respondent.

rE278

At the conclusion of the hearing the interim panel:

.1 may decide not to impose any period of interim suspension, interim disqualification or other order;

.2 may impose a period of interim suspension or interim disqualification (in each case, either unconditionally or subject to conditions) pending the hearing before a Disciplinary Tribunal, provided that no interim suspension or interim disqualification may be imposed unless the interim panel considers that:

.a were a Disciplinary Tribunal to find a related charge of professional misconduct proven, it would be likely to impose a sentence of disbarment (with respect to barrister respondents), a sentence of suspension (with respect to barrister respondents or registered European lawyer respondents or BSB entity respondents), revocation of the licence or authorisation (with respect to BSB entity respondents) or a disqualification order (with respect to applicable person respondents); and

.b such interim suspension or interim disqualification is in the public interest;

.3 in lieu of imposing a period of interim suspension or interim disqualification, the interim panel may either:

.a where the respondent is a BSB authorised person, direct the respondent to carry out their or its future activities in accordance with such interim conditions on the respondent's authorisation or licence as the interim panel may think fit pending final disposal of the charges or application against them or it; or

.b where the respondent is a manager or employee of a BSB authorised person, direct such person (after affording the BSB authorised person an opportunity to be heard) to take such steps in relation to the respondent as the interim panel may think fit, which may include limits on the type of work the respondent is to be permitted to do, or requirements as to their supervision or training, pending final disposal of the charges or application against them;

.c accept from the respondent an undertaking in written terms satisfactory to the interim panel (and subject to such conditions and for such period as the interim panel may agree):

.i to be immediately suspended or disqualified; or

.ii not to accept or carry out any public access instructions or to conduct litigation; or

.iii to inform their professional and lay clients about any convictions, charges or other matters leading to a referral;

pending the disposal of any charges or application by a Disciplinary Tribunal provided always that the respondent accepts that the following consequences may arise as a result of such undertaking being provided depending on the nature of the undertaking being provided:

(1) the removal of the relevant BSB authorised individual's practising certificate, litigation extension and/or right to undertake public access work (as appropriate);

(2) the imposition of conditions on the relevant BSB authorised person's authorisation and/or licence (as appropriate);

(3) publication of the details of such interim suspension or disqualification on the Bar Standards Board's website; and

(4) either the inclusion of a note on the Bar Standards Board's register of BSB authorised persons to the effect that such BSB authorised person is temporarily suspended from practice or the inclusion of the details of such interim disqualification on the Bar Standards Board's register of individuals that are the subject of a disqualification order;

.4 shall set down in writing signed by the Chair of the interim panel the decision of the interim panel and the terms of any period of interim suspension, interim disqualification or interim condition imposed under these Interim Suspension and Disqualification Regulations or accepted (in the form of an undertaking) under rE278.3.c above.

.a Where the respondent is a BSB authorised individual, the imposition of any period of suspension shall be recorded as follows:

"That be suspended from practice as a and be prohibited from holding themselves out as being a for a period expiring on [the day of...../[insert applicable condition/event on which expiry is contingent] or such earlier date as a Disciplinary Tribunal shall have disposed of any charges that have caused the interim suspension or such Disciplinary Tribunal may otherwise direct." (Note: If the Panel decides that the suspension should apply to only part of the respondent's practice or shall be subject to conditions, such part or such conditions (as the case may be) shall be recorded);

.b Where the respondent is a BSB entity, the imposition of any period of suspension shall be recorded as follows:

"That have its BSB licence/authorisation suspended for a period expiring on [the day of...../[insert applicable condition/event on which expiry is contingent] or such earlier date as a Disciplinary Tribunal shall have disposed of any charges that have caused the interim suspension or such Disciplinary Tribunal may otherwise direct." (Note: If the Panel decides that the suspension should apply to only part of the respondent's practice or shall be subject to conditions, such part or such conditions (as the case may be) shall be recorded);

.c Where the respondent is an applicable person, the imposition of any period of disqualification shall be recorded as follows:

"That be disqualified from [specify here the relevant capacities in respect of which the order applies, which may be some or all of: acting as a HOLP, HOFA or manager of any BSB entity or being an employee of any BSB authorised person] and that any BSB regulated person is prohibited from permitting the respondent to work in any such capacity for a period expiring on [the day of...../[insert applicable condition/event on which expiry is contingent] or such earlier date as a Disciplinary Tribunal shall have disposed of any charges that have caused the interim disqualification or such Disciplinary Tribunal may otherwise direct";

Such hearing shall be a rehearing of the matter by the review panel which may reconsider the matter as if there had been no previous hearing.
